That is why in Huxley's Brave New World it is the rejection of the past in the future and by implication in the present that makes its satire so penetrating. Modernism in other words means for these writers not a radical break with the past but a continuing search for what still connects them and us vitally with it. Peter Firchow, Professor of English at the University of Minnesota, is the author of several books on modern and modernist literary subjects including books on Huxley, Conrad, and Auden. The publication of some of his hitherto uncollected essays in this volume is intended to honor
