

Voyaging with Kids

A photograph of four children on the deck of a sailboat. They are all wearing orange and red life jackets. The child on the far left is a boy with curly hair, smiling and pointing. The child next to him is a girl with long brown hair, looking towards the camera. The child in the center is a girl with long brown hair, looking away with an open mouth. The child on the far right is a girl with long brown hair, looking towards the camera. They are all standing on the white deck of the boat, with the blue sea and sky in the background.
