Verandahs of Power Garth Andrew Myers, 2003-02-01 Garth Andrew Myers work makes a significant contribution to a long tradition of research on colonial cities and a multidisciplinary body of literature on urban legacies of colonialism He examines both colonial rule and postcolonial inheritance in these cities tracing the legacies of colonialism in different and divergent postcolonial settings a revolutionary left wing socialist state Zanzibar and a reactionary right wing dictatorship Malawi In addition to the examination of urban plans and the African urban majority's responses to them the book traces the experience of the urban planning process through three different verandahs of power or levels of class depiction the colonial power the colonized middle and the urban majority Interspersed with personal stories this book illuminates our understanding of the workings of power in African cities by addressing human experiences of that power A Model Four Semester Syllabus for Transcultural Theology Overseas Michael C. Kirwen, 1986 A complete syllabus Theological Education and Formation Overseas as taught in Tanzania from August 1981 to June 1983 Julius Nyerere Paul Bjerk, 2017-05-30 With vision hard nosed judgment and biting humor Julius Nyerere confronted the challenges of nation building in modern Africa Constructing Tanzania out of a controversial Cold War union between Tanganyika and Zanzibar Nyerere emerged as one of independent Africa's most influential leaders He pursued his own brand of African socialism called Ujamaa with unquestioned integrity and saw it profoundly influence movements to end white minority rule in Southern Africa Yet his efforts to build a peaceful nation created a police state economic crisis and a war with Idi Amin's Uganda Eventually unlike most of his contemporaries Nyerere retired voluntarily from power paving the way for peaceful electoral transitions in Tanzania that continue today Based on multinational archival research extensive reading and interviews with Nyerere's family and colleagues as well as some who suffered under his rule Paul Bjerk provides an incisive and accessible biography of this African leader of global importance Recognizing Nyerere's commitment to participatory government and social equality while also confronting his authoritarian turns and policy failures Bjerk offers a portrait of principled leadership under the difficult circumstances of postcolonial Africa Catalog of the Melville J. Herskovits Library of African Studies, Northwestern University Library (Evanston, Illinois) and Africana in Selected Libraries Melville J. Herskovits Library of African Studies, 1972 Challenging Nature Philip W. Porter, 2006-03 Tanga Region Tanzania is an area of persistent rural poverty with a long history of drought floods food shortages famine and social and economic disruption Though farmers have been cultivating the land there for hundreds of years they have consistently been unable to supply adequate food for the region's inhabitants In Challenging Nature Philip Porter examines eighteen farming communities to understand what the farmers there know about their environment and which historical and economic factors play into the lack of food security

Porter first began work on this project in 1972 asking 250 farmers in the region about life history environmental and agricultural changes types of crops grown and methods of planting environmental assessments agricultural practices food and water supplies training and education and attitudes toward nature Twenty years later he returned and reinterviewed as many farmers as could be found from the first survey The result contextualizes the environmental history of the region while informing current and future agricultural development homeland the book also demonstrates that much of the creative production of diasporic Indian identities formed in East Africa was a result of local albeit cosmopolitan encounters across cities like Dar es Salaam
