Bourne,2015-07-08 Excerpt from Youth and Life How shall I describe Youth the time of contradictions and anomalies The fiercest radicalisms the most dogged conservatisms irrepressible gayety bitter melancholy all these moods are equally part of that showery springtime of life One thing at least it clearly is a great rich rush and flood of energy It is as if the store of life had been accumulating through the slow placid years of childhood and suddenly the dam had broken and the waters rushed out furious and uncontrolled before settling down into the quieter channels of middle life The youth is suddenly seized with a poignant consciousness of being alive which is quite wanting to the naive unquestioning existence of the child He finds himself overpoweringly urged toward self expression About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Quarterly Bulletin Brooklyn Public Library,1911 The Nation ,1913 London Quarterly Review ,1903 The London Quarterly Review William Lonsdale Watkinson,William Theophilus Davison,1903 The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record ,1923
