Tourism Imaginaries Anthropological Approaches By Berghahn Books 2014 06 01:

Tourism Imaginaries Noel B. Salazar, Nelson H. H. Graburn, 2014-06-01 It is hard to imagine tourism without the creative use of seductive as well as restrictive imaginaries about peoples and places These socially shared assemblages are collaboratively produced and consumed by a diverse range of actors around the globe As a nexus of social practices through which individuals and groups establish places and peoples as credible objects of tourism tourism imaginaries have yet to be fully explored Presenting innovative conceptual approaches this volume advances ethnographic research methods and critical scholarship regarding tourism and the imaginaries that drive it The various authors contribute methodologically as well as conceptually to anthropology's grasp of the images forces and encounters of the contemporary world Religious Tourism in Northern Thailand Brooke Schedneck, 2021-06-18 Cross cultural dialogues in sacred space cultivate awareness of self and others Temples are everywhere in Chiang Mai filled with tourists as well as saffron robed monks of all ages The monks participate in daily urban life here as elsewhere in Thailand where Buddhism is promoted protected and valued as a tourist attraction Yet this mountain city offers more than a fleeting commodified tourist experience as the encounters between foreign visitors and Buddhist monks can have long lasting effects on both parties These religious contacts take place where economic motives missionary zeal and opportunities for cultural exchange coincide Brooke Schedneck incorporates fieldwork and interviews with student monks and tourists to examine the innovative ways that Thai Buddhist temples offer foreign visitors spaces for religious instruction and popular in person Monk Chat sessions in which tourists ask questions about Buddhism Religious Tourism in Northern Thailand also considers how Thai monks perceive other religions and cultures and how they represent their own religion when interacting with tourists resulting in a revealing study of how religious traditions adapt to an era of globalization Buddhist Tourism in Asia Courtney Bruntz, Brooke Schedneck, 2020-03-31 This innovative collaborative work the first to focus on Buddhist tourism explores how Buddhists government organizations business corporations and individuals in Asia participate in re imaginings of Buddhism through tourism Contributors from religious studies anthropology and art history examine sacred places and religious monuments as they have been shaped and reshaped by socioeconomic and cultural trends in the region Following an introduction that offers the first theoretical understanding of tourism from a Buddhist studies perspective early chapters discuss the ways Buddhists and non Buddhists imagine concepts and places related to the religion Case studies highlight Buddhist peace in India Buddhist heavens and hells in Singapore Thai temple space and the future Buddha Maitreya in China Buddhist tourism's connections to the state market and new technologies are explored in chapters on Indian package tours for pilgrims thematic Buddhist tourism in Cambodia the technological innovations of Buddhist temples in China and the promotion of pilgrimage sites in Japan Contributors then situate the financial concerns of Chinese temples speed dating in temples in Japan and the diffuse and pervasive nature of Buddhism for tourism promotion in Ladakh India How have tourist routes groups sites and practices associated with Buddhism come to be possible and what are the effects In what ways do travelers derive meaning from Buddhist places How do Buddhist sites fortify national cultural or religious identities The comparative research in South Southeast and East Asia presented here draws attention to the intertwining of the sacred and the financial and how local and national sites are situated within global networks Together these findings generate a compelling comparative investigation of Buddhist spaces identities and practices

The Oxford Handbook of Animal Studies Linda Kalof, 2017-02-01 Intellectual struggles with the animal question how humans can rethink and reconfigure their relationships with other animals first began to take hold in the 1970s Over the next forty years scholars from a wide range of fields would make sweeping reevaluations of the relationship between humans and other animals The Oxford Handbook of Animal Studies brings these diverse evaluations together for the first time paying special attention to the commodification of animals the degradation of the natural world and a staggering loss of animal habitat and species extinction and the increasing need for humans to coexist with other animals in urban rural and natural contexts Linda Kalof maps these themes into the five major categories that structure this volume Animals in the Landscape of Law Politics and Public Policy Animal Intentionality Agency and Reflexive Thinking Animals as Objects in Science Food Spectacle and Sport Animals in Cultural Representations and Animals in Ecosystems Written by international scholars with backgrounds in philosophy law history English art sociology geography archaeology environmental studies cultural studies and animal advocacy the thirty chapters in this handbook investigate key issues and concepts central to understanding our current relationship with other animals and the potential for coexistence in an ecological community of living beings

Methods, Moments, and Ethnographic Spaces in Asia Nayantara S. Appleton, Caroline Bennett, 2021-04-15 Asia is changing Socio political shifts in the world economy technological advances of monumental scales movements of people and ideas alongside ongoing post colonization projects across the region have created an emerging Asia one confident and assertive of its place in the contemporary geopolitical sphere As political and economic powers reassert Asian sovereignty in opposition to perceived Northern dominance and dramatic and rapid development in the region shift the relationship between the centre and the periphery new renderings and imaginations of hierarchies of identity and power come to the fore This changing environment leads to emerging challenges for anthropologists working in the region both those who have been working there for years and new scholars entering the field This volume considers these changes and the implications of this on our practice By focusing on Asia as a site of enquiry the contributors to this book discuss tensions and opportunities arising in their ethnographic fieldwork in light of a changing Asia Drawing on personal reflections on Asia s global positioning in this contemporary moment the contributors consider how fieldwork is being negotiated within the changing dynamics of anthropology in the region This book then is a discussion on the shifting landscape of field sites and the resultant emerging research methodologies and is aimed at those who are already deeply immersed in fieldwork as well as those who are seeking ways to undertake it

Liminal Moves Flavia Cangià,2021-04-02 Moving slowing down or watching others moving allows people to cross physical symbolic and temporal boundaries Exploring the imaginative power of liminality that makes this possible Liminal Moves looks at the im mobilities of three groups of people street monkey performers in Japan adolescents writing about migrants in Italy and men accompanying their partners in Switzerland for work The book explores how for these travelers the interplay of mobility and immobility creates a liminal hotspot a condition of suspension and ambivalence as they find themselves caught between places meanings and times Tourism and Language in Vieques Luis Galanes Valldejuli,2017-12-06 After more than sixty years of occupation by the U S Navy and intensive community struggles the Puerto Rican island of Vieques was finally returned to civilian control in 2003 But as this book documents the Viequenses struggles were far from over after the departure of the Navy The Viequenses were left to contend with the devastating effects of sixty two years of bombing the environment and health of the population had been severely harmed Yet this was a minor issue in comparison to the effects of the newly instated tourism industry on the island Drawing from ethnographic research conducted between 2004 to 2016 Luis Galanes Valldejuli captures the larger social conflict derived from the arrival of tourists who brought change to the island in the form of land speculation work conflicts racism language barriers and neoliberalism A close observer of the Viequenses Valldejuli details the deleterious effects of tourism on the voice of the Viequenses they were no longer heard This book is recommended for scholars of anthropology tourism studies linguistics cultural geography political science and history

Transnational Frontiers of Asia and Latin America since 1800 Jaime Moreno Tejada,Bradley Tatar,2016-08-19 Frontiers are wild The frontier is a zone of interaction between distinct polities peoples languages ecosystems and economies but how do these frontier spaces develop If the frontier is shaped by the policing of borders by the modern nation state then what kind of zones regions or cultural areas are created around borders This book provides 16 different case studies of frontiers in Asia and Latin America by interdisciplinary scholars charting the first steps toward a transnational and transcontinental history of social development in the borderlands of two continents Transnationalism provides a shared focus for the contributions drawing upon diverse theoretical perspectives to examine the place making projects of nation states Through the lenses of different scales and time frames the contributors examine the social processes of frontier life and how the frontiers have been created through the exertions of nation states to control marginal or borderland peoples The most significant cases of industrialization resource extraction and colonization projects in Asia and Latin America are examined in this book reveal the incompleteness of frontiers as modernist spatial projects but also their creativity as sources of new social patterns new human adaptations and new cultural outlooks and ways of confronting power and privilege The incompleteness of frontiers does not detract from their power to move ideas peoples and practices across borders both territorial and conceptual In bringing together Asian and Latin American cases of frontier making this book points toward a comparativist and cosmopolitan approach in the study of statecraft and modernity For scholars of Latin America and or Asia it brings together historical themes and geographic foci providing studies accessible to researchers in anthropology geography history politics cultural studies and other fields of the human sciences Nothing Without Tourism Danaé Leitenberg, 2025-10-01

For centuries locals in many Swiss Alpine villages have depended on visitors wanderlust to sustain their livelihoods Based on ethnographic fieldwork conducted in a German speaking village and tourist resort between 2017 and 2023 this book explores people s everyday experience of tourism as a volatile yet vital industry where successes and failures in the past present and future intersect in puzzling ways Following native locals migrant hospitality workers from mostly Southern and Eastern Europe as well as tourism lobbyists in this globalized mountain village it examines how power imbalance among those dependent on tourism elicit different responses to the dilemmas of tourism The SAGE Handbook of Tourism Management

Chris Cooper, Serena Volo, William C. Gartner, Noel Scott, 2018-08-14 The SAGE Handbook of Tourism Management is a critical authoritative review of tourism management written by leading international thinkers and academics in the field Arranged over two volumes the chapters are framed as critical synoptic pieces covering key developments current issues and debates and emerging trends and future considerations for the field The two volumes focus in turn on the theories concepts and disciplines that underpin tourism management in volume one followed by examinations of how those ideas and concepts have been applied in the second volume Chapters are structured around twelve key themes Volume One Part One Researching Tourism Part Two Social Analysis Part Three Economic Analysis Part Four Technological Analysis Part Five Environmental Analysis Part Six Political Analysis Volume Two Part One Approaching Tourism Part Two Destination Applications Part Three Marketing Applications Part Four Tourism Product Markets Part Five Technological Applications Part Six Environmental Applications This handbook offers a fresh contemporary and definitive look at tourism management making it an essential resource for academics researchers and students Architectural Anthropology Marie

Stender, Claus Bech-Danielsen, Aina Landsverk Hagen, 2021-07-19 This book prompts architects and anthropologists to think and act together In order to fully grasp the relationship between human beings and their built environments and design more livable and sustainable buildings and cities in the future we need new cross disciplinary approaches combining anthropology and architecture This is neither anthropology of architecture nor ethnography for architects but a new approach beyond these positions Architectural Anthropology The anthology gathers contributions from leading researchers from various Nordic universities architectural schools and architectural firms as well as prominent international scholars like Tim Ingold Alben Yaneva and Sarah Pink all exploring developing and innovating the cross disciplinary field between anthropology and architecture Several contributions are co written by architects and anthropologists merging approaches from the two disciplines in order to fully explore the dynamics of lived space Through a broad range of empirical examples methodological approaches and theoretical reflections the anthology provides inspiration and tools for scholars students and practitioners working with lived space The first part focusses on homes walls and boundaries the second on urban space and public life and the third on processes of creativity participation and design

Affect and Emotion in Tourism Dorina-Maria Buda, Jennie Germann Molz, 2023-03-31 Bringing affect and emotion to the forefront of tourism studies this book presents a new generation of scholars who consolidate emerging affective approaches and establish a route for scholarship that examines the roles of emotion and affect in tourism Attuning to affect and emotion this book steers the affective turn to encompass touring bodies and tourism places Engaging the concept of affect as a constitutive element of social life often leaves academics grasping for terminology to describe something that is by its very nature beyond words For this reason as evident in the four interconnected sections of this volume studying affect poses a significant and fruitful challenge to the status quo of social scientific method and analysis From African American emotional labour while travelling to visiting Banksy's Dismaland park to affective heritagescapes self love and travelling mittens and across socio spatial theories of emotions decolonial feminist theory and atmospheric politics this book demonstrates the epistemic and empirical richness of affective tourism Along with the contributors to this volume the editors make a case for thinking about emotions and affects through collective and individual practices as interrelated shaping tourism encounters in and with places That is to break it down as doing and as shared between bodies and places through the doing The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Tourism Geographies

Regimes of Value in Tourism Emilie Crossley,David Picard,2017-10-02 Drawing from ethnographic work in five continents this book demonstrates how different regimes of value in tourism can coexist collide and compete across a varied geographic terrain Much theory in tourism economics defines value as a measure of monetary worth a concept governing commodity exchange and a gauge for tourist satisfaction The research included in this volume shows that tourism not only feeds off existing conceptions of value as a monetary category but that it is also instrumental in reproducing and reinforcing those subjective morally heightened and highly intangible values that make tourism and the tourism economy a complex social cultural political and psychological phenomenon The book pushes the debate about the tourism economy beyond a simplistic understanding of producer consumer relations instead suggesting a refocus on the social spatial and temporal lags in tourism production and the ensuing differentiated regimes of values This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Tourism and Cultural Change

An Anthropology of the Irish in Belgium Sean O' Dubhghaill, 2019-07-22 The first anthropological account of the Irish diaspora in Europe in the 21st century this book provides a culture centric examination of the Irish diaspora Focusing less on an abstract or technical definition of Irish self identification the author allows members of this group to speak through vignettes and interview excerpts providing an anthropological lens that allows the reader to enter a frame of self reference This book therefore provides architecture to understand how diasporic communities might understand their own identities in a new way and how they might reconsider the role played by mobility in changing expressions of identity Providing firsthand experiential and narrative insight into the Irish diaspora in Europe this volume promises to contribute an anthropological perspective to historical accounts of the Irish overseas theoretical works in Irish studies and sociological examinations of Irish identity and diaspora
