Voice In Qualitative Inquiry Challenging Conventional Interpretive And Critical Conceptions In Qualitative:

Voice in Qualitative Inquiry Alecia Y Jackson, Lisa A Mazzei, 2008-09-02 Contributors focus on the question What does it mean to work the limits of voice from theoretical methodological and interpretative positions Diffraction Ethnography Jessica Smartt Gullion, 2018-04-30 Across intellectual disciplines the ontological turn is restructuring how we think about our relationships with the natural world Influenced by the seemingly disparate realms of indigenous philosophy and quantum physics the turn invites us to think about intra actions and assemblages of human and nonhuman entities This raises epistemological questions about how we know about the world and spotlights some of the problems with how we currently do conventional social science research Diffraction Ethnography invites social scientists to consider alternate methodologies that account for the complexity of human behavior situated in larger environmental contexts For both novice and experienced researchers this thought provoking book opens new ways of thinking about methodology and raises questions about the ethical and justice orientations of our work The SAGE Handbook of Qualitative Research Norman K. Denzin, Yvonna S. Lincoln, Michael D. Giardina, Gaile S. Cannella, 2023-04-07 This new edition of the SAGE Handbook of Qualitative Research represents the sixth generation of the ongoing conversation about the discipline practice and conduct of qualitative inquiry As with earlier editions the Sixth Edition is virtually a new volume with 27 of the 34 chapters representing new topics or approaches not seen in the previous edition including intersectionality critical disability research postcolonial and decolonized knowledge diffraction and intra action social media methodologies thematic analysis collaborative inquiry from the borderlands qualitative inquiry and public health science co production and the politics of impact publishing qualitative research and academic survival Authors in the Sixth Edition engage with questions of ontology and epistemology the politics of the research act the changing landscape of higher education and the role qualitative researchers play in contributing to a more just egalitarian society To mark the Handbook s 30 year history we are pleased to offer a bonus PART VI in the eBook versions of the Sixth Edition this additional section brings together and reprints ten of the most famous or game changing contributions from the previous five editions You can bundle the print eBook version with bundle ISBN 978 1 0719 2874 5 Student Voice Handbook Gerry Czerniawski, Warren Kidd, 2011-08-18 The Student Voice movement of the United Kingdom influences discussion across various levels of education Equally international responses to Student Voice extend the debate and movement further This text locates Student Voice within wider debates around empowered citizenry and the big society Contemporary British Autoethnography Nigel P. Short, Lydia Turner, Alec Grant, 2013-11-19 This engaging informative book makes an exciting contribution to current discussions about the challenges and uses of contemporary autoethnography Authors from a range of disciplines show and tell us how they have created autoethnographies demonstrating a rich blend of theories ethical research practices and performances of identities and voice linking all of those with the socio cultural forces that impact and shape the person The book will be a useful resource for new and experienced researchers academics who teach and supervise post graduate students and practitioners in social science who are seeking meaningful ways to conduct research This should be required reading for all qualitative research training

Disclosing Childhoods Spyros Spyrou, 2018-04-17 Disclosing Childhoods offers a critical account of knowledge production in childhood studies The book argues for the need to be reflexive about the knowledge practices of the field and to scrutinize the role of researchers in disclosing certain childhoods rather than others A relational lens is used to critique the ongoing fixation of childhood studies with the unitary child agent and to re introduce the question of ontology in knowledge production The author provides a critical account of childhood studies trajectory as well as exploring the key concepts of voice agency and participation illustrating the potential of a reflexive stance towards knowledge production Drawing on poststructuralist and posthumanist thinking each of these concepts is critiqued for its conceptual limits while productive avenues are offered to reconfigure their utility Spyrou also addresses the ethics and politics of knowledge production and considers key emerging insights which can contribute towards the development of a more reflexive and critical childhood studies Students and scholars across a range of disciplines including childhood studies anthropology sociology and geography will find this book of interest as well as those interested in qualitative research methodology and social theory

Interpretation in Qualitative Research Karin Murris, Mirka Koro, 2025-12-23 Interpretation in Qualitative Research Key Concepts in Qualitative Research is an edited collection that makes a methodological contribution to the conceptual connections around with for to interpretation and it offers contemporary concept provocations to the literature on interpretation Written for advanced undergraduate and early postgraduate students as well as researchers seeking an entry point into a new area of study it provides an introductory understanding of the key concept of interpretation in qualitative and postqualitative research across disciplines while working both with and against diverse interpretative traditions This book touches upon different roles functions and reconfigurations of interpretation in post qualitative research and in different transdisciplinary theoretical and geopolitical contexts Short creatively crafted entries connect interpretation to its historical discursive and methodological roots while revisioning and reconfiguring what futures and becomings of interpretation might be like Interpretation in Qualitative Research can be used as a main text for introduction to qualitative research courses and advanced courses focusing on interpretation or interpretive sciences It could also be used as a supplementary textbook for qualitative and postqualitative method courses including data collection and research design courses

Thinking with Theory in Qualitative Research Alecia Y. Jackson, Lisa A. Mazzei, 2022-07-29 Thinking with Theory in Qualitative Research Second Edition demonstrates how to enact various philosophical concepts in practices of inquiry effectively opening up the process of thought in qualitative studies Thinking with Theory in Qualitative Research functions as a refusal of pre-given method intensifying creativity experimentation and newness Readers are invited into the threshold of theory to traverse philosophers and their concepts reorienting conventional approaches to inquiry Each chapter presents a thinking with process as a way of reading intensively through plugging in performative accounts of two first generation academic women to philosophical concepts from Derrida Spivak Foucault Butler Barad and Deleuze and Guattari This book is a deliberate attempt to unsettle what is expected to be represented or recognized in terms of both meaning and method in traditional practices of qualitative research which become unproductive and untenable in this different image of thought New to this edition Fully revised and rewritten Chapter 1 that introduces the technique of plugging in as contingent strategic movements of thought Also new to Chapter 1 is a shift in language away from traditional practices in qualitative research data and analysis to performative accounts and becoming questions Fully revised Thinking with intra action chapter which focuses on Karen Barad s ontoepistemological framework of agential realism and the concepts of posthumanist performativity and entangled agencies Fully revised and rewritten Chapter 8 that presents plugging in and thinking with as ontological Further development of and new material on the plugging in technique Schematic cues updated and extended for all of the Interludes In the ten years since the first edition was published Thinking with Theory in Qualitative Research has become a vanguard text in the field of postfoundational inquiry for its accessible but thorough introductions to philosophically informed inquiry This book is for experienced and novice researchers and students in introductory general and advanced qualitative inquiry courses who may also be first time readers of philosophy This text will function as an entry into techniques of thinking with a new theoretical vocabulary

Interpretive Autoethnography Norman K. Denzin, 2013-10-24 It is time to chart a new course writes Norman K Denzin in Interpretive Autoethnography Second Edition I want to turn the traditional life story biographical project into an interpretive autoethnographic project into a critical performative practice a practice that begins with the biography of the writer and moves outward to culture discourse history and ideology Drawing on C Wright Mills Sartre and Derrida Denzin lays out the key assumptions terms and parameters of autoethnography provides a guide to using and studying personal experience and considers the dilemmas and political implications of textualizing a life He weaves his narrative through family stories and concludes with thoughts concerning a performance centered pedagogy and the directions concerns and challenges for autoethnography

Theory and Methods for Public Pedagogy Research Karen

Charman, Mary Dixon, 2021-03-08 Theory and Methods for Public Pedagogy Research introduces promising new methods of public pedagogy research centered around transforming rather than explaining knowledge. The new methods are premised on a new theorisation of public pedagogy which recognises the educative agent. The agency of the public to speak to be heard to know is manifest as the educative agent speaks their knowledge and the researcher must be attentive to that speaking. This work extends the well established intellectual projects in the field to introduce four new methods for public pedagogy research: organisation, performance, curation and researcher. A key focus of this work is attending to how the circulation of knowledge in non formal settings can be recognised. It examines the under published area of pedagogy and research in public spaces and engages post qualitative approaches to inquiry to open up the field. Moreover it explores the possibility of performances, art exhibitions and museums as public spaces of knowledge generation and pedagogy. It also shows how research can be applied in practice in public pedagogy to discover best practices for working in these spaces. Finally it confronts and critiques the dilemmas of public pedagogy research and the limits of research methods which have previously been deployed in this field. This book will be of interest to researchers and students in the field of public education and teaching in a variety of social science and arts disciplines and education.

Narratives and Reflections in Music Education

Tawnya D. Smith, Karin S. Hendricks, 2020-02-03 This volume offers chapters written by some of the most respected narrative and qualitative inquiry writers in the field of music education. The authorship and scope are international and the chapters advance the philosophical, theoretical and methodological bases of narrative inquiry in music education and the arts. The book contains two sections each with a specific aim. The first is to continue and expand upon dialogue regarding narrative inquiry in music education, emphasizing how narrative involves the art of listening to and hearing others whose voices are often unheard. The chapters invite music teachers and scholars to experience and confront music education stories from multiple perspectives and worldviews, inviting an international readership to engage in critical dialogue with and about marginalized voices in music. The second section focuses on ways in which narrative might be represented beyond the printed page, such as with music film, photography and performative pieces. This section includes philosophical discussions about arts based and aesthetic inquiry as well as examples of such work.

Handbook of Arts-Based Research Patricia Leavy, 2025-01-31

Bringing together interdisciplinary leaders in methodology and arts based research, ABR, this comprehensive handbook explores the synergies between artistic and research practices and addresses issues in designing, implementing, evaluating and publishing ABR studies. Coverage includes the full range of ABR genres including those based in literature such as narrative and poetic inquiry, performance, music, dance, playbuilding, visual arts, drawing and painting, collage, installation, art, comics and audiovisual and multimethod approaches. Each genre is described in detail and brought to life with robust research examples. Team approaches, ethics and public scholarship are discussed as are innovative ways that ABR is used within creative arts.
