Contributions to a Seminar on Narendra Modi's SAGAR Speech Ambassador Yogendra Kumar, 2017-02-15 Prime Minister Modi articulated his vision for the future of the Indian Ocean region when he presented the Offshore Patrol Vessel Barracuda to the Mauritian Coast Guard on March 12 2015 at Port Louis Such authoritative statement on Indian Ocean by an Indian leader has not been made for a long time It evoked considerable interest amongst strategic analysts everywhere Whilst infusing a soft civilisational complexion to India's envisaged role it signifies also a determination to seek a future of Security and Growth for All in the Region or SAGAR Hindi for sea As Indian Ocean assumes greater significance in the wake of profound geo strategic shifts and multitudinous challenges to regional stability there is universal interest in India's policy approach and capabilities toward the shaping of a stable maritime order The Indian political leadership is conscious of the evolving strategic situation and its implications for the country's security and well being it at the same time feels that the current circumstances are propitious for such a policy to be successful in substantial measure Its benign external image and US and other countries especially regional support for more proactive engagement provide the wellspring for its determination that the Indian Ocean's challenges should be met by the countries of the region itself even as the legitimate interests of outside powers can be accommodated The eminent contributors to this volume analyse the various components of the SAGAR pronouncement and contextualise them against the emerging strategic trends and the spectrum of bilateral and multilateral effort required for its success Towards International Government John Atkinson Hobson, 1915 Enough of Experts Cara Reed, Michael Reed, 2023-05-08 Enough of Experts Expert Authority in Crisis analyses the challenges and threats to expert authority in neoliberal political economies and societies It focuses upon the deep seated political economic social and cultural transformations which have fundamentally destabilized and eroded the institutional foundations of expert authority over more than four decades The book critically assesses the orthodox or received model of expert authority as it has come under escalating pressures from a nexus of ideological organizational technological and cultural changes that have radically weakened the former's core institutional logic and practical efficacy It also looks forward to a range of expert futures in which expert groups and organizations decline in power and status as their prevalence proliferates to a stage where they become ubiquitous in neoliberal regimes Finally the book presents an alternative reflexive model of expert authority and governance that is grounded in the dynamics of contestation and trust and stands in direct contrast to the orthodox rational model 21st-Century Statecraft Nayef Al-Rodhan,2022-07-28 From civilisational frontier risks associated with new challenges like disruptive technologies to the shifting nature of great power conflicts and subversion the 21st century requires a new approach to statecraft In 21st Century Statecraft Professor Nayef Al Rodhan proposes five innovative statecraft concepts He makes the case for a new method of geopolitical analysis called meta geopolitics and for dignity based governance He shows how in an interdependent and interconnected world traditional thinking must move beyond zero sum games and focus on multi sum and symbiotic realist interstate relations This requires a new paradigm of global security premised on five dimensions of security and a new concept of power just power which highlights the centrality of justice to state interests These concepts enable states to balance competing interests and work towards what the author calls reconciliation statecraft Throughout Professor Al Rodhan brings his philosophical and neuroscientific expertise to bear providing a practical model for conducting statecraft in a sustainable way From Empire to Europe Geoffrey Owen,2000 Through an analysis of British industry Owen argues that it has undergone a transformation which has modernized the UK economy He demonstrates the influence of institutions and policies on the industries that are likely to succeed Towards International Government J. Female Sexuality and the Law Susan S. M. Edwards, 2025-12-01 The treatment of women by the law whether as victims or offenders is based on certain attitudes towards female sexuality that have influenced legal thinking since 1800 The aim of this book originally published in 1981 reissued here with a new preface was to expose and investigate these attitudes and to show how the law has subtly but inexorably been used as an instrument of social control over women and their sexual behaviour The study focuses on the treatment of victims of rape and sexual assault Within the legal process it is the area of discretion which is as important as the actual formal content of the law Why is it that one man may be imprisoned for the daring of a kiss whereas countless others have escaped with fines and admonitions for the most brutal assaults What influence can a woman's personal background material circumstances or mental condition be allowed to have on the case How brutally assaulted does a woman have to be to prove beyond all doubt that she did not secretly desire the assault The scope of the book encompasses law sociology psychoanalysis and medicine and paints a startling picture of the degree of prejudice and masculine interest still woven into the fabric of the law Today it can be read in its historical context Forthcoming Books Rose Army,1997

Hobson,2015-09-27 Excerpt from Towards International Government After this war is over will the nations fall back again into the armed peace the rival alliances the Balance of Power with competing armaments the preparations for another war thus made inevitable or will they go forward to the realization of the idea of public right as expounded by Mr Asquith the substitution for force for the clash of competing ambitions for groupings and alliances and a precarious equipoise of a real European partnership based on the recognition of equal rights and established and enforced by the common will The preservation and progress of civilization demand that the peoples go forward But how shall public right be realized The issue is perhaps best approached by putting a narrower more concrete question How can nations be got to reduce their armaments For this action will be the best test and pledge of the establishment of public right and the reliance on a pacific future Could a conference of Powers bring about a reduction of armaments by agreement Surely not unless the motives which have led them in the past to arm are reversed About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such
