Wipo Intellectual Property Handbook Policy Law And Use 2nd Edition:

WIPO Intellectual Property Handbook, 2004 European Intellectual Property Law Annette Kur, Max Planck, Thomas Dreier, 2013-01-01 This clearly written and comprehensive text by two leading scholars of European intellectual property law is extremely adaptable. It is a perfect platform for classroom teaching and is also a fine resource for those researching in what is becoming an increasingly complex field. Graeme B. Dinwoodie, University of Oxford, UK. This hybrid volume part commentary, part primary sources with questions to stimulate further thinking, serves both as a teaching tool and as a manual for lawyers who seek a comprehensive overview of EU intellectual property law. The book aims at a generalist legal audience with very helpful précis of international law including the major multilateral treaties as well as a summary of the EU legal framework that non-Europeans will find highly useful. The authors explore the full range of traditional and emerging IP rights. They also provide in-depth analysis of remedies and of the international private law issues that increasingly arise in contemporary complex IP litigation. Jane Ginsburg, Columbia Law School, US. The first of its kind, this textbook has been carefully designed to give students and non-specialist practitioners a clear understanding of the fundamentals of European intellectual property law. Providing a comprehensive overview of both community IP rights and areas of IP law that have been harmonised and supported by judicious use of extracts from the most significant source material, the book assists the reader in navigating through the increasingly complex European IP system. European Intellectual Property Law deals with European patent, trade mark and copyright law, copyright as well as with adjacent areas such as protection of plant varieties, geographical indications, industrial design, competition law, enforcement and private international law, with a focus on the most relevant case law to be found in those areas. Key Features: Written by two of the leading authorities in European IP law. Concise and readable style. Extracts from key source material. Questions designed to stimulate thinking around legal problems. Coverage of related areas adjacent to IP. Offers an overview on international IP protection and the interrelation between European law and IP law in general. This detailed book is designed for all courses on European intellectual property, whether basic or advanced, as well as for practitioners looking for a comprehensive and concise overview on the structure and content of European IP law. Entrepreneurship from Theory to Fact - Obstacles and Challenges in the Case of Sonia Amer TM Sonia Amer, 2014-12-03 A real story of being an entrepreneur. Obstacles may face any inexperienced business person. Sonia Amer is an example of an entrepreneur's new ventures, designs, manufactures and marketing of ladies leather handbags registered in Beirut in March of 2009. Operations started in Kuwait with a capital of 120,000 invested with an expansion plan to include more countries within the coming five years. While implementing the business plan, barriers started appearing: the worldwide economic crisis of 2008, very high competition, deep funding problems, high manufacturing prices, finishing problems, obvious brand resistance, dissatisfied customers, lack of awareness and wrong advertisement campaigns were implemented. Brown, 2006 International Copyright Law and Access to Education in Developing Countries Susan Štrba, 2012-08-22 In International Copyright Law and Access to Education in Developing Countries Exploring Multilateral Legal and Quasi Legal Solutions Susan Isiko trba demonstrates the challenge of access to printed copyrighted educational and research materials in developing countries and proposes institutional and normative solutions at national and international levels

WIPO Intellectual Property Handbook, 2001 Global Knowledge Cultures, 2007-01-01 Knowledge is about cultural power Considering that it is both resource and product within the brave new world of fast capitalism this collection argues for knowledge cultures that are mutually engaged and hence more culturally inclusive and socially productive Globalized intellectual property regimes the privatization of information and their counterpoint the information and creative commons movements constitute productive sites for the exploration of epistemologies that talk with each other rather than at and past each other Global Knowledge Cultures provides a collection of accessible essays by some of the world's leading legal scholars new media analysts techno activists library professionals educators and philosophers Issues canvassed by the authors include the ownership of knowledge open content licensing knowledge policy the common wealth of learning transnational cultural governance and information futures Together they call for sustained intercultural dialogue for more ethical knowledge cultures within contexts of fast knowledge capitalism
