Tourists and Tourism Simone Abram, Don Macleod, Jackie D. Waldren, 2021-04-26 The fact that tourism is a major global industry forecast to continue its dramatic growth well into the twenty first century is often cited as a rationale for its analysis. However while the connection between individual locations and the world's global markets is an obvious product of tourism the heart of the tourist experience is the construction of identity the relation of the traveller to resident populations the participants views of themselves and others tourists search for authenticity and their testing of boundaries This book significantly furthers current debates on tourism by asking important and vexing questions about the nature of the tourist experience folk museums that forget many of the folk who live in the areas represented the environments and events that are shaped to meet the imagined dreams of tourist spectators the categorization of visitors and returnees who take up residence and participate in the construction of local identities the evolving meanings associated with indigenous culture tradition heritage representation reality and authenticity In renegotiating the definitions of tourism for the new millennium this book represents a major contribution to an emerging and highly topical area of study Kolor. Land and Territoriality Michael Saltman,2020-05-26 In the past territorial conflict usually involved major powers seeking hegemony over strategic spaces and resources More recently however the decline of opposing global power blocs has elevated ethnicity to a prime cause of conflict over land This book considers the multiple roles ethnicity plays in fostering territorial conflicts both violent and non violent across the globe While land disputes relating to nationalism have resulted in the loss of human life in some regions in others ties between ethnicity and land are asserted more peacefully Nationalism and challenges to the validity of the links between people and places have caused widespread bloodshed in the disputed territory of Palestine involving competing claims of Arabs and Jews have led to war In North America however indigenous Indians claims to land are settled in the courts rather than through violence This book shows how human behaviour is affected by the multiple ways in which people identify with land topography and natural resources In doing so it highlights the growing trend towards defining physical space in specific ethnic contexts associated with a contemporary world that facilitates global movement

Post-colonial Linkages Between Tourism and Agriculture in Martinique D'Arcy John Dornan,2004 Data was collected by questionnaire in depth interviews intercept surveys participant observation and case study surveys The results of the different analyses have allowed for a greater understanding of the importance and effectiveness of tourism development on the local agricultural structure The consequence of this research will be to assist those who are concerned with the socioeconomic development of the agriculture and tourism sectors of the Martiniquan economy and of elsewhere in the Caribbean

Great Expectations Jonathan Skinner,Dimitrios Theodossopoulos,2011-10-01 The negotiation of expectations in tourism is a complex and dynamic process one that is central to the imagination of cultural difference Expectations not only affect the lives and experiences of tourists but also their hosts and play an important part in the success or failure of the overall tourism experience It is for this reason the authors argue that special attention should be given to how expectations constitute and sustain tourism The case studies presented here explore what fuels the desires to visit particular places to what degree expectations inform the experience of the place and the frequent disjunctions between tourist expectations and experiences Careful attention is paid to how the imagination of the visitor inspires the imagination of the host and vice versa how tourists and host communities actively imagine re imagine and shape each other's lives This realization has profound consequences not solely for academic analysis but for all those who participate in and work within the tourism industry

Music and Tourism Chris Gibson, John Connell, 2005-02-22 Music and Tourism is the first book to comprehensively examine the links between travel and music It combines contemporary and historical analysis of the economic and social impact of music tourism with discussions of the cultural politics of authenticity and identity Music tourism evokes nostalgia and meaning and celebrates both heritage and hedonism It is a product of commercialisation that can create community but that also often demands artistic compromise Diverse case studies from the USA and UK to Australia Jamaica and Vanuatu illustrate the global extent of music tourism its contradictions and pleasures

Migrants of Identity Nigel Rapport, Andrew Dawson, 1998-09 Global movement is commonly characterized as one of the quintessential experiences of our age Market forces territorial conflicts and environmental changes uproot an increasing number of people while mass communication travel tourism and a global market of commodities texts tastes fashions and ideologies place individuals more than ever in a global arena As traditional conceptions of individuals as members of stationary fixed and separate societies and cultures no longer convince to what extent does movement become central to individuals self conceptions How do people cultivate negotiate nurture and maintain an identity To what extent do individuals become migrants of identity whose home is movement Defining home as where one best knows oneself this pioneering book explores the various ways in which people perceive themselves to be at home in today's world Through a series of case studies authors show that for a world of travellers labour migrants exiles and commuters home comes to be found in behavioural routines and techniques in styles of dress and address in memories myths and stories in jokes and opinions In short people who live their lives in movement make sense of their lives as movement

News, Neoliberalism, and Miami's Fragmented Urban Space Moses Shumow, Robert E. Gutsche Jr., 2016-11-23 News Neoliberalism and Miami's Fragmented Urban Space examines cultural and social forces responsible for inequalities that have emerged in the rampant development of Miami as a world city This book argues that neoliberal movements rely on the power of journalistic discourses to authorize and legitimize harmful social acts such as gentrification Moses Shumow and Robert E. Gutsche Jr provide original analyses of intersections among memory race capitalism and journalistic power particularly at a time of immense political and environmental change The authors examine changes in neighborhoods and in public private developments that are bound to widen an already great divide between classes and races in South Florida
