Freeman,2018-04-18 This volume teaches academics and graduate students how to write seductive academic prose by learning a literacy rarely taught in academic writing or style handbooks to use literary devices and figures of speech to meet ideals of stylish communication and how these ideals and supposed literary techniques serve academic readers and writers Part one explores the persistent problem of the bad academic writing style called academese and argues stylish academic writers avoid it by writing with figures of speech Part two teaches and illustrates figures of speech seductive writers write into academic prose to convey the music and rhythms of good speech cohesion coherence and storytelling and the personality and passions of the author Part three argues the academy will not heal itself of academese until academic writing pedagogies teach students to care enough for their readers to write with figures of speech that craft seductive academic writing

Xenotropism and the Awakening of Literary Expatriatism through Writing Memoirs Christine Velde,2016-08-03 Although there have been many discussions about challenges faced by individuals going through East to West migrations there are few literary accounts about those moving from the West to the East Yet these migrations are becoming more frequent now due to advances in technology and the fact that a writer s work can now involve an increasingly global audience One way of expressing these challenges is through writing memoirs Xenotropism and the Awakening of Literary Expatriatism through Writing Memoirs exemplifies the craft of memoirs written while living in a foreign country and explains how this is different from writing from home The book is a theoretical analysis of xenotropism based on the work of three prominent writers in China s history Emily Hahn Nien Cheng and Qiu Xiaolong The author explores the relationship between xenotropism turning towards foreign ideals and practices its complexities and challenges and the writing of a memoir and its impact on mental health This discourse will contribute to new knowledge in the field of creative writing and Asian studies by illustrating how xenotropism or turning towards foreign ideals and practices results in both personal and artistic development and builds an understanding and acceptance of different cultures within an individual These processes of change and understanding in turn facilitate the writing of a memoir which is a cathartic process having a positive effect on one s mental state Readers interested in creative writing or Asian literary studies will be able to understand the creative process behind writing memoirs from a combination of personal research based literary and theoretical perspectives How to Review Scholarly Books

Steven E. Gump,2025-06-17 A guide to the art of reviewing scholarly books with strategies and suggestions Scholarly book reviews should be enjoyable both to write and to read All too often though they offer little more than chapter by chapter summaries In this comprehensive handbook Steven Gump offers an encouraging guide to crafting valuable reviews of scholarly books in the humanities and social sciences Readers learn how to write engaging respectful reviews that make intellectual contributions of their own With extensive experience in both writing and editing scholarly book reviews Gump walks prospective reviewers through the process of selecting a book to review identifying a venue to publish the review reading and annotating the book and writing a review that is tailored to the audience of the target venue with the possibility of dissemination to popular outlets beyond the core field. Alongside this practical advice Gump offers a generous philosophy of scholarly book reviewing that considers the roles of book reviews and the responsibilities of book reviewers within the broader scholarly ecosystem. Readers learn how to uplift the voices and contributions of authors, how to prepare the next generation of reviewers including undergraduates or graduate students, and how to elevate an unjustly underestimated genre. Ultimately, this essential guide brings into renewed focus the joys of reading scholarly works engaging with intellectual ideas and writing incisively.

Reflections on Judging Richard A. Posner, 2013-10-07 For Richard Posner, legal formalism and formalist judges, notably Antonin Scalia, present the main obstacles to coping with the dizzying pace of technological advance. Posner calls for legal realism: gathering facts, considering context, and reaching a sensible conclusion that inflicts little collateral damage on other areas of the law.

Becoming the Writer You Already Are Michelle R. Boyd, 2022-10-25 This book helps scholars uncover their unique writing process and design a writing practice that fits how they work. Author Michelle R. Boyd introduces the Writing Metaphor as a reflective tool that can help you understand and overcome your writing fears, going from stuck to unstuck by drawing on skills you already have at your fingertips. She also offers an experimental approach to trying out any new writing strategy so you can easily fill out the parts of your writing process that need developing. The book is ideal for dissertation writing seminars, graduate students struggling with the transition from coursework to dissertation work, scholars who are supporting or participating in writing groups, and marginalized scholars whose writing struggles have prompted them to internalize the bias that others have about their ability to do exemplary research.

Voyager Stephen J. Pyne, 2010-07-22 A brilliant new account of the Voyager space program, its history, scientific impact, and cultural legacy. Launched in 1977, the two unmanned Voyager spacecraft have completed their Grand Tour to the four outer planets, and they are now on course to become the first man-made objects to exit our solar system. To many, this remarkable achievement is the culmination of a golden age of American planetary exploration begun in the wake of the 1957 Sputnik launch. More than this, Voyager may be one of the purest expressions of exploration in human history. For more than five hundred years, the West has been powered by the impulse to explore, to push into a wider world. In this highly original book, Stephen Pyne recasts Voyager in the tradition of Magellan, Columbus, Cook, Lewis and Clark, and other landmark explorers. The Renaissance and Enlightenment, the First and Second Ages of Discovery, sent humans across continents and oceans to find new worlds. In the Third Age, expeditions have penetrated the Antarctic ice, reached the floors of the oceans, and traveled to the planets by new means, most spectacularly via semi-autonomous robot. Voyager probes how the themes of motive and reward are stunningly parallel through all three ages. Voyager, which gave us the first breathtaking images of Jupiter and Saturn, changed our sense of our own place in the universe.

The Stark Carpathians Anthony J. Amato, 2024-01-29 The Stark Carpathians Ritual, Text, and Authority Among Ukraine's Hutsuls addresses rituals and texts in a small mountainous area located in today's Ukraine. The residents of this remote region are known as the Hutsuls. This book argues that Hutsul rituals and texts cast as ancient and extraordinary had more mundane roots They formed out of contact between the region's residents and lowland institutions and they became foundations for everyday life Words and symbolic action had an inherent tension that stemmed from contests over authority The nature of these contests was such that distant officials willful locals and diverse sources of information were often as important as collective traditions in shaping rituals and texts Prolific producers of texts Hutsuls carried on discussions that included diverse topics such as agriculture astrology mass gymnastics divine punishment and witches and vampires This volume covers these and other discussions in their small and exact particulars and it investigates texts and rituals in their fullness and irreducible complexity By crossing traditional lines of inquiry and following the region's winding trails to their divergent ends this book offers insight into a larger Hutsul world Ultimately the study of Hutsul creations informs the study of rituals and texts in many elsewheres far from the Carpathian Mountains

City of Light, City of Poison Holly Tucker, 2017-03-21 An artful reconstruction of seventeenth century Paris with riveting storytelling The New Yorker In the late 1600s Louis XIV assigns Nicolas de la Reynie to bring order to Paris after the brutal deaths of two magistrates Reynie pragmatic and fearless discovers a network of witches poisoners and priests whose reach extends all the way to the king's court at Versailles Based on court transcripts and Reynie's compulsive note taking Holly Tucker's engrossing true crime narrative makes the characters breathe on the page as she follows the police chief into the dark labyrinths of crime ridden Paris the halls of royal palaces secret courtrooms and torture chambers
