Violence Against Women American College of Physicians, 2003 Patients and the public expect physicians to recognize and treat victims of interpersonal trauma Few clinicians however are familiar with how to approach patients about past or current intimate partner violence and sexual abuse and even fewer are aware of effective interventions Violence Against Women makes available to health care providers essential information on this sensitive subject Topics include the causes of violence screening procedures making referrals legal issues and the effects that treating survivors of violence can have on clinicians themselves Groups with increased vulnerability or decreased ability to seek help such as pregnant or elderly women are given special consideration

Violence Against Women Holly Johnson, Natalia Ollus, Sami Nevala, 2007-11-23 In December 2006 the United Nations General Assembly adopted a resolution on intensification of efforts to eliminate all forms of violence against women A RES 61 143 This resolution followed the launch of the Secretary General's in depth study on violence against women in October 2006 A 61 122 Add 1 and Corr 1 and is the first ever comprehensive action by the General Assembly on this persistent scourge that potentially affects one woman in three in the course of her lifetime The resolution urges Member States to exercise leadership and devise systematic comprehensive multi sectoral and sustained approaches adequately supported and facilitated by strong institutional mechanisms and financing to eliminate all forms of violence against women In particular it calls upon Member States to establish national plans of action on the elimination of violence against women undertake legislative capacity building and awareness raising measures provide services for women and ensure the systematic collection and analysis of data The resolution calls upon the entities of the United Nations system to support national efforts especially with respect to data collection and the development of national plans of action It urges them to enhance coordination and intensify their efforts to eliminate all forms of violence against women and girls It also notes the need to provide adequate resources to efforts throughout the United Nations system to eliminate violence against women and girls

The Cry of Tamar Pamela Cooper-White, 2013-06-24 In this comprehensive practical and gripping assessment of various forms of violence against women Pamela Cooper White challenges the Christian churches to examine their own responses to the cry of Tamar in our time She describes specific forms of such violence and outlines appropriate pastoral responses The second edition of this groundbreaking work is thoroughly updated and examines not only where the church has made progress since 1995 but also where women remain at unchanged or even greater risk of violence

Violence against Women in Families and Relationships Eve S. Buzawa, Evan Stark, 2009-06-08 This comprehensive overview of domestic violence against women and children in America covers the services meant to combat it the legal approaches to prosecuting it the public's attitudes toward it and the successes and failures of systems meant to address it The fight to end domestic violence consists of community based services for battered women laws and policies to combat the problem a broad spectrum of frequently innovative programs to protect or otherwise support abused women and children a dramatic shift in media portrayals of violence against women and a growing public critique of unacceptable forms of power and control in relationships These volumes offer another weapon in that battle Violence against Women in Families and Relationships takes stock of all of the ways in which legislation programs and services and even public attitudes have impacted victims offenders and communities over the last few decades Contributors pay special attention to how race class and cultural differences affect the experience of abuse They explore the efficacy of interventions and they provide compelling real life examples to illustrate issues and challenges Our society has made an enormous investment in stopping abuse in families and relationships but numerous questions still remain Many of those questions are answered in these pages as experts uncover the realities of domestic violence and the toll it takes on families individuals communities and society at large

Violence against Women Jacqui True, 2020-10-01 Violence against women and girls VAWG is a longstanding problem that has increasingly come to the forefront of international and national policy debates and news from the US reauthorization of the Violence against Women Act and a United Nations declaration to end sexual violence in war to coverage of gang rapes in India cyberstalking and revenge porn honor killings female genital mutilation and international trafficking Yet while we frequently read or learn about particular experiences or incidents of VAWG we are often unaware of the full picture Jacqui True an internationally renowned scholar of globalization and gender provides an expansive frame for understanding VAWG in this book Among the questions she addresses include What are we talking about when we discuss VAWG What kinds of violence does it encompass Who does it affect most and why What are the risk factors for victims and perpetrators Does VAWG occur at the same level in all societies Are there cultural explanations for it What types of legal redress do victims have How reliable are the statistics that we have Are men and boys victims of gender based violence What is the role of the media in exacerbating VAWG And what sorts of policy and advocacy routes exist to end VAWG This volume addresses the current state of knowledge and research on these questions True surveys our best understanding of the causes and consequences of violence against women in the home local community workplace public and transnationally In so doing she brings together multidisciplinary perspectives on the problem of violence against women and girls and sets out the most promising policy and advocacy frameworks to end this violence Sourcebook on Violence Against Women Claire M.
