CONVEYING IDEAS A Text Book on Improving Public Speech Dr Ananta Geetey Uppal, Oral Communication

Kathryn Sue Young, Howard Paul Travis, 2017-11-10 Every day we communicate in our professional and personal lives to initiate or improve relationships, get what we want, function in teams, and learn new things. The success of these interactions depends on the ability to be effective in conveying messages. The Fourth Edition of this widely used text presents indispensable skills to encode and decode messages, guiding readers to develop their own communication style. Retaining its concise yet comprehensive coverage, the latest edition explores digital age communication techniques and includes sections on communication privacy management theory and affection exchange theory. Oral Communication 4 E presents a wide range of introductory topics in an affordable, straightforward, and fun format. Each chapter opens with clear learning objectives and ends with key terms and discussion questions. Interactive exercises throughout the book engage readers as they are asked to reflect on previous experiences, experiment with tools provided to them in the text, react to hypothetical scenarios, and think critically. Readers will benefit from professional sidebars that illustrate how academic concepts fit into the careers they will soon enter. Teaching First-Year Communication Courses Pat J. Gehrke, 2018-07-26 In this book, eleven teacher scholars of communication provide a robust study of the challenges and opportunities facing those who teach first-year communication courses. The first half of the volume offers paradigmatic analyses, including a survey of the ecology of the first-year course, a plea to integrate our first-year courses into our research agendas, a study of the gap between scholarship and pedagogy within rhetoric, a proposal for seven core competencies to unify the various first-year communication courses, and an argument for a critical communication paradigm. The second half details innovations in classroom practice, such as the teaching techniques of social justice pedagogues, team-based learning as a model for the public speaking course response, and feedback techniques in teaching public speaking at the University of Copenhagen teaching online speech as a new course focused on the unique challenges of digital communication and the role of oral interpretation and performance classes in the first year curriculum Finally this volume concludes with the editor s manifesto for teaching public speaking
