Voices Of Courage Inspiration From Survivors Of Sexual Assault:

Voices of Courage Michael J. Domitz, 2005 Twelve accounts from sexual assault survivors Sexual Assault and Abuse Ann Byers, 2015-07-15 Since young women today receive conflicting and confusing messages about dating sexuality and image it is not surprising they can find themselves wondering if they've been sexually abused It is estimated that a sexual assault occurs once every two minutes That means that teens need to be aware of the many forms sexual abuse can take and the best practices for trying to prevent it This guide will help them make sense of the issue emphasizing that the victim is never to blame Readers will be armed with crucial information that will help them know what to do if it happens to them or their friends or loved ones Surviving Sexual Violence Thema Bryant-Davis, 2011-10-16 Explains the range of different sexual violations from harassment in the workplace and marital rape to sexual violence in the military and childhood sexual abuse and offers tips from experts in the field on various modes of recovery including mind body practices psychoeducation spirituality religion and journaling Incarnating Grace Julia Feder, 2023-11-07 Prioritizes survivors of abuse by reexamining Christian ideals about suffering and salvation More than half of women and almost one in three of men in the United States have experienced sexual violence at some time in their lives Yet our Christian tradition has failed survivors of sexual violence who have been taught to believe that traumatic suffering brings us closer to God Incarnating Grace attempts to save our broken ways of talking about God's grace by unearthing liberating resources buried in the Christian tradition Christian ideas about salvation have historically contributed to sexual violence in our communities by reinforcing the idea that suffering is salvific But a God worth worshiping does not want human beings to suffer Drawing on the sixteenth century Spanish mystic Teresa of Avila as well as contemporary political and feminist theologians philosophers and legal scholars author and Associate Professor of theology Julia Feder offers an account of Christian salvation as mystical political Feder begins by describing the breadth of traumatic wounding and the shape of traumatic recovery as articulated by psychologists Since the fullness of post traumatic healing requires reserves deeper than those which can be articulated by the secular field of psychology alone the book then introduces the Spanish Carmelite Saint Teresa of Avila and her theological insights which are most helpful for constructing a post traumatic theology of healing Arguing that God stands against violence and suffering the book also examines the notion of senseless suffering a technical term that comes from Edward Schillebeeckx a Catholic twentieth century Flemish priest and theologian The suffering of sexual violence serves no higher purpose or greater human value and pushes against all ways of making sense of the world as good and orderly In the following chapters Feder turns to two Christian virtues that animate post traumatic recovery courage and hope and explores how Christian hope can provide a language to empower courageous activity undertaken toward healing Incarnating Grace opens a new dialogue about salvation and violence that does not allow evil to have the last word The Men's and Women's Programs John D. Foubert, 2011-01-11 The Men's and Women's Programs Ending Rape through Peer Education is a guide for college administrators and faculty members looking to create a sexual assault prevention and education program to provide men and women with the knowledge skills and support systems needed to become active participants in the prevention of rape It contains detailed scripts which outline how to set up and implement a program and provides instructions on running a training course and recruiting peer educators Handouts and worksheets are included to assist in the training process as well as for peer educators to use when working with participants This revised version of the program features the inclusion of a program targeted at female participants as well as completely updated scripts handouts and resources Accompanying the text are two guides sold separately for peer educators to use when working with program participants The Men s Program and The Women s Program Journal of Moral Theology, Volume 9, Number 1 Christopher McMahon,2020-01-30 A Note from the Editor What Can Theology Offer Psychology Some Considerations in the Context of Depression Jessica Coblenz The Accompaniment of Psychology and Theology A Response to Jessica Coblenz Anthony H Ahrens A Force for Good When and Why Religion Predicts Prosocial Behavior Karina Schumann Haunted Salvation The Generational Consequences of Ecclesial Sex Abuse and the Conditions for Conversion Stephanie Edwards and Kimberly Humphrey The Body and Posttraumatic Healing A Teresian Approach Julia Feder What is This Hope Insights from Christian Theology and Positive Psychology Barbara Sain Christian Meaning Making through Suffering in Theology and Psychology of Religion Jason McMartin Eric Silverman M Elizabeth Lewis Hall Jamie Aten and Laura Shannonhouse White Fragility as White Epistemic Disorientation Stephen R Calme The Ontological Priority of Being a Body Beth Zagrobelny Lofgren Resilient Faithfulness A Dynamic Dialectic Between the Trans cendent and Physical Dimensions of the Human Person Christopher Krall S J The Pastoral Mystique A Feminist Ecclesiological Approach to Clergy Burnout David von Schlichten Psyche Soul and Salvation Psychology Theology and the Science of the Human and Its Place in Theology Christopher McMahon Book Reviews

Jane Doe No More M. William Phelps,Donna Palomba,2012-09-06 In 1993 Donna Palomba was raped by a masked assailant in her own home Yet her story is more than a victim s tale of physical and emotional recovery It is a story of one woman s hunt for justice while fending off attacks by institutions designed to defend and protect her the police department the local government and a community clinging to an outrageous claim that Donna had invented the crime to cover up a sexual affair From the night of the attack the botched crime scene investigation and the abuse as authorities attempted to close the case by discrediting her Donna was left as a victim with no name and no identity Meanwhile there was one courageous detective later to become chief of police who broke a cops code of silence in the name of justice As they fought on a legal battle ensued after the Waterbury Police Department now with media support refused to let go of its allegations against her and admit wrongdoing Finally after eleven years of struggle Donna learned the identity of her attacker from the chief of police who explained that the DNA from the rape kit taken a decade ago had turned up a shocking match In 2007 Donna Palomba was the subject of a special two hour Dateline episode about her case Suddenly she was Jane Doe no more launching the Jane Doe No More organization and becoming a promoter of the rights of women and victims of sexual assault With the help of crime investigator and author M William Phelps this is her story Violence Against Women Kate Burns,2008 Editor Kate Burns has selected a diverse array of primary source writings to provide your readers with a comprehensive look at violence against women Written by respected experts in the field these essays present important opinions on issues such as rape genital mutilation domestic abuse and femicide Different viewpoints are organized into a question and response format in each chapter allowing readers to easily summarize them Contains extensive book and periodical bibliographies Human Diseases and Conditions Miranda Herbert Ferrara,2010 This volume presents alphabetically arranged articles dealing with all kinds of diseases and disorders from salmonellosis to zoonoses
