Four Gates of Zen Practice Anzan Hoshin, 1992      Master Dogen's Zazen Meditation Handbook Eihei

Dogen, 2022-04-19 Dogen's famous text on Zen practice comes alive in the hands of a modern meditation master Carl Bielefeldt, Professor of Religious Studies at Stanford University and author of Dogen's Manuals of Zen Meditation. This is the definitive English translation of a foundational work of Zen Buddhism, the Bendowa (On the Endeavor of the Way) by Eihei Dogen, founder of the Soto school of Zen in Japan. Written in 1231, it contains the master's essential teachings on zazen (seated meditation), which is the fundamental pathway to Buddhist enlightenment. The first part of the book introduces the notion of wondrous dharma and looks at the role of the individual in society and notions of time and interconnection. The second part of the work is cast in the form of a dialogue in the Q & A format, offering answers to questions a Zen novice might pose regarding the paths to enlightenment: How can passively sitting be a means of attaining enlightenment? Why is sitting so key to meditation? Can seated meditation be combined with other practices? How can I maintain a practice that accords with my other responsibilities in life? What sets this edition apart are the contemporary insights by modern Zen master Kosho Uchiyama Roshi, which tackle some of the difficulties readers face in comprehending Dogen's guidance and demystify some of the terms and concepts central to an understanding of zazen practice and Buddhist philosophy. He discusses the notion of dharma as presented in the text and looks at Buddhist thought through the lens not of abstraction but in terms of its concrete realities.      Manual of Zen Buddhism Daisetz Teitaro Suzuki, 1950      Dōgen's Manuals of Zen Meditation Carl

Bielefeldt, 1988-01-01 Zen Buddhism is perhaps best known for its emphasis on meditation, and probably no figure in the history of Zen is more closely associated with meditation practice than the thirteenth-century Japanese master Dogen, founder of the Soto school. This study examines the historical and religious character of the practice as it is described in Dogen's own meditation texts, introducing new materials and original perspectives on one of the most influential spiritual traditions of East Asian civilization.      Dogen's Manuals of Zen Meditation Carl Bielefeldt, 1990-08-16 Zen Buddhism is perhaps best known for its emphasis on meditation, and probably no figure in the history of Zen is more closely associated with meditation practice than the thirteenth-century Japanese master Dogen, founder of the Soto school. This study examines the historical and religious character of the practice as it is described in Dogen's own meditation texts, introducing new materials and original perspectives on one of the most influential spiritual traditions of East Asian civilization. The Soto version of Zen meditation is known as just sitting, a practice in which, through the cultivation of the subtle state of nonthinking, the meditator is said to be brought into perfect accord with the higher consciousness of the Buddha mind inherent in all beings. This study examines the historical and religious character of the practice as it is described in Dogen's own meditation texts, introducing new materials and original perspectives on one of the most influential spiritual traditions of East Asian civilization.      Zen a Manual for Westerners Shindai Sekiguchi, 1974      The Authorized Dark Zen Meditation
