Marine Tourism and Climate Change Impacts Prashant Raturi, 2025-02-20 Marine Tourism and Climate Change Impacts explores the intricate relationship between marine tourism and climate change. We cover a wide range of topics including different types of coastal and marine tourism, the importance of coastal ecosystems, threats to marine tourism from climate change, and planning for its impacts. Marine tourism is a growing industry that benefits many coastal communities. However, climate change poses a major threat to this sector. We discuss various strategies to mitigate these impacts and safeguard the future of marine tourism. Our book provides a comprehensive understanding of how climate change affects marine tourism and what can be done to address these challenges. It is a valuable resource for anyone interested in learning more about this critical issue.

A Research Agenda for Tourism and Development Richard Sharpley, David Harrison, 2019 Tourism is integral to local, regional, and national development policies as a major global economic sector. It has the potential to underpin economic growth and wider development. Yet transformations in both the nature of tourism and the dynamic environment within which it occurs give rise to new questions with regards to its developmental role. This Research Agenda offers a state-of-the-art review of the research into the tourism development nexus. Exploring issues including governance, policy, philanthropy, poverty reduction, and tourism consumption, it identifies significant gaps in the literature and proposes new and sometimes provocative avenues for future research.

Routledge Handbook of Hospitality Marketing Dogan Gursoy, 2017-10-02 This handbook analyzes the main issues in the field of hospitality marketing by focusing on past, present, and future challenges and trends from a multidisciplinary global perspective. The book uniquely combines both theoretical and practical approaches in debating some of the most important marketing issues faced by the hospitality industry. Parts I and II define and examine the main hospitality marketing concepts and methodologies. Part III offers a comprehensive review of the development of hospitality marketing over the years The remaining parts IV IX address key cutting edge marketing issues such as innovation in hospitality sustainability social media peer to peer applications Web 3 0 etc in a wide variety of hospitality settings In addition this book provides a platform for debate and critical evaluation that enables the reader to learn from the industry s past mistakes as well as future opportunities The handbook is international in its constitution as it attempts to examine marketing issues challenges and trends globally drawing on the knowledge of experts from around the world Because of the nature of hospitality which often makes it inseparable from other industries such as tourism events sports and even retail the book has a multidisciplinary approach that will appeal to these disciplines as well as others including management human resources technology consumer behavior and anthropology Tourism
