The Afro-Latin@ Experience in Contemporary American Literature and Culture Jill Toliver Richardson, 2016-09-21 This book examines contemporary Afro Latin literature and its depiction of the multifaceted identity encompassing the separate identifications of Americans and the often conflicting identities of blacks and Latin@s The Afro Latin Experience in Contemporary American Literature and Culture highlights the writers aims to define Afro Latin identity to rewrite historical narratives so that they include the Afro Latin experience and to depict the search for belonging Their writing examines the Afro Latin encounter with race within the US and exposes the trauma resulting from the historical violence of colonialism and slavery Geographies of Relation Theresa Delgadillo, 2024-09-03 Geographies of Relation offers a new lens for examining diaspora and borderlands texts and performances that considers the inseparability of race ethnicity and gender in imagining and enacting social change Theresa Delgadillo crosses interdisciplinary and canonical borders to investigate the interrelationships of African descended Latinx and mestizx peoples through an analysis of Latin American Latinx and African American literature film and performance Not only does Delgadillo offer a rare extended analysis of Black Latinidades in Chicanx literature and theory but she also considers over a century's worth of literary cinematic and performative texts to support her argument about the significance of these cultural sites and overlaps. Chapters illuminate the significance of To a La Negra in the Golden Age of Mexican cinema, reconsider feminist theorist Gloria Anzaldá's work in revising exclusionary Latin American ideologies of mestizaje, delve into the racial and gender frameworks Sandra Cisneros attempts to rewrite, unpack encounters between African Americans and Black Puerto Ricans in texts by James Baldwin and Marta Moreno Vega, explore the African diaspora in colonial and contemporary Peru through Daniel Alarcón's literature and the documentary Soy Andina, and revisit the centrality of Black power in ending colonialism in Cuban narratives. Geographies of Relation demonstrates the long histories of networks and exchanges across the Americas as well as the interrelationships among Indigenous Black African American mestizx, Chicanx, and Latinx peoples. It offers a compelling argument that geographies of relation are as significant as national frameworks in structuring cultural formation and change in this hemisphere.

Queering Mesoamerican Diasporas Susy J. Zepeda, 2022-08-09. Acts of remembering offer a path to decolonization for Indigenous peoples forcibly dislocated from their culture, knowledge, and land. Susy J. Zepeda highlights the often overlooked yet intertwined legacies of Chicana feminisms and queer decolonial theory through the work of select queer Indigenous cultural producers and thinkers. By tracing the ancestries and silences of gender-nonconforming people of color, she addresses colonial forms of epistemic violence and methods of transformation. In particular, spirit research. Zepeda also uses archival materials, raised ceremonial altars, and analysis of decolonial artwork in conjunction with oral histories to explore the matriarchal roots of Chicana x and Latina x feminisms. As she shows, these feminisms are forms of knowledge that people can remember through Indigenous-centered visual narratives, cultural wisdom, and spirit practices. A fascinating exploration of hidden Indigenous histories and silences, Queering Mesoamerican Diasporas blends scholarship with spirit practices to reimagine the rootwork disconnection to land and the political decolonization of Xicana x peoples. Calling the Soul Back Christina Garcia Lopez, 2019-04-02. Spirituality has consistently been present in the political and cultural counternarratives of Chicanx literature. Calling the Soul Back focuses on the embodied aspects of a spirituality integrating body, mind, and soul. Centering the relationship between embodiment and literary narrative, Christina Garcia Lopez shows narrative as healing work through which writers and readers ritually call back the soul, one's unique immaterial essence, into union with the body, counteracting the wounding fragmentation that emerged out of colonization and imperialism. These readings feature both underanalyzed and more popular works by pivotal writers such as Gloria Anzaldá, Sandra Cisneros, and Rudolfo Anaya, in addition to works by less commonly acknowledged authors. Calling the Soul Back explores the spiritual and ancestral knowledge offered in narratives of bodies in trauma, bodies engaged in ritual grieving, bodies immersed in and becoming part of nature, and dreaming bodies. Reading across narrative nonfiction, performative monologue, short fiction, fables, illustrated children's books, and a novel, Garcia Lopez asks how these narratives draw on the embodied intersections of ways of knowing and being to shift readers consciousness regarding relationships to space time and natural environments Using an interdisciplinary approach Calling the Soul Back draws on literary and Chicana studies scholars as well as those in religious studies feminist studies sociology environmental studies philosophy and Indigenous studies to reveal narrative s healing potential to bring the soul into balance with the body and mind Mayaya Rising Dawn Duke,2023-01-13 Who are the Black heroines of Latin America and the Caribbean Where do we turn for models of transcendence among women of African ancestry in the region In answer to the historical dearth of such exemplars Mayaya Rising explores and celebrates the work of writers who intentionally center powerful female cultural archetypes In this inventive analysis Duke proposes three case studies and a corresponding womanist methodology through which to study and rediscover these figures The musical Cuban Dominican sisters and former slaves Teodora and Micaela Gin s inspired Aida Cartagena Portalatin s epic poem Yania tierra the Nicaraguan matriarch of the May Pole Miss Lizzie figures prominently in four anthologies from the country s Bluefields region and the iconic palenqueras of Cartagena Colombia are magnified in the work of poets Mar a Teresa Ram rez Neiva and Mirian D az P rez In elevating these figures and foregrounding these works Duke restores and repairs the scholarly record Channeling Knowledges Rebeca L.
