Young Buddies Tsim Sha Tsui:

Islam in Hong Kong Paul O'Connor, 2012-09-01 More than a quarter of a million Muslims live and work in Hong Kong. Among them are descendants of families who have been in the city for generations, recent immigrants from around the world, and growing numbers of migrant workers. Islam in Hong Kong explores the lives of Muslims as ethnic and religious minorities in this unique post-colonial Chinese city. Drawing on interviews with Muslims of different origins, O'Connor builds a detailed picture of daily life through topical chapters on language, space, religious education, daily prayers, maintaining a halal diet in a Chinese environment, racism, and other subjects. Although the picture that emerges is complex and ambiguous, one striking conclusion is that Muslims in Hong Kong generally find acceptance as a community and do not consider themselves to be victimised because of their religion.

Understanding South Asian Minorities in Hong Kong John Nguyet Erni, Lisa Yuk-ming Leung, 2014-06-01 People of South Asian descent are a large, varied and increasingly visible part of Hong Kong's population. Most have found ways of prospering despite social and economic obstacles and widespread discrimination. Focusing on three important groups: Indians, Pakistanis and Nepalese, Erni and Leung explore the cultural histories of South Asians in Hong Kong and their experiences at school and at work. The book then discusses how far South Asians' legal rights are protected by recent anti-discrimination legislation, how they are presented in mainstream media, and how they in turn have made creative use of the media in their efforts to secure recognition as full members of society. Written in an accessible style and drawing on a range of case studies, Understanding South Asian Minorities in Hong Kong is intended primarily for university students and general readers. It will also be of interest to scholars in a wide variety of disciplines including sociology, social work, media studies, anthropology, history and cultural studies. At a time when minority rights come increasingly under scrutiny, this book will also be essential reading for advocates, politicians and policy makers. This is a comprehensive book on South Asians in Hong Kong. Its examinations of important issues affecting the community are well researched, well argued and supported. The inclusion of personal stories and vignettes also adds a sense of living history. This book will certainly enhance the readers' understanding of Hong Kong's multicultural background, the advantage of a pluralistic society and the steps towards further racial integration.

York Y N Chow, Chairperson, Equal Opportunities Commission, Hong Kong. This is a striking example of cultural studies at its best: boldly interdisciplinary, smartly argued, engagingly written, and with a provocative set of policy recommendations to top it all off. Erni and Leung's nuanced analysis of the politics of racism with respect to ethnic minorities in Hong Kong is a must read for anyone interested in critical multiculturalism.

Gilbert B Rodman, University of Minnesota. For understanding the situation of South Asians in Hong Kong, this book is absolutely essential reading. It explores not only South Asians' lives and histories in Hong Kong but also Hong Kong laws, mass media and educational policies as these affect South Asians. This book will be a valuable resource for years and decades to come.

Gordon Mathews, The Chinese University of Hong Kong.

Living in Hong Kong ,2003 Around the World in Hong KongEnglish Lawrence Mateo Shiu,2025-03-19 So how exactly did I experience the world while in graduate school in Hong Kong It was because upon re entering university life I discovered that by that time Hong Kong universities had become widely accessible to international exchange students Being someone who has always enjoyed connecting with people from different cultures and serving as a cultural ambassador I helped them understand and fall in love with Hong Kong I quickly applied to become a student ambassador for exchange programs at the university and it later evolved into a professional role Over seven years I interacted with exchange students from over 100 different places totaling nearly 3 000 students This figure of 3 000 is not an estimate but based on the Facebook group I established for my university s international alumni which had 3 000 members at its peak Among them hundreds became my close friends during our time in school Beyond sharing life in Hong Kong I traveled with some and even years after we all left campus we still occasionally meet either in Hong Kong or in their home countries
