Hilary Robinson, Maria Elena Buszek

Visualizing Feeling Affect And The Feminine Avant Garde By Susan Best 2013 Paperback:

A Companion to Feminist Art Hilary Robinson, Maria Elena Buszek, 2019-10-22 Original essays offering fresh ideas and global perspectives on contemporary feminist art The term feminist art is often misused when viewed as a codification within the discipline of Art History a codification that includes restrictive definitions of geography chronology style materials influence and other definitions inherent to Art Historical and museological classifications Employing a different approach A Companion to Feminist Art defines art as a dynamic set of material and theoretical practices in the realm of culture and feminism as an equally dynamic set of activist and theoretical practices in the realm of politics Feminist art therefore is not a simple classification of a type of art but rather the space where feminist politics and the domain of art making intersect The Companion provides readers with an overview of the developments concepts trends influences and activities within the space of contemporary feminist art in different locations ways of making and ways of thinking Newly commissioned essays focus on the recent history of and current discussions within feminist art Diverse in scope and style these contributions range from essays on the questions and challenges of large sectors of artists such as configurations of feminism and gender in post Cold War Europe to more focused conversations with women artists on Afropean decoloniality Ranging from discussions of essentialism and feminist aesthetics to examinations of political activism and curatorial practice the Companion informs and questions readers introduces new concepts and fresh perspectives and illustrates just how much more there is to discover within the realm of feminist art Addresses the intersection between feminist thinking and major theories that have influenced art theory Incorporates diverse voices from around the world to offer viewpoints on global feminisms from scholars who live and work in the regions about which they write Examines how feminist art intersects with considerations of collectivity war maternal relationships desire men and relational aesthetics Explores the myriad ways in which the experience of inhabiting and perceiving aged raced and gendered bodies relates to feminist politics in the art world Discusses a range practices in feminism such as activism language education and different ways of making art The intersection of feminist art making and feminist politics are not merely components of a unified whole they sometimes diverge and divide A Companion to Feminist Art is an indispensable resource for artists critics scholars curators and anyone seeking greater strength on the subject through informed critique and debate

Feminist Perspectives on Art Jacqueline Millner, Catriona Moore, 2018-02-01 When the body is foregrounded in artwork as in much contemporary performance sculptural installation and video work so is gendered and sexualised difference Feminist Perspectives on Art Contemporary Outtakes looks to interactions between art history theory curation and studio based practices to theorise the phenomenological import of this embodied gender difference in contemporary art The essays in this collection are rooted in a wide variety of disciplines including art making curating and art history and criticism with many of the authors combining roles of curator artist and writer This interdisciplinary approach enables the book to bridge the theory practice divide and highlight new perspectives emerging from creative arts research Fresh insights are offered on feminist aesthetics women s embodied experience curatorial and art historical method art world equity and intersectional concerns It engages with epistemological assertions of how the body feels how the land has creative agency in Indigenous art and how the use of emotional or affective registers may form one s curatorial method This anthology represents a significant contribution to a broader resurgence of feminist thought methodology and action in contemporary art particularly in creative practice research It will be of particular value to students and researchers in art history visual culture cultural studies and gender studies in addition to museum and gallery professionals specialising in contemporary art Feminist Subjectivities in Fiber Art and Craft John

Corso-Esquivel, 2019-07-09 This book interprets the fiber art and craft inspired sculpture by eight US and Latin American women artists whose works incite embodied affective experience Grounded in the work of Gilles Deleuze and Félix Guattari John Corso Esquivel posits craft as a material act of intuition The book provocatively asserts that fiber art long disparaged in the wake of the high low dichotomy of late Modernism is in fact well positioned to lead art at the vanguard of affect theory and twenty first century feminist subjectivities
