International Faculty in Higher Education Maria Yudkevich, Philip G. Altbach, Laura E. Rumbley, 2016-11-25 In an interconnected and globally competitive environment faculty mobility across countries has become widespread yet is little understood Grounded in qualitative methodology this volume offers a cutting edge examination of internationally mobile academics today and explores the approaches and strategies that institutions pursue to recruit and integrate international teachers and scholars into local universities Providing a range of research based insights from case studies in key countries this resource offers higher education scholars and administrators a comparative perspective helping to explain the impact that international faculty have on the local university as well as issues of retention promotion salaries and the challenges faced by these internationally mobile academics

Proceedings of The Focus Conference (TFC 2022) Manyane Makua, Mariam Akinlolu, Mashango Sithole, Phiwayinkosi Gumede, Cebo Nyondo, 2023-02-08 This is an open access book It is a common cause globally that the abrupt emergence of Covid 19 wreaked havoc in all sectors including the higher education system The sudden closure of campuses as a social distancing measure to prevent community transmission has shifted face to face classes to online teaching and learning a transformative experiment for academics and students in most institutions This has thrown the focus on utilising Learning Management Systems LMS eLearning tools and platforms for effective student engagement which may have limitations of accessibility and affordability for many students The pandemic has exposed the shortcomings of the current higher education system and the need for more training of academics and practitioners in digital technology to adapt to the rapidly changing educational climate In the post pandemic situation eLearning and virtual education may become an integral part of the higher education system hence the question of re inventing higher education The higher education institutions and universities need to plan the post pandemic education and research strategies to ensure student learning outcomes and standards of educational quality With the move to online teaching and learning subsequently traditional assessments followed and were adapted and adopted for online assessment Assessments lie at the heart of the teaching process It shapes students understanding of the curriculum and determines their ability to progress Reflections on assessments during Covid 19 abounded with the challenges that both academics and students faced regarding online assessments including cheating and quality assurance issues The focus on quality extended to the quality of teaching and learning in general Moreover the pandemic brought about the question of staff and student health and psychosocial support also became important For academics the abrupt shift to adapt to working from home and implementing online learning has led to over work low work life balance and compromised mental health With a view on constructive and futuristic discourse the sub themes of the 2022 Focus conference encapsulate the current realities in the higher education sector and beyond It further provides opportunities for an in depth analysis based on the benefit of hindsight and foresight The Organising Committee specifically coined the theme Re inventing higher education Insights trends and lessons learnt from specifically for the conference to reflect on and address the matters mentioned earlier Academics scholars and practitioners in the higher education sector are called upon to share their research and express their perspectives on the reinvention of higher education

Cinematic Imaginaries of the African City Danai S. Mupotsa, Polo B. Moji, Natasha Himmelman, 2023-08-30 This volume addresses questions at the intersections of cinematic form and the African city It examines the contribution of cinema and audiovisual media to our understanding and experience of contemporary cities from an African perspective Reading the African city as form this volume problematizes the circulation of terms such as Afropolitanism Afro polis Afro modernity and Afro urbanity which often define the kinds of sentiments invested in or associated with the African city Situated within an interdisciplinary matrix that reads the urban African cinematic form through affect theory and the city as a matrix of feeling critical black geography and the racialized construction of city spaces the urban as a temporal consciousness and representations of social inequalities and urban geographies of exclusion this edited volume frames the city and screenscapes as co constitutive foregrounding the diegetic and extra diegetic elements that inform the African urban Chapters engage thematic areas such as aesthetics and African cinematic urban form visuality and the infrastructures of the African city audiovisual narratives social inequality and urban geographies of exclusion Cinematic Imaginaries of the African City is a significant new contribution to African Studies and will be a great resource for academics researchers and advanced students of African Studies Media and Cultural Studies Visual Studies and Sociology The chapters included in this book were originally published as a special issue of Social Dynamics A Journal of African Studies

Restless Infections Jay Pather, 2025-06 Restless Infections is a collection of critical essays exploring artistic interventions in urban spaces focusing on place making and the politics of space in South Africa The writers examine seminal artworks by South African artists addressing diverse forms of expression such as site specific performances immersive installations film photography and online performances The book is divided into three sections The Restless City Public Art for Multiple Publics and Land Home Belonging It introduces new perspectives on public sphere performance such as Khanyisile Mbongwa's re imagining of township alleyways for public encounters and Mbongeni Mtshali's study of everyday performances that challenge colonial and neo colonial spatial organization The title Restless Infections is derived from the popular Infecting the City public art festival symbolizing the persistent state of restlessness in a city still grappling with the legacies of colonialism inequality and racial segregation This restlessness is tied to a desire for economic and political stability expressed through transient art forms like Santu Mofokeng's billboard photography The book shifts the focus of public art discourse in South Africa from static forms like monuments and statues to dynamic temporary interventions that question the concept of publicness These interventions engage with protest public intimacy audience interaction and the disrupted topography of apartheid cities As the first scholarly volume to read public spheres through a multi and interdisciplinary lens Restless Infections argues that the diverse artistic modes explored are essential to understanding the complexities of publicness in South Africa

Health Systems Improvement Across the Globe Jeffrey Braithwaite, Russell Mannion, Yukihiro Matsuyama, Paul Shekelle, Stuart Whittaker, Samir Al-Adawi, 2017-08-07 Following on from 2015's Healthcare Reform Quality and Safety Perspectives Participants Partnerships and Prospects in 30 Countries this book encompasses a global perspective on healthcare while shifting the focus from reform to showcasing success stories of healthcare systems worldwide It provides explanations of why various facets of healthcare systems work well in different contexts and offers the reader alternative models for consideration The book features contributions from 60 countries going much further than the common practice of focusing on affluent Western nations to provide a comprehensive exploration of the success of healthcare systems globally The majority of literature on health sector improvement attempts to address the problems within systems relating the errors that can and do occur for example and offering solutions and preventative strategies This book of country case studies will approach the enhancement of health systems patient safety and the quality of care in a new and innovative way comprehensively surveying and synthesizing the success stories of healthcare systems around the world utilizing Hollnagel's Safety II approach to acknowledge the importance of exploring what goes right what works well and why it works These success stories may include reference to macro meso or micro levels of healthcare systems various sectors e.g. aged care acute care or primary care or specific programs or projects Health System Improvement Across the Globe Success Stories from 60 Countries is unprecedented in terms of both reach and positive emphasis and as such will be instrumental in changing ways of thinking about and guiding health sector improvement
