Bleeding Hearts K. Iller,2024-07-22 Karver Life has taught me that we all wear masks Some for protection Some to hide their true selves be that good bad and in between Everybody lies and everybody leaves that much I know is true Nana always said I would know when I found the one That I could wholly and unapologetically be my true self with them When lies deception and manipulation are tactics I've perfected to protect myself and my heart how do I convince Sloane that my love for her is real Deep within my tangled web of lies that suffocates her is my one kernel of truth She's my 143 Sloane Nothing All that I feel and all that I am amounts to absolutely nothing When your father abandons you and your mother screams at you that you have no right to cry over her heartbreak you learn to shut it all off Even in the face of something that should cause me insurmountable grief I feel nothing Does that make me broken or a monster Perhaps I'm both Or so I thought Karver came crashing into my pathetic existence and gave it meaning Feeling The floodgates opened and he kickstarted my heart back to life But there's a balance in this thing called life The good with the bad The joy with the sorrow And the sweet smiles followed by salty tears What's worse I've fallen in love with the suspect of multiple murders Does that make him broken or a monster Perhaps he's both

Toxic Love Kathy Lou,2015-10-30 There are many forms of toxic love One form is the kind where you love someone that can hurt or destroy you Another kind is what you do to yourself to make the pain go away These types of pain are written about frequently in dramas tabloids and self help books One type of toxic love is rarely written about

It is a love with someone that is over the Internet You cant look in the persons eyes You dont know their character or motives They will tell you the things you want to hear They will find out what your passions are Your interests dreams and hopes They will let you talk about your day They will seem like your best friend They make you believe that they will always love you All you have to do is give your money bank account information or resources They will make it up to you Sadly people will do this because they want to believe there are still honest and decent people They are lonely or want to get rich quickly The end result is devastating and can lead to bankruptcy despair and loss of everything you have worked for Because the victim allows the scammer into their accounts they have to pick up the pieces There are many Internet scams out there to get peoples money One of the saddest is where someone is hoping to find love and is deceived online The scammers motive is to get money property or something else that is valuable to the person they are contacting What is sad is that most of the victims do this willingly They are hoping for someone or something better than what they have This is a story that deals with one of those situations I hope that you enjoy the story I also hope that you will learn from our characters what this kind of love can do
