Woman In Christ Toward A New Feminism:

Women in Christ Michele M. Schumacher, 2004 The challenge of promoting the new feminism has barely been addressed since it was first launched by Pope John Paul II in his 1995 encyclical Evangelium vitae The thirteen contributors in this book all outstanding international scholars take up this task together laying the necessary theoretical foundation for the new feminism These chapters articulate an integral philosophical and theological understanding of persons that moves beyond patriarchy on the one hand and traditional feminism on the other Central to the new perspective offered here is the biblical revelation of the human person man and woman in Christ a vision that directs women beyond the male standard against which they have too often been measured Far from constraining women to an eternal essence the dynamic view presented here encourages each woman to realize herself in perfect Christian freedom

Woman as Prophet in the Home and the World R. Mary Hayden Lemmons, 2016-09-15 This first ever interdisciplinary study of woman as prophet shows that in these troubling times ordinary women especially Christian women need to function as prophets by proclaiming in word and deed the indispensability of lovingly seeking the welfare of others More specifically social science shows that the person centered love prophesied by women prophets is able to meet interpersonal challenges within the home and world while philosophy and theology establish that women are able to excel as prophets due to the virtuous dispositions inculcated by femininity the choice to be caring a God centered spirituality and a pro life humanitarian personalist feminism that welcomes male collaborators Facilitating the ability of Christian women to prophesy love are Baptismal graces Thomistic virtues and a much needed prophetic Marian ecclesiology based on what John Paul II calls the prophetism of femininity These interdisciplinary findings provide an essential resource for educators and students of humanity the theology of women and evangelization These findings emerge first from an investigation into the cognitive and ontological underpinnings of what John Paul II called the feminine genius A second set of findings emerges from exploring the prophetic dimensions of the feminine genius secular feminism s need to adopt the insights of Christianity and the ability of femininity s prophetism to recast both femininity and feminism as Marian prophecies A third set of findings arises from analyzing the spirituality of women prophets within the Christian tradition by considering the conditions necessary for prophesying explicating requisite Thomistic virtues and delving into the spirituality of Hildegard Catherine of Siena Julian of Norwich and Teresa of Avila A fourth set of findings arises from innovative studies of polarization secularization lust romantic love the conditions whereby mothers with careers can flourish and the ability of nuns to combat racism in a small Midwestern town Overall these interdisciplinary investigations explicate the theology of women and show that women who prophesy love either in the order of grace or nature can help heal lives families and culture

The Oxford Handbook of Christology Francesca Aran Murphy, Troy A. Stefano, 2015 The Oxford Handbook of Christology brings together 40 authoritative essays considering the theological study of the nature and role of Jesus Christ This collection offers dynamic perspectives within the study of

Christology and provides rigorous discussion of inter confessional theology which would not have been possible even 60 years ago The first of the seven parts considers Jesus Christ in the Bible Rather than focusing solely on the New Testament this section begins with discussion of the modes of God s self communication to us and suggests that Christ s most original incarnation is in the language of the Hebrew Bible The second section considers Patristics Christology These essays explore the formation of the doctrines of the person of Christ and the atonement between the First Council of Nicaea in 325 and the eve of the Second Council of Nicaea The next section looks at Mediaeval theology and tackles the development of the understanding of who Christ was and of his atoning work The section on Reformation and Christology traces the path of the Reformation from Luther to Bultmann The fifth section tackles the new developments in thinking about Christ which have emerged in the modern and the postmodern eras and the sixth section explains how beliefs about Jesus have affected music poetry and the arts The final part concludes by locating Christology within systematic theology asking how it relates to Christian belief as a whole This comprehensive volume provides an invaluable resource and reference for scholars students and general readers interested in the study of Christology

Original Sin and the Evolution of Sexual Difference

Megan Loumagne Ulishney, Megan Loumagne, 2022 Original Sin and the Evolution of Sexual Difference re examines Christian thinking about original sin and sexual difference in conversation with recent developments in evolutionary biology and feminist philosophy and theology The New Catholic Feminism Tina Beattie, 2004-06 Having confronted the conflict between feminism and the Vatican and Pope Benedict XVI Beattie proposes a new theological approach to the encounter between feminism and Catholicism for the twenty first century Jacket The Catholic Periodical and Literature Index , 2004

Women, Sex and the Church Erika Bachiochi, 2010 The women who write in this volume challenge the common misconception that the Catholic Church's teachings are anti women and anti sex Rather these women believe that it is precisely the Church's controversial teachings on abortion sex marriage and contraception that bespeak the Church's love of women and reverence for sex Recent empirical evidence reveals just how harmful breaking from these teachings has been for women their children and our culture over the past few decades Indeed the women who write these chapters argue that contrary to popular belief following Church teachings on sex and marriage in spite of the sometimes arduous difficulty of doing so actually helps women to flourish physically emotionally relationally and socially from the Introduction Nova Et Vetera , 2008 New Oxford Review , 2006 Man and Woman He Created Them Pope John Paul II, 2006 A new critical translation of Pope John Paul II s talks on the Theology of the Body by the internationally renowned biblical scholar Michael Waldstein With meticulous scholarship and profound insight Waldstein presents John Paul II s magnificent vision
