Visual Theology Tim Challies, Josh Byers, 2016 We live in a visual culture Today people increasingly rely upon visuals to help them understand new and difficult concepts The rise and stunning popularity of the Internet infographic has given us a new way in which to convey data concepts and ideas But the visual portrayal of truth is not a novel idea Indeed God himself used visuals to teach truth to his people The tabernacle of the Old Testament was a visual representation of man s distance from God and God s condescension to his people Each part of the tabernacle was meant to display something of man s treason against God and God s kind response Likewise the sacraments of the New Testament are visual representations of man s sin and God s response Even the cross was both reality and a visual demonstration As teachers and lovers of sound theology Challies and Byers have a deep desire to convey the concepts and principles of systematic theology in a fresh beautiful and informative way In this book they have made the deepest truths of the Bible accessible in a way that can be seen and understood by a visual generation

Visual Theology of the Huguenots Randal Carter Working,2017-02-23 The role of architecture within the French Reformed tradition has been of recent scholarly interest seen in the work of Helene Guicharnaud Catharine Randall Andrew Spicer and others Few however have investigated in depth the relationship between Reformed theology and architectural forms In The Visual Theology of the Huguenots Randal Carter Working explores the roots of Reformed aesthetics set against the background of late medieval church architecture Indicating how demonstrably important the work of Serlio is in the spreading of the ideas of Vitruvius Working explains the influence of classical Roman building on French Reformed architecture He follows this with an examination of five important Huguenot architects Philibert de l Orme Bernard Palissy Jacques Androuet du Cerceau Salomon de Brosse and Jacques Perret The distinct language of Huguenot architecture is revealed by his comparative analysis of three churches St Pierre in Geneva a medieval church overhauled by the Reformers St Gervais St Protais a Parisian Catholic church whose facade was completed by the French Reformed architect Salomon de Brosse and the temple at Charenton a structure also designed and built by de Brosse These three buildings demonstrate how the contribution of Huguenot architecture gave expression to Reformed theological ideas and helped bring about the renewal of classicism in France

Visual Theology Robin Margaret Jensen, Kimberly J. Vrudny,2009 At least since the time of Paul see Acts 18 Christians have wrestled with the power and danger of religious imagery in the visual arts It was not until the middle of the twentieth century that there emerged in Western Christianity an integrated academic study of theology and the arts Here one of the pioneers of that movement H Wilson Yates along with fourteen theologians examine how visual culture reflects or addresses pressing contemporary religious questions The aim throughout is to engage the reader in theological reflection mediated and enhanced by the arts This beautifully illustrated book includes more than fifty images in full color Seeing Right Jason M. R. Fallin, 2025-06-24 Evangelical identity in the United States has become increasingly contested over the past several years as many try to fathom adherents motives Seeing Right suggests that it is through the exploration of aesthetic texts that we can better understand With a focus on highlighting Evangelical virtues and vices Seeing Right analyzes the aesthetics fundamental to Evangelical identity and moral formation Aesthetic texts and practices represent a fundamental source of Evangelical moral formation providing a narrative that shapes imaginations and dispositions Jason Fallin traces the process of formation as it grows out of Evangelical interactions with the aesthetic texts produced by Operation Christmas Child the radio stations of K Love and Christian cinema He then discovers the relationship between Evangelicals engagement with these aesthetic texts and the practices they animate Moral formation is key for all Christianity thus through these processes at work in Evangelical culture Seeing Right offers insight both into Evangelical development and into the processes that fund one s own formation Bible Doctrine, Second Edition Wayne A. John Calvin has been the subject of numerous studies but most have focused on one aspect of his thought or a limited selection of his writings This study of Calvin adopts a uniquely holistic approach Randall Zachman begins with a brief biography and considers Calvin's own understanding of his ministry as a teacher and pastor From this perspective he surveys Calvin's writings and their place in the work of reforming the church both through the training of clergy and the instruction of the laity Zachman then considers Calvin as a theologian In contrast to Martin Luther Calvin sought to balance the verbal proclamation of the Word with an emphasis on the visible manifestation of God both in creation and in Christ This study will be of great interest to Reformed clergy and to students of the Reformation and Calvinism Racial Conflict and Healing

Andrew Sung Park, 2009-12-01 A Korean theologian approaches the issue of racial conflict including discrimination between minority communities and constructs a theology of seeing that aims to heal the ruptures of racism As ethnic tensions continue to simmer and occasionally erupt immigration and affirmative action laws are hotly debated in every ethnic minority African Americans Hispanic Americans Native Americans even Asian Americans the so called model minority struggle in the racially charged atmosphere of contemporary America In the aftermath of the Los Angeles riots of 1992 and the ensuing violence against Korean Americans Andrew Sung Park seeks a theological model that will help transform a society of oppression injustice and violence into a community of equity fairness and mutual consideration Park emphasizes that such a transformation does not and cannot begin only with good intentions but must be grounded in an understanding of all the socio economic and cultural issues that lead to oppression and tension Using the Korean term han to describe the deep seated suffering of racial oppression he then suggests resources for understanding and healing in both Christian and Asian traditions Part I of Racial Conflict and Healing describes the status quo from a Korean American perspective including discrimination against ethnic minorities and the discrimination they inflict on one another In Parts II and III Park suggests that American society as a whole needs a superordinate vision to form a unified community Park argues that our profoundly individualistic society must learn to understand an idea of self that is formed through relationship with others Finally in Part IV he presents a theological model a theology of seeing as a way to genuinely understand the other and to promote healing within our society Progress in Colour Studies Carole P.
