Woman Between Mirrors:

Woman Between Mirrors Helena Parente Cunha, 1992 Citizen Bacchae Barbara Goff, 2004-06-14 What activities did the women of ancient Greece perform in the sphere of ritual and what were the meanings of such activities for them and their culture By offering answers to these questions this study aims to recover and reconstruct an important dimension of the lived experience of ancient Greek women A comprehensive and sophisticated investigation of the ritual roles of women in ancient Greece it draws on a wide range of evidence from across the Greek world including literary and historical texts inscriptions and vase paintings to assemble a portrait of women as religious and cultural agents despite the ideals of seclusion within the home and exclusion from public arenas that we know restricted their lives As she builds a picture of the extent and diversity of women s ritual activity Barbara Goff shows that they were entrusted with some of the most important processes by which the community guaranteed its welfare She examines the ways in which women s ritual activity addressed issues of sexuality and civic participation showing that ritual could offer women genuinely alternative roles and identities even while it worked to produce wives and mothers who functioned well in this male dominated society Moving to more speculative analysis she discusses the possibility of a women s subculture focused on ritual and investigates the significance of ritual in women s poetry and vase paintings that depict women She also includes a substantial exploration of the representation of women as ritual agents in fifth century Athenian drama Acts of Narrative Resistance Laura J. Beard, 2009-10-01 This exploration of women s autobiographical writings in the Americas focuses on three specific genres testimonio metafiction and the family saga as the story of a nation What makes Laura J Beard s work distinctive is her pairing of readings of life narratives by women from different countries and traditions Her section on metafiction focuses on works by Helena Parente Cunha of Brazil and Luisa Futoranksy of Argentina the family sagas explored are by Ana Mar a Shua and N lida Pi on of Argentina and Brazil respectively and the section on testimonio highlights narratives by Lee Maracle and Shirley Sterling from different Indigenous nations in British Columbia In these texts Beard terms genres of resistance women resist the cultural definitions imposed upon them in an effort to speak and name their own experiences The author situates her work in the context of not only other feminist studies of women s autobiographies but also the continuing study of inter American literature that is demanding more comparative and cross cultural approaches Acts of Narrative Resistance addresses prominent issues in the fields of autobiography comparative literature and women s studies and in inter American Latin American and Native American studies Mother Tongue Theologies Darren J. N. Middleton, 2010-01-01 Recognizing that one third of the world s Christians practice their faith outside Europe and North America the fourteen essays in Mother Tongue Theologies explore how international fiction depicts Christianity s dramatic movement South and East of Jerusalem as well as North and West Structured by geographical region this collection captures the many ways in which people around the globe receive Christianity It also celebrates postcolonial literature s diversity And it highlights non

Netherlandish and Italian Female Portraiture in the Fifteenth Century Elisabetta Toreno, 2025-10-01 This book investigates the aesthetic and conceptual characteristics of fifteenth century female portraiture on panel Portraits of women increased substantially during this century They formed part of a material and a visual culture borne out of the rapid rise of an oligarchy from entrepreneurial activities that was especially advanced in the urbanised territories of Italy and Flanders For this reason the portraits in this book are by Netherlandish and Italian painters They are simultaneously illustrative of the emancipation of the genre from its medieval idiom and of the responses to the matrix of patriarchy under which society was organised Patriarchy is an androcentric structure that places women in a paradoxical situation of legal and social disenfranchisement on the account of purported psychophysical inadequacy whilst making them the catalysts through arranged marriages for the success of the spheres of power which are controlled by men Thus these portraits are also a window into women's lives in this structure This book is the first systematic study of their sign system and of the feminine experience of seeing and being seen at the intersection of disciplines that include art history anthropology legal history philosophy The surprising results suggest new interpretations of form and function in female portraiture women's active role in the imaging process and the early instances of a pro women ideology
