multiple spiritual and secular variations practised today along with issues and conflicts arising from the collision of religion politics and tourism The volume considers the impact of tourism and tourist numbers on religious features communities and phenomena including the deliberate involvement of some religious agencies in tourism It also addresses the ways in which religious beliefs and philosophies affect the behaviour and perceptions of tourists as well as hosts The book illustrates how different faiths interact with tourism and the issues of catering for religious tourists of the major faiths as well as managing the interaction between increasing numbers of secular tourists and pilgrims at religious sites

Tourism Planning and Development in the Middle East Stella Kladou,Konstantinos Andriotis,Anna Farmaki,Dimitrios Styliadis,2022-12-16 Given the historical and cultural richness of countries in the Middle East region as well as the economic development many have exhibited in recent years tourism planning and development gains much significance for both scholars and practitioners

Turbulence conflicts and crises exhibited in the area add further dimensions that need to be incorporated in tourism strategies and planning and be taken into consideration by experts at an institutional corporate and educational level

Furthermore in order to effectively deal with aspects of sustainability visions and strategies in the region need to build upon good practices As a result a greater understanding is required of the factors influencing decision making on tourism matters as well as on the impacts and implications of sustainable tourism development This book is an essential resource for tourism practitioners decision makers in private and public organisations government bodies and consultants not only from the Middle East but for all those who want an encompassing view of global tourism

The Handbook of Managing and Marketing Tourism Experiences Marios Sotiriadis,Dogan Gursoy,2016-11-09 The planning design management and marketing of experiences for tourism markets is a major challenge for tourism destinations and providers in a globalized and highly competitive market

This book bridges the gap in contemporary literature by carefully examining the management and marketing of tourism experiences

The Routledge International Handbook of Walking C. Michael Hall,Yael Ram,Noam Shoval,2017-07-28 Walking is an essentially human activity From a basic means of transport and opportunity for leisure through to being a religious act walking has served as a significant philosophical literary and historical subject

Thoreau s 1851 lecture on Walking or the Romantic walks of the Wordsworths at Grasmere in the early 19th Century for example helped create a philosophical foundation for the importance of the act of walking as an act of engagement with nature

Similarly and sometimes inseparable from secular appreciation pilgrimage trails provide opportunities for finding self and others in the travails of the walk More recently walking has been embraced as a means of encouraging greater health and well being community improvement and more sustainable means of travel

Yet despite the significance of the subject of walking there is as yet no integrated treatment of the subject in the social science literature This handbook therefore brings together a number of the main themes on the study of walking from different disciplines and literatures into a single volume that can be accessed from across the social sciences It is divided into five main sections culture society and historical context social practices perceptions and behaviours hiking trails and pilgrimage routes health well being and psychology and method planning and design Each of these highlights current approaches and major themes in research on walking in a range of different environments This handbook carves out a unique niche in the study of walking The international and cross disciplinary nature of the contributions of the book are expected to be of interest to numerous academic fields in the social and health sciences as well as to urban and regional planners and those in charge of the management of outdoor recreation and tourism globally
