Walking Home From Eden To Emmaus:

Walking Home Margaret Guenther,2011 Retellings of the walking stories of Scripture and how they unpack the truths about spiritual life Jesus walks everywhere with his disciples always arriving departing on the way somewhere else Adam and Eve walked out of the garden Lot and his daughters walked out of Sodom Abraham and Isaac walked to Mt Moriah the Israelites walked for forty years to the promised land the Prodigal Son walked home barefoot the disciples walked to Emmaus The spiritual life is oftentimes about putting one foot in front of another always on the way never home until crossing another new threshold However the point of all our walking whether tedious or joyous rambling or goal oriented is getting home as this splendid author illustrates in this reflective work

Taking the

Adventure Gracia Fay Ellwood,2014-11-11 What is the relationship between faith especially Christian faith and a lifestyle that respects animals as our neighbors and kin Why should faith entail a commitment to vegetarianism Are animals meant to be heirs of the kingdom of God as well as human beings Taking the Adventure offers answers to these questions in the context of important biblical themes of Eden and Exodus of the prophetic imperative of Jesus as a prophet proclaiming liberty to the oppressed and the captives of the feast of the kingdom of the resurrection and life beyond death It explores imagery from familiar novels such as A Christmas Carol and The Hobbit that deal with cravings anxiety and true abundance It proposes that committing ourselves to live in God given peace with all living beings and sharing with others the good news of that peace is an adventure worth the best we can give an arduous and painful yet joyous adventure climaxing in return to the heart of God

Long Journey Back to Eden Sally Dickerson,2021-11-19 Sally Dickerson grew up in a loving nurturing family who enjoyed the prosperity of 1950s She was provided everything she needed to become a successful adult yet she suffered silently believing she was ugly unlovable and worthless She remembered learning the songs of Jesus s unconditional love but believed that love was a gift given to everyone else because she didn t deserve it Her self loathing and lack of self esteem were compounded throughout her youth as she tried to cope by compulsively overeating abusing alcohol and engaging in a long series of emotionally abusive relationships with men In Long Journey Back to Eden she shares her story about how God reached out to her in the depths of depression began to heal her and led her from a place of constant fear and anxiety to a place of contentment and acceptance of herself as someone who can freely and joyfully claim I am loved by God credit photo cover photo by Ann Cashner dovesnestphotos icloud com

Walking with God Charlie Yang,2022-10-27 The desert like an uninvited guest often arrives without notice It visits us apropos of nothing It comes in all shapes and sizes and shakes our souls to the deep In the desert we fear panic cry grumble and groan In the desert we quest and quest ponder and pray We become thinkers wrestling with God s silence and inaction A new orientation a new direction for life begins with the right questions It is triggered by questioning who we are what we are called for different forms of the question Where are you now In the journey after Mount Horeb we are changed walking with a new heart and a new vision like Jacob He was crippled but blessed through his wrestle with God in the Jabbok River When Elijah left Mount Horeb for the place of life where he had been walking nothing surrounding him had changed but everything was changed because the call was renewed and he himself was changed He with a new orientation of life started walking on the same old road From the book Walking with God
