Resignification of Borders: Eurasianism and the Russian World Nina Friess, Konstantin Kaminskij, 2019-08-23 Eurasianism has proved to be an unexpectedly diverse and highly self reflexive concept By transforming the way we describe the Eurasian landmass it also resignifies our field of studies and its disciplinary boundaries In this process Eurasianism itself is subject to a constant resignification The present volume builds on this notion while pursuing an innovative approach to Eurasianism The authors advance the well established positions that view Eurasianism as a historical intellectual movement or as an ideology of Russian neo Imperialism and proceed to unpack an innovative vision of Eurasianism as a process of renegotiating cultural values and identity narratives in and beyond Russia This procedural approach provides deeper insight into the operationality of the identity narratives and shifting semantics of Eurasianism in its relation to the Russian World

Muslim Writing, Writing Muslimness in Europe Carmen Zamorano Llena, Billy Gray, Carolina León Vegas, Carles Magrinyà Badiella, 2025-09-25 Throughout the first two decades of the twenty first century the so called Muslim question has intermittently though persistently taken centre stage in Western media and political discourses In terms of culture within the European context there is also a substantial body of literature that has engaged with Western anxieties projected onto the Muslim Other and in particular the Muslim migrant Other Literary criticism of Muslim writing and writing about Muslims in Europe has often highlighted the need to offer a more nuanced articulation of Muslim identity that contributes to challenging such othering practices Critical studies on Muslim writing produced over the last two decades have predominantly focused on contemporary literature and the novel in particular and they have often centred on specific linguistic and national frameworks This collection of essays adds complexity to existing analyses of contemporary Muslim writing and writing about Muslims and Islam in the European context by emphasizing the comparative perspective of writings produced in different epochs and different linguistic and cultural contexts Drawing on transcultural and world literature perspectives Muslim writing is redefined so as to incorporate genres other than the novel and critical approaches that expand on disciplinary redefinitions of literature and literary studies The thematic focus and the rigorous in depth analysis of the different case studies will make this collection relevant to students and academics within the fields of literary and cultural studies sociology and anthropology as well as to those in European studies and global studies The Routledge Companion to Twenty-First-Century Irish Writing Anne Fogarty,Eugene O'Brien,2024-12-20 This Companion brings together leading scholars in the field of Irish studies to explore the significance of twenty first century Irish writing and its flourishing popularity worldwide Focusing on Irish writing published or performed in the twenty first century this volume explores genres modes and styles of writing that are current relevant and distinctive in today s classrooms Examining a host of innovative key writers including Sally Rooney Marion Keyes Sebastian Barry Paul Howard Claire Kilroy Micheal O Siadhail Donal Ryan Marina Carr Enda Walsh Martin McDonagh Colette Bryce Leanne Quinn Sin ad Morrissey Paula Meehan Ailbhe N Ghearbhuigh and Doireann Ni Ghr ofa This text investigates the sociocultural and theoretical contexts of their aesthetic achievements and innovations Furthermore The Routledge Companion to Twenty First Century Irish Writing traces the expansion of Irish writing offering fresh insight to Irish identities across the boundaries of race class and gender With its distinctive contemporary focus and comprehensive scope this multifaceted volume provides the first significant literary history of twenty first century Irish literature Political Dissent and Democratic Remittances Joanna Fomina,2021-10-24 With a focus on the most recent wave of political emigration from Russia unleashed during President Vladimir Putin s third term this book explores the activities of those who voice political dissent after leaving their country Based on rich ethnographic data and interviews gathered among Russian emigrants to the EU member states who are engaged in civic and political participation targeted at their home country it demonstrates that emigration particularly forced emigration in which political dissidents are squeezed out of their country no longer functions efficiently as a means of calming political unrest Drawing on the concept of social remittances the author analyses the content structure and the channels of political democratic remittances sent by political dissidents overseas the factors that shape them and the perceived effects of these endeavours A study of the latest wave of politically charged emigration from Russia and emigrants engagement in homeland politics this volume will appeal to scholars across a range of social sciences working on migration diaspora and democratisation processes citizenship EU studies and Russia studies Literacy in Australia Amy Seely Flint,Mark Vicars,Amanda Muscat,Maria Bennet,Robyn Ewing,Kylie Shaw,Lisa Kervin,Jessica Mantei,Jeanne Iorio,Catherine Hamm,Mitchell Parker,Marcelle Cacciattolo,Lawry Mahon,Sarah Tartakover,2024-02-20 Infused with our authors personal experiences teaching Literacy in Australia 4th Edition is delivered as a full colour printed textbook with an interactive eBook code included With a prioritised focus on the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander histories and cultures featured throughout the text and a greater focus on using ICT in the classroom pre service teachers will be well equipped with the knowledge of
