Spiritualities presents both commentary and vivid examples of this evolution engaging with a variety of reading practices that work with traditional texts and those that extend the notion of text itself The contributors draw on a range of textual sites such as an interview Caribbean literature drama and jazz women s writings emerging church blogs Neopagan websites the reading practices of Buddhist nuns empirical studies on the reading experiences of Gujarati Christian and post Christian women Chicana short stories the mosque cinema modern art and literature These examples open up understandings of where and how sacred texts are emerging and being reassessed within contemporary religious and spiritual contexts and make room for readings where the spiritual resides not only in the textual but in other unexpected places Reading Spiritualities includes contributions from Graham Holderness Ursula King Michael N Jagessar David Jasper Anthony G Reddie Mich le Roberts and Heather Walton to reflect and encourage the interdisciplinary study of sacred text in the broad arena of the arts and social sciences It offers a unique and well focused snapshot of the textual constructions and representations of the sacred within the contemporary religious climate accessible to the general reader as well as more specialist interests of students and researchers working in the crossover fields of religious theological cultural and literary studies Ay Tú!

Sonia Saldívar-Hull, Geneva M. Gano, 2024-10-22 A comprehensive volume on the life and work of renowned Chicana author Sandra Cisneros Ethnicity and the American Short Story Julie Brown, 2013-05-13 How do different ethnic groups approach the short story form Do different groups develop culture related themes Do oral traditions within a particular culture shape the way in which written stories are told Why does the community loom so large in ethnic stories How do such traditional forms as African American slave narratives or the Chinese talk story shape the modern short story Which writers of color should be added to the canon Why have some minority writers been ignored for such a long time How does a person of color write for white publishers editors and readers Each essay in this collection of original studies addresses these questions and other related concerns It is common knowledge that most scholarly work on the short story has been on white writers This collection is the first work to specifically focus on short story practice by ethnic minorities in America ranging from African Americans to Native Americans Chinese Americans to Hispanic Americans The number of women writers discussed will be of particular interest to women studies and genre studies researchers and the collections will be of vital interest to scholars working in American literature narrative theory and multicultural studies The Postmodern Short Story Farhat Iftekharrudin, Joseph Boyden, Mary Rohrberger, Jaie Claudet, 2003-12-30 Short stories are usually defined in terms of characteristics of modernism in which the story begins in the middle develops according to a truncated plot and ends with an epiphany This approach tends to ignore postmodernism a movement often characterized by a negation of objective reality where plots are seemingly abandoned surfaces are extraordinary and symbols turn inward on themselves This book examines postmodern forms and characteristic themes by analyzing a group of short stories that make use of postmodern narrative strategies including nonfictional fiction gender profiling and death as an image The volume begins with a discussion of the blurred lines between fiction and nonfiction in the short story and imaginative personal essay It then looks at the role of women in works by such authors as Sandra Cisneros Leslie Marmon Silko Joyce Carol Oates and Lorrie Moore This is followed by a section of chapters on postmodern masculinity and short fiction The next section focuses on death as an image and theme in works by Richard Ford Richard Brautigan and James Joyce The final set of chapters considers postmodern short fiction from South Africa and Canada

Short Story Theories ,2015-06-29 Short Story Theories A Twenty First Century Perspective problematizes different aspects of the renewal and development of the short story The aim of this collection is to explore the most recent theoretical issues raised by the short story as a genre and to offer theoretical and practical perspectives on the form Centering as it does on specific authors and on the wider implications of short story poetics this collection presents a new series of essays that both reinterpret canonical writers of the genre and advance new critical insights on the most recent trends and contemporary authors Theorizations about genre reflect on different aspects of the short story from a multiplicity of perspectives and take the form of historical and aesthetic considerations gender centered accounts and examinations that attend to reader response theory cognitive patterns sociolinguistics discourse analysis postcolonial studies postmodern techniques and contemporary uses of minimalist forms Looking ahead this collection traces the evolution of the short story from Chaucer through the Romantic writings of Poe to the postmodern developments and into the twenty first century This volume will prove of interest to scholars and graduate students working in the fields of the short story and of literature in general In addition the readability and analytical transparency of these essays make them accessible to a more general readership interested in fiction

Analyzing World Fiction Frederick Luis Aldama,2011-09-01 Why are many readers drawn to stories that texture ethnic experiences and identities other than their own How do authors such as Salman Rushdie and Maxine Hong Kingston or filmmakers in Bollywood or Mexico City produce complex fiction that satisfies audiences worldwide In Analyzing World Fiction fifteen renowned luminaries use tools of narratology and insights from cognitive science and neurobiology to provide answers to these questions and more With essays ranging from James Phelan's Voice Politics and Judgments in Their Eyes Were Watching God and Hilary Dannenberg's Narrating Multiculturalism in British Media Voice and Cultural Identity in Television to Ellen McCracken's exploration of paratextual strategies in Chicana literature this expansive collection turns the tide on approaches to postcolonial and multicultural phenomena that tend to compress author and narrator text and real life Striving to celebrate the art of fiction the voices in this anthology explore the ingredients that make for powerful universally intriguing deeply human story weaving Systematically synthesizing the tools of narrative theory along with findings from the brain sciences to analyze multicultural and postcolonial film literature and television the contributors pioneer new techniques for appreciating all facets of the wonder of storytelling

Border Crossings and Beyond Carmen Haydée Rivera,2009-09-23 Best known as the author of The House on Mango Street Sandra Cisneros is recognized as one the most important contemporary U S

writers In this book the author examines the ways in which issues of cultural and racial identity are reflected in Cisneros writing and social activism She looks at Cisneros creative process when writing novels and analyzes her poetry collections highlighting the distinctions that she makes between the two forms of writing The author concludes with a discussion of Cisneros role as an activist involved in community affairs particularly those related to the development of Latino a lives This book is a revealing and multi faceted portrait of Cisneros as writer woman and Mexican American Sandra Cisneros Raychel Haugrud Reiff,2013-08-01 Sandra Cisneros is a Mexican American novelist and poet whose works appeal to a broad spectrum of American readers When her first book was published in 1984 she broke new ground today Cisneros is a popular and admired writer around the world She is also a dedicated activist who works tirelessly for Mexican American causes Readers of Sandra Cisneros will learn how Cisneros went from being a poor underprivileged kid in the barrio to the internationally renowned writer she is today as well as get an in depth look at some of her most well known works A Study Guide for Sandra Cisneros's "Eleven" Gale, Cengage Learning, Subversive Spirits Robin Roberts,2018-01-17 The supernatural has become extraordinarily popular in literature television and film Vampires zombies werewolves witches and wizard have become staples of entertainment industries and many of these figures have received extensive critical attention But one figure has remained in the shadows the female ghost Inherently liminal often literally invisible the female ghost has nevertheless appeared in all genres Subversive Spirits The Female Ghost in British and American Popular Culture brings this figure into the light exploring her cultural significance in a variety of media from 1926 to 2014 Robin Roberts argues that the female ghost is well worth studying for what she can tell us about feminine subjectivity in cultural contexts Subversive Spirits examines appearances of the female ghost in heritage sites theater Hollywood film literature and television in the United States and the United Kingdom What holds these disparate female ghosts together is their uncanny ability to disrupt illuminate and challenge gendered assumptions As with other supernatural figures the female ghost changes over time especially responding to changes in gender roles Roberts s analysis begins with comedic female ghosts in literature and film and moves into horror by examining the successful play The Woman in Black and the legend of the weeping woman La Llorona Roberts then situates the canonical works of Maxine Hong Kingston and Toni Morrison in the tradition of the female ghost to explore how the ghost is used to portray the struggle and pain of women of color Roberts further analyzes heritage sites that use the female ghost as the friendly and inviting narrator for tourists The book concludes with a comparison of the British and American versions of the television hit Being Human where the female ghost expands her influence to become a mother and savior to all humanity Latino Literature in America Bridget Kevane,2003-12-30 There is growing awareness of the tremendous impact Latino writers have had on the recent literary scene yet not all readers have the background to fully appreciate the merits and meanings of works like House on Mango Street Line of the Sun Bless Me Ultima and In the Time of Butterflies Offering analysis of their most important popular and frequently assigned fictional works this book surveys the contributions of eight notable Latino writers Julia Alvarez Rodolfo Anaya Sandra Cisneros Junot Diaz Christina Garza Oscar Hijuelos Ortiz Cofer and Ernesto Quiroga Each chapter gives biographical background on the author and clear literary analysis of the selected works including a concise plot synopsis Delving into the question of cultural identity each work is carefully examined not only in terms of its literary components but also with regard to the cultural background and historical context This book illuminates such themes as acculturation generational differences immigration assimilation and exile Language religion and gender issues are explored against the cultural backdrop along with the social impact of such historical events as Operation Bootstrap in Puerto Rico the early days of Castro's Cuba and the Trujillo Dictatorship in the Dominican Republic Students and teachers will find their reading experiences of U.S. Latino works enriched with the literary and cultural perspectives offered here A list of additional suggested reading is included
