Womans Identity And Rethinking The Hadith Islamic Law In Context:

Woman's Identity and Rethinking the Hadith Nimat Hafez Barazangi, 2016-03-09 The Prophet Muhammad's reported traditions have evolved significantly to affect the social cultural and political lives of all Muslims. Though centuries of scholarship were spent on the authentication and trustworthiness of the narrators, there has been less study focused on the contents of these narratives known as Hadith or Sunnah and their corroboration by the Qur'an. This book is a first step in a comprehensive attempt to contrast Hadith with the Qur'an in order to uncover some of the unjust practices by Muslims concerning women and gender issues. Using specific examples, the author helps the reader appreciate and understand the magnitude of the problem. It is argued that the human rights and the human development of Muslim women will not progress in a meaningful and sustainable manner until the Hadith is re-examined in a fresh new approach from within the Islamic framework, shifting the discourse in understanding Islam from a dogmatic religious law to a religious moral rational worldview. The author argues that such re-examination requires the involvement of women in order to affirm their authority in exegetical and practical leadership within Muslim societies and she encourages Muslim women to stand up for their rights to effect change in understanding the role of sunnah in their own life. Islamic Law and Society Emine Enise Yakar, 2021-09-30 This book places context at the core of the Islamic mechanism of ift to better understand the process of issuing fatwas in Muslim and non-Muslim countries, thus highlighting the connection between context and contemporaneity on one hand and the adaptable perception of Islamic law on the other. The practice of ift is one of the most important mechanisms of Islamic law that keeps Islamic thought about ethical and legal issues in harmony with the demands, exigencies and developments of time. This book builds upon the existing body of work related to the practice of ift but takes the discussion beyond the current debates with the intent of unveiling the interaction between Islamic legal methodologies and different environmental contexts. The book specifically addresses the three institutions: Saudi Arabia's Dar al Ift, Turkey's Diyanet and America's FCNA and their Islamic legal opinions (fatwas) in a comparative framework. This demonstrates the existence of complex and diverse ideas around similar issues within contemporary Islamic legal opinions that is further complicated by the influence of international social, political, cultural and ideological contexts. The book thus unveils a more complicated range of interactive constituents in the process of the practice of ift and its outputs (fatwas). The work will be of interest to academics and researchers working in the areas of Islamic law, Middle Eastern studies, religion and politics.

Applied Family Law in Islamic Courts Nahda Shehadeh, 2018-03-20 Written from an ethnographic perspective, this book investigates the socio-legal aspects of Islamic jurisprudence in Gaza, Palestine. It examines the way judges, lawyers and litigants operate with respect to the law and with each other, particularly given their different positions in the power structure within the court and within society at large. The book aims at elucidating ambivalences in the codified statutes that allow the actors to find practical solutions to their often legally unresolved problems and to manipulate the law. The book demonstrates that present day judges are not only confronted with novel questions they have to find an answer to but perhaps more importantly they are confronted with contradictions between the letter of codified law and their own notions of justice The author reminds us that these notions of justice should not be set a priori they are socially constructed in particular time and space Making a substantial contribution to a number of theoretical debates on family law and gender the book will appeal to both academic and non academic readers alike

Islamic Law and International Commercial Arbitration Maria Bhatti, 2018-09-27 This book examines the intersection between contemporary International Commercial Arbitration and Shari a law in order to determine possible tensions that may arise between the two systems It develops evidentiary and procedural rules under Shari a as well as examining the consequences of stipulating qualifications of arbitrators based on gender and or religion The author extensively analyses the prohibition against interest riba and uncertainty gharar under Shari a and its impact on arbitration agreements arbitral awards and public policy The book also explores the prohibition against riba in light of international conventions such as the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods Case studies in the book include the Asian International Arbitration Centre formerly the Kuala Lumpur Regional Centre for Arbitration and the International Islamic Centre for Reconciliation and Arbitration as well as the Shari a Standards developed by the Accounting and Auditing Organization for Islamic Financial Institutions The book will be a valuable resource for academics students and practitioners working in the areas of Islamic law and the Islamic finance industry

International Law and Muslim States Dawood Hamzah, 2021-08-12 This book analyses the general interaction between international law and Islamic law in the Muslim world today It interrogates factors that often form the root of the tension between the two legal regimes Literalist interpretations of Islamic law and the modern international law s disposition that does not give due consideration to differences among cultures and civilizations are some of these factors This work examines the Saudi Arabia textualist approach to the two primary sources of law in Islam the Qur an and Sunnah and argues that a liberal approach of interpretation has become sine qua non especially now that myriad issues are confronting the Muslim world generally and Saudi Arabia in particular Similarly globalization has generated an unprecedented multi culturalism legal pluralism and trans border interactions in socio economic and political relations Therefore Saudi Arabia as the bastion of Islam and Islamic nations is faced with the imperative of adopting a liberal approach to interpretation of Islamic law with a view to accommodating a wide spectrum of other laws and cultures The book provides a timely examination of the issue of modern Saudi Arabia Islamic legal order vis vis the contemporary concept of international law and international relations in specific areas such as international human rights law and trans national economic matters As such it will be of interest to academics and researchers working in Islamic law international and comparative law human rights law and law and religion

Democracy in International Law-Making Salar Abbasi, 2021-12-20 This book provides a critique of current international law making and draws on a set of principles from Persian philosophers to present an alternative to influence the development of international law making procedure The work conceptualizes a substantive notion of democracy in order to regulate international law making mechanisms under a set of principles developed between the twelfth and seventeenth centuries in Persia What the author here names democratic egalitarian multilateralism is founded on the idea of egalitarian law by Suhrawardi the account of substantial motion by Mulla Sadra and the ideal of intercultural dialectical democracy developed by R m Following a discussion of the conceptual flaws of the chartered and customary sources of international law it is argued that democratic egalitarian multilateralism could be a source for a set of principles to regulate the procedures through which international treaties are made as well as a criterion for customary international law ascertainment Presenting an alternative drawn from a less dominant culture to the established ideas of international law making the book will be essential reading for researchers and academics working in public international law history of law legal theory comparative legal theory Islamic law and history

Changing God's Law Nadjma Yassari,2016-06-03 This volume identifies and elaborates on the significance and functions of the various actors involved in the development of family law in the Middle East Besides the importance of family law regulations for each individual family law has become the battleground of political and social contestation Divided into four parts the collection presents a general overview and analysis of the development of family law in the region and provides insights into the broader context of family law reform before offering examples of legal development realised by codification drawn from a selection of Gulf states Iran and Egypt It then goes on to present a thorough analysis of the role of the judiciary in the process of lawmaking before discussing ways the parties themselves may have shaped and do shape the law Including contributions from leading authors of Middle Eastern law this timely volume brings together many isolated aspects of legal development and offers a comprehensive picture on this topical subject It will be of interest to scholars and academics of family law and religion

Feminism, Law, and Religion Marie Failing,Elizabeth Schiltz,Susan J. Stabile,2016-04-15 With contributions from some of the most prominent voices writing on gender law and religion today this book illuminates some of the conflicts at the intersection of feminism theology and law It examines a range of themes from the viewpoint of identifiable traditions such as Judaism Christianity Islam and Buddhism from a theoretical and practical perspective Among the themes discussed are the cross over between religious and secular values and assumptions in the search for a just jurisprudence for women the application of theological insights from religious traditions to legal issues at the core of feminist work feminist legal readings of scriptural texts on women s rights and the place that religious law has assigned to women in ecclesiastic life Feminists of faith face challenges from many sides patriarchal remnants in their own tradition dismissal of their faith commitments by secular feminists and balancing the conflicting loyalties of their lives The book will be essential reading for legal and religious academics and students working in the area of gender and law or law and religion

Truth and Transitional Justice Alice Panepinto,2022-02-24 With a unique transitional justice perspective on the Arab Spring this book assesses the relocation of transitional justice from the international paradigm to Islamic legal systems The Arab uprisings and new and old conflicts in the Middle East North Africa and other contexts where Islam is a prominent religion have sparked an interest in localising transitional justice in the legal systems of Muslim majority communities to uncover the truth about past abuse and ensure accountability for widespread human rights violations This raises pressing questions around how the international paradigm of transitional justice and in particular its truth seeking aims might be implemented and adapted to local settings characterised by Muslim majority populations and at the same time drawing from relevant norms and principles of Islamic law This book offers a critical analysis of the relocation of transitional justice from the international paradigm to the legal systems of Muslim majority societies in light of the inherently pluralistic realities of these contexts It also investigates synergies between international law and Islamic law in furthering truth seeking the formation of collective memories and the victims right to know the truth as key aims of the international paradigm of transitional justice and broadly supported by the shari ah This book will be a useful reference for scholars practitioners and policymakers seeking to better understand the normative underpinnings of potential transitional truth seeking initiatives in the legal systems of Muslim majority societies At the same time it also proposes a more critical and creative way of thinking about the challenges and opportunities of localising transitional justice in contexts where the principles and ideas of Islamic law carry different meanings

Rethinking Human Rights Erika Jiménez, 2024-10-17 Palestinians have used the language of human rights to articulate their struggle against the Israeli occupation and internationalise the injustices they face Palestinian young people learning about human rights at school experience a dissonance between the aspirational and internationalised framework of those norms and the layers of injustice of their own lived experience Drawing on research in the occupied West Bank this book explores the three layers of marginalisation faced by Palestinian young people the Israeli occupation that denies them their humanity the Palestinian pseudo state that denies them a voice and patriarchal structures that deny them agency to show how these barriers influence their understanding of and scepticism towards human rights Influenced by decolonial theories this book illuminates how space needs to be created for the counter narratives of the oppressed in human rights discourse which may not align with more conventional representations of human rights It contends that human rights and by extension human rights education in the Palestinian context and beyond needs to be critiqued decolonised and ultimately transformed

The Cambridge Companion to American Islam Juliane Hammer, Omid Safi, 2013-08-12 This book is a comprehensive introduction to the past and present of American Muslim communities Chapters discuss demographics political participation media cultural and literary production conversion religious practice education mosque building interfaith dialogue and marriage and family as well as American Muslim thought and Sufi communities No comparable volume exists to date

Rethinking 'Authority' in Late Antiquity A.J. Berkovitz, Mark Letteney, 2018-06-14 The historian s task involves unmasking the systems of power that underlie our sources A historian must not only analyze the content and context of ancient sources

but also the structures of power authority and political contingency that account for their transmission preservation and survival But as a tool for interpreting antiquity authority has a history of its own As authority gained pride of place in the historiographical order of knowledge other types of contingency have faded into the background This book s introduction traces the genesis and growth of the category describing the lacuna that scholars seek to fill by framing texts through its lens The subsequent chapters comprise case studies from late ancient Christian and Jewish sources asking what lies beyond authority as a primary tool of analysis Each uncovers facets of textual and social history that have been obscured by overreliance on authority as historical explanation While chapters focus on late ancient topics the methodological intervention speaks to the discipline of history as a whole Scholars of classical antiquity and the early medieval world will find immediately analogous cases and applications Furthermore the critique of the place of authority as used by historians will find wider resonance across the academic study of history

Minority Rights, Feminism and International Law

Silvia Gagliardi, 2020-05-26 Investigating minority and indigenous women s rights in Muslim majority states this book critically examines the human rights regime within international law Based on extensive and diverse ethnographic research on Amazigh women in Morocco the book unpacks and challenges generally accepted notions of rights and equality Significantly and controversially the book challenges the supposedly emancipatory power vested in the human rights project arguing that rights based discourses are sites of contestation for different groups that use them to assert their agency in society More specifically it shows how the very conditions that make minority and indigenous women instrumental to the preservation of their culture may condemn them to a position of subalternity In response and engaging the notion and meaning of Islamic feminism the book proposes that feminism should be interpreted and contextualised locally in order to be effective and inclusive and so in order for the human rights project to fully realise its potential to empower the marginalised and make space for their voices to be heard Providing a detailed empirically based analysis of rights in action this book will be of relevance to scholars students and practitioners in human rights policy and practice in international law minorities and indigenous peoples rights gender studies and Middle Eastern and North African Studies

Marital and Sexual Ethics in Islamic Law Roshan Iqbal, 2023-03-14 Roshan Iqbal traces the intellectual legacy of the exegesis of Qur an 4 24 which is used as the proof text for the permissibility of mut a temporary marriage and asks if the use of verse 4 24 for the permissibility of mut a marriage is justified within the rules and regulations of Qur anic hermeneutics Iqbal examines seventeen Qur an commentaries the chronological span of which extends from the first extant commentary to the present day in three major Islamicate languages Iqbal concludes that doctrinal self identity rather than strictly philological analyses shaped the interpretation of this verse As Western academia s first comprehensive work concerning the intellectual history of mut a marriage and sexual ethics this work illustrates the power of sectarian influences on how scholars have interpreted verse 4 24 This book is the only work in English that includes a plurality of voices from minor schools Ibadi Ashari Zaidi and Ismaili largely neglected by Western scholars alongside major schools and draws from all available sub genres of exegesis Further by revealing ambiguities in the interpretation of mut a this work challenges accepted sexual ethics in Islamic thought as presented by most classical and many modern Muslim scholars and thus opens up space to theorize Islamic sexual ethics anew and contribute to this crucial conversation from the perspective of Muslim feminism Woman's Identity and the Hadith Rethinking the Sunnah Nimat Hafez Barazangi,2015-10-01 This book comprehensively contrasts Hadith with the Quran in order to uncover some of the unjust practices by Muslims concerning women and gender issues Using specific examples the author argues that the human rights and the human development of Muslim women will not progress in a meaningful and sustainable manner until the Hadith is re examined in a fresh new approach from within the Islamic framework shifting the discourse in understanding Islam from a dogmatic religious law to a religio moral rational worldview

Sexual Ethics and Islam Kecia Ali,2016-01-07 Whether exploring the thorny issues of wives sexual duties divorce homosexuality or sex outside marriage discussions of sexual ethics and Islam often spark heated conflict rather than reasoned argument In this updated and expanded edition of her ground breaking work feminist Muslim scholar Dr Kecia Ali asks how one can determine what makes sex lawful and ethical in the sight of God Drawing on both revealed and interpretative Muslim texts Ali critiques medieval and contemporary commentators alike to produce a balanced and comprehensive study of a subject both sensitive and urgent making this an invaluable resource for students scholars and interested readers The Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History Bonnie G. Smith,2008 The Encyclopedia of Women in World History captures the experiences of women throughout world history in a comprehensive 4 volume work Although there has been extensive research on women in history by region no text or reference work has comprehensively covered the role women have played throughout world history The past thirty years have seen an explosion of research and effort to present the experiences and contributions of women not only in the Western world but across the globe Historians have investigated womens daily lives in virtually every region and have researched the leadership roles women have filled across time and region They have found and demonstrated that there is virtually no historical social or demographic change in which women have not been involved and by which their lives have not been affected The Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History benefits greatly from these efforts and experiences and illuminates how women worldwide have influenced and been influenced by these historical social and demographic changes The Encyclopedia contains over 1 250 signed articles arranged in an A Z format for ease of use The entries cover six main areas biographies geography and history comparative culture and society including adoption abortion performing arts organizations and movements such as the Egyptian Uprising and the Paris Commune womens and gender studies and topics in world history that include slave trade globalization and disease With its rich and insightful entries by leading scholars and experts this reference work is sure to be a valued go to resource for scholars college and high school students and general readers alike Shari`a in the Secular

State Russell Powell, 2016-06-10 Words in both law and religion can shape power relationships and are often highly disputed Shari'a lies within the overlap of these two spheres and provides a unique subject for the study of meaning in that liminal space This book contributes important insights related to Islamic jurisprudence and secularism in the Turkish context and regarding the role of language in contested legal and religious contexts The study begins by providing a historical framework for the ideas and terms covered including concepts of religion in general Shari'a in particular and secularism in the Turkish state It goes on to examine empirical research to describe and analyze contemporary Turkish understandings of religion and Shari'a The author's research indicates that there is often a disconnect between supporting the adoption of Shari'a and supporting the regulation of everyday behavior through civil codes Thus Shari'a seems to have taken on new meanings as groups have sought either to appropriate or criticize it It is a quintessential example of fractured and contextual meaning at the center of both religious and legal traditions This book is essential reading for both academics and those interested in law linguistics history political science anthropology sociology religious studies or Near Eastern studies Governing Women

Anne Marie Goetz, 2009-01-13 Using case studies from around the world this volume argues that good governance from a gender perspective requires more than just additional women in politics it requires fundamental incentive changes to orient public action and policy to support gender equality Wawasan: Jurnal Ilmiah Agama dan Sosial Budaya, Vol. 4 No. 2 (2019), 2019-12-26 WAWASAN Jurnal Ilmiah Agama dan Sosial Budaya is a peer reviewed journal which is published by Ushuluddin Faculty UIN Sunan Gunung Djati Bandung incorporate with the scholars association Asosiasi Studi Agama Indonesia ASAI publishes biannually in June and December This Journal publishes current original research on religious studies and Islamic studies using an interdisciplinary perspective especially within Islamic Theology Ushuluddin studies and its related teachings resources Religious studies Islamic thought Islamic philosophy Quranic studies Hadith studies and Islamic mysticism WAWASAN Jurnal Ilmiah Agama dan Sosial Budaya published at first Vol 1 No 1 2016 biannually in January and July However since Vol 2 No 1 2017 the journal's publication schedule changed biannually in June and December Reviewers will review any submitted paper Review process employs a double blind review which means that both the reviewer and author identities are concealed from the reviewers and vice versa
