Automotive FDI in Emerging Europe A. J. Jacobs,2017-06-19 This book examines the dramatic increase in automotive assembly plants in the former Socialist Central European CE nations of Czechia East Germany Hungary Poland and Slovakia from 1989 onwards Enticed by relatively lower wage labour and significant government incentives the world s largest automakers have launched more than 20 passenger car assembly complexes in CE nations with production accelerating dramatically since 2001 As a result the annual passenger car production in Western Europe declined by more than 20% between 2001 and 2015 and alternatively in the CEE it increased by nearly 170% during this period Drawing on case studies of 25 current and former foreign run assembly plants the author presents a rare historical account of automotive foreign assembly plants in the CE following this dramatic geographic shift This book will expand the knowledge of policy makers in Europe in relation to their pursuits of FDI and will be of great interest to scholars and students of business economic history political science and development Resilience and Digital Disruption Aldo Geuna,Marco

Guerzoni,Massimiliano Nuccio,Fabio Pammolli,Armando Rungi,2021-12-01 This book focuses on how digital technologies and rapid developments in artificial intelligence are shaping a new generation of cyber physical systems based on the convergence among robots sensors and 3D printing The book tells a story based on data and indicators to compare the resilience to this transformation in some key manufacturing regions As a specific case study the book discusses in length the transformation of the manufacturing processes in the Italian automotive industry The authors conclude the book by providing policy implications for regions and cities Dependent Growth: Foreign Investment and the Development of the

Automotive Industry in East-Central Europe Petr Pavlínek,2017-04-07 This book offers a critical analysis of recent developments in the automotive industry of East Central Europe ECE Economists industry specialists and national governments have considered the rapid development of the automotive industry in ECE in the past twenty years an unqualified success This rapid growth has been based on large inflows of foreign direct investment FDI from Western Europe North America Japan and South Korea and it significantly contributed to GDP growth created thousands of new jobs and completely transformed the previously existing automotive industry in the region This volume offers an analysis that goes beyond uncritical celebratory accounts of this rapid growth It is based on original detailed firm level research conducted by the author in Czechia and Slovakia between 2009 and 2015 that covered assembly firms and the networks of component suppliers Theoretically and conceptually the analysis will draw on the global production networks and global value chains perspectives Drawing on the original empirical data and on additional available information this volume concentrates on several important questions related to the development of the automotive industry in ECE in the 2000s The role of FDI in the rapid development of the automotive industry after 1990 and particularly in the 2000s The upgrading of the automotive industry in East Central Europe through FDI The position of ECE in the automotive industry research and development R D The effects of the 2008 2009 economic crisis in the automotive industry of ECE The role of state in the rapid development of the automotive industry in ECE in the 1990s and 2000s The effects of FDI on domestic firms in the form of linkages between foreign owned and domestic firms and spillovers from foreign owned to domestic firms Lemon-Aid New and Used Cars and Trucks 1990-2016 Phil Edmonston,2015-11-21 This book steers buyers through the the confusion and anxiety of new and used vehicle purchases unlike any other car and truck book on the market Dr Phil Canada s best known automotive expert for more than forty five years pulls no punches
