The Hindu Self and Its Muslim Neighbors Ankur Barua, 2022-04-25 In The Hindu Self and its Muslim Neighbors the author sketches the contours of relations between Hindus and Muslims in Bengal The central argument is that various patterns of amicability and antipathy have been generated towards Muslims over the last six hundred years and these patterns emerge at dynamic intersections between Hindu self understandings and social shifts on contested landscapes The core of the book is a set of translations of the Bengali writings of Rabindranath Tagore 1861 1941 Kazi Nazrul Islam 1899 1976 and Annada Shankar Ray 1904 2002 Their lives were deeply interwoven with some Hindu Muslim synthetic ideas and subjectivities and these involvements are articulated throughout their writings which provide multiple vignettes of contemporary modes of amity and antagonism Barua argues that the characterization of relations between Hindus and Muslims either in terms of an implacable hostility or of an unfragmented peace is historically inaccurate for these relations were modulated by a shifting array of socio economic and socio political parameters It is within these contexts that Rabindranath Nazrul and Annada Shankar are developing their thoughts on Hindus and Muslims through the prisms of religious humanism and universalism
