of in Yorkshire but Mr Arundel Dacre's speech All the world flocked to Castle Dacre to compliment and to congratulate and an universal hope was expressed that he might come in for the county if indeed the success of his eloquence did not enable his uncle to pre-occupy that honour Even the calm Mr Dacre shared the general elation and told the Duke of St James regularly every day that it was all owing to him May Dacre was enthusiastic but her gratitude to him was synonymous with her love for Arundel and valued accordingly The Duke however felt that he had acted at once magnanimously generously and wisely The consciousness of a noble action is itself ennobling His spirit expanded with the exciting effects which his conduct had produced and he felt consolation under all his misery from the conviction that he had now claims to be remembered and perhaps regarded when he was no more among them The Bill went swimmingly through the Commons the majority of two gradually swelling into eleven and the important night in the Lords was at hand About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
