Women And Change In The Caribbean A Pan Caribbean Perspective:

Women and Change in the Caribbean Janet Momsen, 1993-09-22 Recent discussion of postmodern culture describes a movement from center to periphery privileging cultures that were formerly marginalized Women and Change in the Caribbean a study of women marginalized by both gender and race in a region such as the Caribbean itself marginalized in global terms attempts to extract insights relevant both within and beyond geographical confines This volume offers a feminist interpretation of a multicultural society emerging from colonialism and in the process of change and restructuring The nineteen chapters include case studies of fifteen different Caribbean territories including Jamaica Trinidad Barbados Puerto Rico Grenada and Guyana The book is divided into two sections the first looks at women s status and gender relations in the private and public spheres the second looks at women s economic activity Taking a broad pan Caribbean comparative view contributors discuss territories with American British Dutch Danish French and Spanish colonial traditions and current political links The contributors come from a range of disciplinary backgrounds including agriculture anthropology economics geography history sociology and women s studies Feminist Genealogies, Colonial Legacies, Democratic Futures M. Jacqui Alexander, Chandra Talpade Mohanty, 2013-09-05 Feminist Genealogies Colonial Legacies Democratic Futures provides a feminist analysis of the questions of sexual and gender politics economic and cultural marginality and anti racist and anti colonial practices both in the West and in the Third World This collection edited by Jacqui Alexander and Chandra Talpade Mohanty charts the underlying theoretical perspectives and organization practices of the different varieties of feminism that take on questions of colonialism imperialism and the repressive rule of colonial post colonial and advanced capitalist nation states It provides a comparative relational historically grounded conception of feminist praxis that differs markedly from the liberal pluralist multicultural understanding that sheapes some of the dominant version of Euro American feminism As a whole the collection poses a unique challenge to the naturalization of gender based in the experiences histories and practices of Euro American women Women & change in the Caribbean ,1993 Gender, Ethnicity and Place Linda Peake, D. Alissa Trotz, 2002-09-11 This book is concerned with the nature of the relationship between gender ethnicity and poverty in the context of the external and internal dynamics of households in Guyana Using detailed data collected from male and female respondents in three separate locations two urban and one rural and across two major ethnic groups Afro Guyanese and Indo Guyanese the authors discuss the links between gender and race exploring development issues from a feminist perspective Entrepreneurial Women Louise Kelly, 2014-08-11 Women are now leading companies and other enterprises in significant numbers in developing countries as well as the Western world This set examines the specific ways in which entrepreneurial women create success and considers how the growing prevalence of female entrepreneurs will change the world This two volume work provides balanced and thorough coverage of women entrepreneurs in multicultural and international contexts as well as in the Western world Entrepreneurial Women New Management and Leadership Models explores how women everywhere are empowering themselves socially and economically through entrepreneurship and business ownership The contributors consider how discrimination against women in the workplace can contribute to the inspiration to become business owners in the first place and document the experiences of African American women entrepreneurs as well as women in distinct settings such as China Africa rural Jamaica and Silicon Valley The work draws on empirical studies data sets case studies and descriptions of career trajectories to portray the realities of women entrepreneurs today Readers will understand the distinctive challenges and opportunities involved with the entrepreneurship process for women owned businesses grasp how women have overcome their disadvantages in getting funding and accessing capital and learn about the unique management and leadership style of women entrepreneurs Full Circles Cindi

Katz,Janice Monk,2014-02-04 Full Circles describes the very different lives and expectations of women in post industrial and developing countries from childhood to old age Analysing how class ethnicity nationality and individual values intersect with the experience of the life course the book explores the futures open to women in diverse and changing locations A

Historical Study of Women in Jamaica Lucille Mathurin Mair,2006 An exposure of women as agents of history a path breaking achievement at a time when Caribbean historiography ignored women The white woman consumed the coloured woman served and the black woman laboured Nature and Progress in Rural Creole Belize Melissa A. Women in the Americas Inter-American Development Bank,1995 Women in the Americas examines the respective roles of men and women in development roles determined not by biology but by social political and economic influences that can be affected by policies and strategies Prevailing social policies in the region often view men as income earners and women as wives and mothers neglecting the role of women in the work force and as community leaders In fact between their economic social and domestic responsibilities women often have double or triple workdays Based on the central tenet that understanding gender differences is vital to development planning Women in the Americas focuses on the status of women in social policy the labor force the political process and the environment It also examines how the concept of gender equity could be better incorporated into mainstream development policy

Women and Slavery: Africa, the Indian Ocean world, and the medieval north Atlantic Gwyn Campbell,Suzanne Miers,Joseph Calder Miller,2007 The particular experience of enslaved women across different cultures and many different eras is the focus of this work

Tourism Promotion and Power Nigel Morgan,Annette Pritchard,1998 Informed by modern marketing theory this book offers a unique approach by taking a comprehensive synthesised and integrated sociological and cultural approach to tourism marketing It focuses on controversial issues of tourism imagery highlighting issues such as gender sexuality and race as key determinants of tourism power dimensions Students of tourism will find this book a thought provoking and conceptual evaluation of the subject Practitioners will find value in the discussion of how the issues raised have been integrated throughout the case studies

Tourism Development and Local Participation in Latin America Heidi Dahles,Lou Keune,2002

Midlife and Older Women Joan M. Rawlins,2006 The definition and evolution of the categories of race and ethnicity have long been topics of debate among historians and scholars of social anthropology This book examines how the meanings and values of race and ethnicity have been constructed historically and how they are represented symbolically with particular focus on the Caribbean Alleyne examines the historical development of these categories in Europe in Asia and in Africa and then proceeds to an in depth analysis of the Caribbean with a focus on Puerto Rico Martinique and Jamaica as three different modalities of race and ethnicity and three different colonial systems Through a unique approach grounded in linguistic ethnographic and historic analysis Alleyne draws on a wide array of evidence and ultimately opposes the widely held notion that racial antagonism against black people is the consequence of New World slavery in the period following the discovery of the Americas in the late fifteenth century Of particular interest to the academic audience in the fields of history linguistics African American and ethnic studies sociology and anthropology this book also appeals to general readers interested in issues of race ethnicity and the historical experience of African and African descended peoples
