Zeitgeist In Babel The Postmodernist Controversy:

Zeitgeist in Babel Ingeborg Hoesterey, 1991 Lawrence Durrell, Postmodernism and the Ethics of Alterity Stefan Herbrechter, 1999 This book is of interest for any reader wishing to explore the interface between literature and critical and cultural theory It investigates the notions of alterity which underlie the work of Lawrence Durrell and postmodernist theory Grass Irmgard Elsner Hunt Second World Postmodernisms Vladimir Kulic, 2019-02-21 If postmodernism is indeed the cultural logic of late capitalism why did typical postmodernist themes like ornament colour history and identity find their application in the architecture of the socialist Second World How do we explain the retreat into paper architecture and theoretical discussion in societies still nominally devoted to socialist modernization Exploring the intersection of two areas of growing scholarly interest postmodernism and the architecture of the former socialist world this edited collection stakes out new ground in charting architecture's various transformations in the 1970s and 80s Fourteen essays together explore the question of whether or not architectural postmodernism had a specific Second World variant The collection demonstrates both the unique nature of Second World architectural phenomena and also assesses connections with western postmodernism The case studies cover the vast geographical scope from Eastern Europe to China and Cuba They address a wealth of aesthetic discursive and practical phenomena interpreting them in the broader socio political context of the last decades of the Cold War The result provides a greatly expanded map of recent architectural history which redefines postmodernist architecture in a more theoretically comprehensive and global way Critical Essays on Literature, Language, and Aesthetics Saroja Ganapathy, Arnapurna Rath, 2018-11-28 This volume of critical essays explores various facets of the social sciences and humanities from an interdisciplinary perspective The essays gathered here have been culled from different aspects of humanities research in order to widen the scope of research possibilities The dialogic mode in which the essays are arranged lends a unique texture to the book This volume will be of interest to researchers academics and even the casual reader with an interest in the humanities The rich array of topics covered here gives an inkling of the range of Professor Milind Malshe's research interests and his academic associations in his career as a scholar and mentor The different sections in this volume engage in a performance of sorts allowing a free play of many voices identified as the core to teaching and research in the humanities Women in German Yearbook Jeanette Clausen, Sara Friedrichsmeyer, Patricia A. Herminghouse, 1994-06-01 The tenth volume of Women in German Yearbook offers new perspectives on issues of gender and sexual identity Richard McCormick analyzes through a reading of G W Pabst's film Geheimnisse einer Seele social anxieties about gender identity in Weimar popular culture Elizabeth Mittman discusses Christa Wolf and Helga K nigsdorf as different embodiments of the drastically altered eastern German public sphere in 1989/90 Ruth Ellen B Joeres suggests that the homosocial content of letters by early nineteenth century German women writers created a social sphere distinct from those usually identified as public or private Marjorie Gelus analyzes the obsessive focus on sex and gender in three of Kleist's stories Gail Hart argues that Kleist's defeminization of Anmut in his Marionettentheater essay reinforces the exclusivity of a male homosocial universe The relationship of masochism to female erotic desire is the subject of Brigid Haines's examination of Lou Andreas Salom's Eine Ausschweifung Silke von der Emde investigates Irmtraud Morgner's use of postmodern strategies to promote feminist goals Susan Anderson rereads Monika Maron's Die _berl uferin analyzing the self-emancipatory effects of fantasy A cluster of articles providing feminist perspectives on the Holocaust is introduced by Ruth Kl_ger's Dankrede zum Grimmelshausen Preis Karen Remmler discusses the relationship between memory and the portrayal of female bodies in two recent Holocaust narratives Suzanne Shipley examines the significance of exile in the autobiographies of two women who fled Austria for New York Sigrid Lange introduces Marie Therese Kerschbaumer's Der weibliche Name des Widerstands a challenge to Austria's attempts to minimize its role in Nazi persecutions Miriam Frank provides an overview of lesbian literature and publishing practices in Germany and Luise Pusch reports on a recent attempt at language censorship in the German parliament The volume closes with the editors' look at Women in German after twenty years Jeanette Clausen is an associate professor of German at Indiana UniversityPurdue University at Fort Wayne She is coeditor of German Feminism and since 1987 has coedited the Women in German Yearbook Sara Friedrichsmeyer is a professor of German at the University of Cincinnati Raymond Walters College and author of The Androgyne in Early German Romanticism She has been coeditor of the Women in German Yearbook since 1990

Beyond the Subtitle Mark Betz, 2009 Examining European art films of the 1950s and 1960s Mark Betz argues that it is time for film analysis to move beyond prevailing New Wave historiography mired in outdated notions of nationalism and dragged down by decades of auteurist criticism Focusing on the cinemas of France and Italy Betz reveals how the flowering of European art films in the postwar era is inseparable from the complex historical and political frameworks of the time

History and Theory, 1992 You Might be Able to Get There from Here Mark F. Frisch, 2004 This book details the immense impact that Jorge Luis Borges has had on the thinking and writing of the twentieth century and how many have misunderstood that impact It highlights how his symbols techniques parody irony and artful ambiguity in his fiction essays and poems force us to question what we can know with certainty what is real and what is dream and who we are and thus define what has become the core of the postmodern vision The book explores Borges's distinctly Latin American postmodern pluralism It details how this pluralism has informed the postmodern discussions of the self love history feminism and politics and has influenced writers in the U S and Latin America Throughout it argues that the Argentine writer avoids the nihilism and chaos of a radical relativism that many have come to associate with postmodernism Rather his vision affirms values and a search for positive knowledge Mark Frisch is Associate Professor in the Department of Modern Languages and Literatures at Duquesne University

H.S., 1994 Luigi Nono (1924-1990) Stephen Davismoon, 1999 Jean-François Lyotard Derek Robbins, 2004 Irony and Crisis Stuart Sim, 2002 This book is designed to trace the critical history of the postmodern
