The Viking Age : the Early History Manners and Customs of the Ancestors of the English-speaking Nations Paul Belloni Du Chaillu,1889 Dictionary of the Middle Ages Joseph Reese Strayer,1982 Arranged alphabetically this volume contains articles on various aspects of life in the Middle Ages from A D 500 to 1500 and covering a geographic area including the Latin West the Slavic world Asia Minor the lands of the caliphate in the East and the Muslim Christian areas of North Africa Bergens Museums Aarbog for 1892 (-1946 Universitetet i Bergen,1891 The Viking Age Paul Belloni Du Chaillu,1889 Old Norse Religion in Long-term Perspectives Anders Andrén,2006-01-01 The study of Old Norse Religion is a truly multidisciplinary and international field of research The rituals myths and narratives of pre Christian Scandinavia are investigated and interpreted by archaeologists historians art historians historians of religion as well as scholars of literature onomastics and Scandinavian studies For obvious reasons these studies belong to the main curricula in Scandinavia but are also carried out at many other universities in Europe the United States and Australia a fact that is evident to any reader of this book In order to bring this broad and varied field of research together an international conference on Old Norse religion was held in Lund in June 2004 About two hundred delegates from more than fifteen countries took part The intention was to gather researchers to encourage and improve scholarly exchange and dialogue and Old Norse religion in long term perspectives presents a selection of the proceedings from that conference The 75 contributions elucidate topics such as worldview and cosmology ritual and religious practice myth and memory as well as the reception and present day use of Old Norse religion The main editors of this volume have directed the multidisciplinary research project Roads to Midgard since 2000 The project is based at Lund University and funded by the Bank of Sweden Tercentenary Foundation Proceedings of the Society of Antiquaries of Scotland Society of Antiquaries of Scotland,1886 Includes List of members Excavations at Tlachtga, Hill of Ward, Co. Meath, Ireland Stephen Davis,Caitríona Moore,2024-04-30 Initial remote sensing survey at Tlachtga Co Meath in 2011 12 highlighted the presence of multiple partially overlapping phases of enclosure at the site Three subsequent seasons of excavation provided critical interpretive evidence with over 15 000 fragments of animal bone human remains charred plant material evidence of metalworking and a hoard of Anglo Saxon silver coins dating to the late 10th century AD The main activity at the site spans four broad periods and two main phases of monumental construction a late Bronze Age to early Iron Age Hillfort Phase 1100 400 BC and a late Iron Age to early medieval AD 400 600 ringfort phase associated with a smaller foundation enclosure the Southern Enclosure This ringfort phase was remodeled later in the early medieval period 9th 10th century AD and augmented by a phase of mound construction in the mid 10th century AD This is contemporary with the deposition of the coin hoard east of the main complex in an apparent craft working area The final phase of the central mound indicates the construction of a timber stockade most likely in the 12th century again with significant craft activity This volume represents the excavation of at least four loci within the broader monumental landscape of Tlachtga charting its progression from Bronze Age hillfort to pre Anglo Norman power display mound The excavations at the Hill of Ward and this publication were made possible through funding by the National Monuments Service via the Royal Irish Academy archaeological research excavation grants and by Meath County Council with additional support by the Office of Public Works and the Heritage Council The Vikings in Western Christendom, A.D. 789 to A.D. 888 Charles Francis Keary,1891 Proceedings of the Society of Antiquaries of Scotland ,1886 Viking Antiquities in Great Britain and Ireland Scientific Research Fund of 1919,1940 Macmillan Dictionary of Archaeology Ruth Whitehouse,1983-06-18 Caxton head catalogues. Tregaskis James and son,1889 Viking Antiquities in Great Britain and Ireland Videnskabelige forskningsfond av 1919,Haakon Shetelig,1940 An Arena for Higher Powers Olof Sundqvist,2015-11-16 In An Arena for Higher Powers Olof Sundqvist investigates ceremonial buildings and religious ruler strategies in Late Iron Age Scandinavia i e AD 550 1050 1100 The author offers here an account of the role played by religion in political undertakings among the pre Christian ruling elites at halls and cultic buildings Sundqvist applies a regional approach so as to be able to account for the specific historical cultural and social contexts The focus is mainly on three regions the Lake Mälaren area in Sweden Trøndelag in Norway and Iceland Since the political structure and other contextual aspects partly differed in the three regions the religious strategies for gaining legitimacy and authorization at the sanctuaries also varied to some extent in these areas Northern Germany as Far as the Bavarian and Austrian Frontiers Karl Baedeker (Firm),1913 American Architect ,1890 News of Norway ,1951 From Viking to Crusader Else Roesdahl,David Mackenzie Wilson,1992 Through examples of coins gold and silver jewelry manuscripts and maps ships and weaponry textiles and household objects the Viking culture emerges as highly developed and complex The second half of the book is the catalogue of the exhibition Chamber's Encyclopædia ,1888 The Waning Sword: Conversion Imagery and Celestial Myth in 'Beowulf' Edward Pettit,2020-01-14 The image of a giant sword melting stands at the structural and thematic heart of the Old English heroic poem Beowulf This meticulously researched book investigates the nature and significance of this golden hilted weapon and its likely relatives within Beowulf and beyond drawing on the fields of Old English and Old Norse language and literature liturgy archaeology astronomy folklore and comparative mythology In Part I Pettit explores the complex of connotations surrounding this image from icicles to candles and crosses by examining a range of medieval sources and argues that the giant sword may function as a visual motif in which pre Christian Germanic concepts and prominent Christian symbols coalesce In Part II Pettit investigates the broader Germanic background to this image especially in relation to the god Ing Yngvi Freyr and explores the capacity of myths to recur and endure across time Drawing on an eclectic range of narrative and linguistic evidence from Northern European texts and on archaeological discoveries Pettit suggests that the image of the giant sword and the characters and events associated with it may reflect an elemental struggle between the sun and the moon articulated through an underlying myth about the theft and repossession of sunlight The Waning Sword Conversion Imagery and Celestial Myth in Beowulf is a welcome contribution to the overlapping fields of Beowulf scholarship Old Norse Icelandic literature and Germanic philology Not only does it present a wealth of new readings that shed light on the craft of the Beowulf poet and inform our understanding of the poem's major episodes and themes it further highlights the merits of adopting an interdisciplinary approach alongside a comparative vantage point As such The Waning Sword will be compelling reading for Beowulf scholars and for a wider audience of medievalists
