The New Histories of International Criminal Law Immi Tallgren, Thomas Skouteris, 2019-03-21 The language of international criminal law has considerable traction in global politics and much of its legitimacy is embedded in apparently axiomatic historical truths This innovative edited collection brings together some of the world's leading international lawyers with a very clear mandate in mind to re-evaluate and re-trial the dominant historiographical tradition in the field of international criminal law Carefully curated and with contributions by leading scholars The New Histories of International Criminal Law pursues three research objectives to bring to the fore the structure and function of contemporary histories of international criminal law to take issue with the consequences of these histories and to call for their demystification The essays discern several registers on which the received historiographical tradition must be re-tried tropology inclusions exclusions gender race representations of the victim and the perpetrator history and memory ideology and master narratives international criminal law and hegemonic theories and more This book intervenes critically in the fields of international criminal law and international legal history by bringing in new voices and fresh approaches Taken as a whole it provides a rich account of the dilemmas conundrums and possibilities entailed in writing histories of international criminal law beyond against or in the shadow of the master narrative

Empowering Memory and Movement Elisabeth Schüssler Fiorenza, 2014 Empowering Memory and Movement Elisabeth Schüssler Fiorenza completes a three volume look across her influential work and career In Transforming Vision 2011 she drew from a career of pioneering scholarship to offer the contours of a critical feminist hermeneutic The chapters in Changing Horizons 2013 sketched a theory of liberation Now the consequences for a liberating praxis are evident in interviews and essays that look back over personal and movement history look around at challenges and potentialities and look ahead to an emancipatory future the critical engagement with scripture always at the center

Remaking Holocaust Memory Liat Steir-Livny, 2019-04-18 Since the late 1990s in Israel third generation Holocaust survivors have become the new custodians of cultural memory and the documentary films they produce play a major role in shaping a societal consensus of commemoration In Remaking Holocaust Memory a pioneering analysis of third generation Holocaust documentaries in Israel Liat Steir-Livny co-recipient of the 2019 Young Scholar Award given jointly by the Association of Israel Studies and the Israel Institute investigates compelling films that have been screened in Israel Europe and the United States appeared in numerous international film festivals and won international awards but have yet to receive significant academic attention Steir-Livny's comprehensive investigation reveals how the absolute truths that appeared in the majority of second generation films are deconstructed and disputed in the newer films which do not dismiss their cinematic parents' approach but rather rethink fixed notions extend the debates and pose questions where previously there had been exclamation marks Steir Livny also explores the ways in which the third generation's perspectives on Holocaust memory govern cinematic trends and aesthetic choices and how these might impact the moral recollection of the past Finally Remaking Holocaust Memory serves as an excellent reference tool as it helpfully lists all of the second and third generation films available as well as the festival screenings and awards they have garnered

Congress of Wo/men Elisabeth Schussler Fiorenza, 2021-03-16 Reframing Ideas about Feminist Theory and Theology for the 21st Century In Congress of Women Religion Gender and Kyriarchal Power leading feminist scholar Elisabeth Schussler Fiorenza challenges the tendency in feminist theory to leave behind religion a space of struggle resistance and social transformation as a place for feminist politics She also confronts the tendency of religious feminists to view women as if they are all the same or to limit them to complementary roles with men Presenting an alternative vision for global justice within the landscape of neoliberal kyriarchy Schussler Fiorenza calls upon religious and non religious feminists to engage in transformation through struggle friendship and community Further this groundbreaking book's final chapter opens up the discussion for future feminist work drawing the reader into an imagined community of feminist readers with whom the reader can agree or disagree but nevertheless struggle alongside to imagine a more just world

Visual Culture and the Holocaust Barbie Zelizer, 2001 A book that looks at both the traditional and the unconventional ways in which the Holocaust has been visually represented The purpose of this volume is to enhance our understanding of the visual representation of the Holocaust in films television photographs art and museum installations and cultural artifacts and to examine the ways in which these have shaped our consciousness The areas covered include the Eichman Trial as covered on American television the impact of Schindler's List the Jewish Museum in Berlin the Israeli Heritage Museums Women and Holocaust Photography

Interne Of Woman Born Adrienne Rich, 2021-04-27 The pathbreaking investigation into motherhood and womanhood from an influential and enduring feminist voice now for a new generation In Of Woman Born originally published in 1976 influential poet and feminist Adrienne Rich examines the patriarchic systems and political institutions that define motherhood Exploring her own experience as a woman a poet a feminist and a mother she finds the act of mothering to be both determined by and distinct from the institution of motherhood as it is imposed on all women everywhere A powerful blend of research theory and self reflection Sandra M Gilbert Paris Review Of Woman Born revolutionized how women thought about motherhood and their own liberation With a stirring new foreword from National Book Critics Circle Award winning writer Eula Biss the book resounds with as much wisdom and insight today as when it was first written The Third Reich Sourcebook Anson Rabinbach, Sander L. Gilman, 2013-07-10 This book is a collection of documents mostly translated from the German that covers the entire Third Reich from the beginnings of National Socialism in Munich in 1919 through the rise of Nazism in the 1930s and ultimately the defeat of the Third Reich It is wide ranging covering the core doctrine of anti-Semitism education German youth women and marriage science health the Church literature visual arts music the body industry sports and the resistance
