Voice Of An Exile Reflections On Islam:

Voice of an Exile Nasr Abu Zaid, Esther Ruth Nelson, 2004-03-30 In 1995 Ayman al Zawahiri a prominent terrorist figure recently associated with Al Queda and al Jihad issued a bounty against Dr Nasr Abu Zaid a respected Islamic scholar at Cairo University What was Zaid s offense Arguing that Islam s holy texts should be interpreted in the historical and linguistic context of their time and that new interpretations should account for social change His controversial claim that the Qur an be interpreted metaphorically rather than literally further enraged fundamentalists Labeled an apostate by the Cairo court of appeals his life was threatened and he was forced to flee to the Netherlands with his wife A professor of Arabic and Islamic studies at Leiden University in his adopted country this progressive Islamic scholar insists that change is still possible and that new understandings of Islam can be accepted and advanced Forgoing claims that Islam is a violent religion Zaid shows us that above all justice and obedience lies at the heart of the Qur an At the outset of this book we find Zaid growing up in Quhafa a village in northern Egypt Islam gives meaning and definition to his life As he matures we see him sorting through Egypt s various political developments and upheavals Zaid carefully weaves such developments into the events of his own life his father s death raising his younger siblings attending Cairo University his study abroad his marriages the events leading to his exile and his visit to Egypt after a seven year absence Through it all we see him advancing in his academic career and applying new skills to his study and interpretation of the Qur an He wrestles with subjects such as polygamy wife beating inheritance and the practice of usury in Islamic cultures He asserts and illustrates that Islam must be separate from the State in order to protect the religion from political manipulation Zaid s personal story and academic pursuits reflecting the social reality of the broader culture offer new perspectives on Islam and provide hope to Muslims who feel their religion has been misrepresented and misunderstood

Religious Secularity Naser Ghobadzadeh, 2014-11-03 Fundamentalism and authoritarian secularism are commonly perceived as the two mutually exclusive paradigms available to Muslim majority countries Recent political developments however have challenged this perception Formerly associated with a fundamentalist outlook mainstream Islamist groups such as the Muslim Brotherhood and Al Nahda have adopted a distinctly secular democratic approach to the state re building process Their success or failure in transitioning to democracy remains to be seen but the political position these Islamic groups have carved out suggests the viability of a third way Naser Ghobadzadeh examines the case of Iran which has a unique history with respect to the relationship of religion and politics The country has been subject to both authoritarian secularization and authoritarian Islamization over the last nine decades While politico religious discourse in Iran is articulated in response to the Islamic state it also bears the scars of Iran s history of authoritarian secularization the legacy of the Pahlavi regime Ghobadzadeh conceptualizes this politico religious discourse as religious secularity He uses this apparent oxymoron to describe the Islamic quest for a democratic secular state and he demonstrates how this concept encapsulates the complex characteristics of the Shiite religious reformation movement

Seeds of Conflict in a Haven of Peace Frans Jozef Servaas Wijzen, 2007 On 7 August 1998 the American embassies in Nairobi and Dar es Salaam were bombed and 200 people lost their lives These bombings shattered the image of Africa's tradition of peaceful religious coexistence Since then inter religious dialogue has been high on the agendas of ecclesial and religious organisations but not so much of faculties of theology and departments of religion in East Africa This book investigates why this is so How are interreligious relations dealt with in Africa and more particularly how are they and how should they be taught in institutions of higher learning This book is based on fieldwork in Nairobi from 2001 onwards It shows why Africa's tradition of peaceful co existence is not going to help Africa in the 21st century and recommends a shift in the education in inter religious relations from religions studies to inter religious studies

Beyond Modernity Mohammed Moussa, Emi Goto, 2023-10-30 A contest is afoot in Muslim discourses around the world in the twenty first century Prevalent norms and acts are subject to competing motivations trends and forces The image of a monolithic Islam is thus wholly inadequate to identify and interpret the different expressions of Muslim thought and practice in their specific yet connected contexts This book proposes competing and persuasive perspectives for interpreting what Muslims say do and think in collective settings or in the light of common frames of reference The chapters contained in this book reflect a diversity of disciplines and interests Nonetheless a common thread of the preoccupation with meanings in context unites the contributors and the approaches to their chosen examples Islam is not a discrete category that is taken for granted Instead the cacophony of voices in the Muslim world situated in specific contexts variously national regional or global is allowed to inform each chapter Here one encounters contemporary Muslims participating in discourses with a contested character that create opportunities to augment or question orthodox dictates or transmit or alter existing beliefs and practices What emerges are nuanced portraits of contemporary Muslim thought and practice that reveal a far from monolithic Islam to which all things Islamic can be reduced

A World of Inequalities Lucinda Mosher, 2021-02-16 In this volume leading Christian and Muslim scholars respond to the global crisis of inequality by demanding and modeling interreligious dialogue Essays explore the roots of these realities how they are treated in Christian and Muslim traditions and texts and how the two faiths can work together to address inequality

Islamic Doctrines and Political Liberalism Gozde Hussain, 2024-11-13 This book delves into the compatibility of Islam with liberal values engaging in a comparative analysis of Islamic moral language and John Rawls's liberal democratic ideas Rawls a prominent modern liberal political philosopher posits that diverse moral and religious doctrines in a pluralistic society should align with the principles of a liberal democratic political culture The author shares Rawls's assumptions and maps out a spectrum of Islamic orthodoxy positions to assess the plausibility of reconciling Islamic doctrines with a liberal political order While acknowledging that such compatibility is not the mainstream outlook the book argues that it's feasible through reasonable interpretations of Islamic sources The central question addressed is the realism of observant Muslims endorsing a liberal democratic state from within their doctrinal tradition By examining a range of Islamic orthodoxy positions the book demonstrates that Muslims can theoretically find Islamic reasons rooted in acceptable interpretations of divine sources to justify their commitment to a liberal state Furthermore it provides moral reasons and strategies for the liberal state to address incompatible Islamic doctrines ensuring Muslims can maintain religious practices without an Islamic political authority This theoretical framework offers insights for future empirical and theoretical studies on Muslims navigating pluralistic liberal societies making it a vital contribution to the discourse on Islam and liberalism

Contemporary Qur'ānic Hermeneutics Georges Tamer, 2025-03-31 This project presents the hermeneutical approaches to the Qur'n of the most prominent Qur'nic scholars in Islamic intellectual history Not only scholars who wrote commentaries on the Qur'n in the narrow sense of the word taf's'r are to be presented but also those who dealt hermeneutically with the Qur'n in various ways The Handbook of Qur'nic Hermeneutics is the first book that discusses all the hermeneutical fields of the Qur'n It will be published in seven volumes

Contemporary Perspectives on Revelation and Qu'ranic Hermeneutics Ali Akbar, 2019-11-27 A number of innovative hermeneutical approaches emerged in Muslim exegetical discourse in the second half of the 20th century Among these developments is a trend of systematic reform theology that emphasises a humanistic approach whereby revelation is understood to be dependent not only upon its initiator God but also upon its recipient Prophet Muhammad who takes an active role in the process Ali Akbar examines the works of four noted scholars of Islam Fazlur Rahman Pakistan Abdolkarim Soroush Iran Muhammad Mujtahed Shabestari Iran and Nasr Hamid Abu Zayd Egypt His study shows that the consequences of taking a humanistic approach to understanding revelation are not confined to the realm of speculation about God human relations but also to interpreting Qur'ānic socio-political precepts And the four scholars emerge as a distinctive group of Muslim thinkers who open up a new horizon in contemporary Islamic discourse

Gender Hierarchy in the Qur'ān Karen Bauer, 2015-06-09 This book explores Muslim interpretations of Qur'nic verses on gender roles in testimony human creation and marriage Karen Bauer traces the evolution of these interpretations showing how they have been adopted adapted rejected or replaced over time by comparing the Qur'n with a wide range of Qur'nic commentaries and interviews

Being in the World Fred Dallmayr, 2013-05-01 It is commonly agreed that we live in an age of globalization but the profound consequences of this development are rarely understood Usually globalization is equated with the expansion of economic and financial markets and the proliferation of global networks of communication In truth much more is at stake Traditional concepts of individual and national identity as well as perceived relationships between the self and others are undergoing profound change Every town has become a potential cosmopolis an international city affecting the way that people conceptualize the relationship between public order and political practice In Being in the World noted political theorist Fred Dallmayr explores the globe's transition from the traditional Westphalian system of states to today's interlocking cosmopolitan network Drawing upon sacred scriptures as well as the work of ancient philosophers such as Plato and Aristotle and more recent scholars such as Martin Heidegger

Hans Georg Gadamer and Raimon Panikkar this book delves into what Dallmayr calls being in the world seen as an aspect of ethical political engagement Rather than lamenting current problems he suggests addressing them through civic education and cosmopolitan citizenship Dallmayr advocates a politics of the common good which requires the cultivation of public ethics open dialogue and civic responsibility Towards the Dignity of Difference? Mojtaba Mahdavi,2016-02-24 The rise of popular social movements throughout the Middle East North Africa Europe and North America in 2011 challenged two hegemonic discourses of the post Cold War era Francis Fukuyama s The End of History and Samuel Huntington s The Clash of Civilizations The quest for genuine democracy and social justice and the backlash against the neoliberal order is a common theme in the global mass protests in the West and the East This is no less than a discursive paradigm shift a new beginning to the history a move towards new alternatives to the status quo This book is about difference and dialogue it embraces The Dignity of Difference and promotes dialogue However it also demonstrates the limits of dialogue as a useful and universal approach for resolving conflicts particularly in cases involving asymmetric and unequal power relations The distinguished group of authors suggests in this volume that there is a third way of addressing global tensions one that rejects the extremes of both universalism and particularism This third way is a radical call for an epistemic shift in our understanding of us other and good evil a radical approach toward accommodating difference as well as embracing the plural concept of the good The authors strengthen their alternative approach with a practical policy guide by challenging existing policies that either exclude or assimilate other cultures that wage the constructed global war on terror and that impose a western neo liberal discourse on non western societies This important book will be essential reading for all those studying civilizations globalization foreign policy peace and security studies multiculturalism and ethnicity regionalism global governance and international political economy Trade and Enterprise Gad Gilbar,2022-10-31 Until recently the historiography of Middle Eastern economic elites during the first globalization has ignored the significant role played by Muslim tujj r big merchant entrepreneurs Foreign firms and local minorities were considered the prime agents of economic change and the initiators of economic growth The 12 studies in this volume show that the Muslim tujj r played a major economic role in various regions of the Middle East during the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Their investments mainly in commercial agriculture resulted in economic growth and changed economic structures and social relations in many Middle Eastern communities They were also involved in political developments some of which had a dramatic effect on the history of their countries as for instance in late Qajar Iran They also played a unique role in the process of cultural change Although they supported the ulam financially they also contributed to the establishment of new educational and cultural institutions The story of the tujj r is unique in the sense that it was the only indigenous elite group in the pre World War I Middle East to bridge between traditional forces and concepts and Western attitudes and practices CS 1108 Arabic Thought beyond the Liberal Age Jens Hanssen,Max Weiss,2016-12-22 A fundamental overhaul of modern Arab intellectual history reassessing cultural production and political thought in the light of current scholarship

A Muslim Reformist in Communist Yugoslavia
 Sejad Mekić, 2016-07-01 A Muslim Reformist in Communist Yugoslavia examines the Islamic modernist thought of Husein ozo a prominent Balkan scholar Born at a time when the external challenges to the Muslim world were many and its internal problems both complex and overwhelming ozo made it his goal to reinterpret the teachings of the Qur an and had th prophetic tradition to a generation for whom the truths and realities of Islam had fallen into disuse As a Muslim scholar who lived and worked in a European communist multi cultural and multi religious society Husein ozo and his work present us with a particularly exciting account through which to examine the innovative interpretations of Islam For example through a critical analysis of ozo s most significant fatw s and other relevant materials this book examines the extent of the inherent flexibility of the Islamic law and its ability to respond to Muslim interests in different socio political conditions Since ozo s writings in general and his fatw s in particular have continued to be published in the Balkan lands up to the present this monograph should help shed some light on certain assumptions underlying modern Islamic thought and consciousness found in the region

Teaching Politically May Hawas, Bruce Robbins, 2025-07-01 Culture is inextricable from politics This includes the politics of who we are as teachers intellectuals writers cultural workers and students and what we want to bring to and take from the site of instruction It also includes the politics of who we want to be as citizens professionals and active contributors to our communities and to the world in general and what we can be realistically in the particular contexts in which we live Teaching Politically addresses some of the political constraints that shape our pedagogical spaces especially in the teaching of literature The book brings together a global group of academics activists public intellectuals poets and novelists to examine the way politics manifest pedagogically and how a commitment to educating manifests politically in and beyond the classroom At the heart of the discussion is how political and professional paradigms chafe against intersect with or otherwise become inseparable from each other in any vocation that attempts to educate from writing journalism and public speaking to art activism and medicine Contributors Dimitris Christopoulos Dimitri Dimoulis Khaled Fahmy Rishi Goyal May Hawas Bonnie Honig Mona Kareem Benjamin Mangrum Nora Parr Bruce Robbins Ahdaf Soueif Omid Tofighian Elahe Zivardar

Future of Blasphemy Austin Dacey, 2012-01-26 Critical examination of the contemporary debates in Europe and the international community over incitement to religious hatred and the defamation of religions

Horizons of Difference
 Fred Dallmayr, 2020-10-31 In his latest book Horizons of Difference Engaging with Others Fred Dallmayr argues that the dialogue between religious and secular commitments between faith and reason is particularly important in our time because both faith and reason can give rise to dangerous and destructive types of extremism fanaticism or idolatry In this interdisciplinary and cross cultural synthesis of philosophy religious thought and political theory Dallmayr neither accepts the clash of cultures dichotomy nor denies the reality of cultural tensions Instead operating from the standpoint of philosophical hermeneutics he embraces cultural difference as a necessary condition and opportunity for mutual cross cultural dialogue and learning In part 1 Relationality and Difference Dallmayr explores the emergence of diverse loyalties and attachments in different social and cultural contexts The assumption is not that different commitments are necessarily synchronized or naturally compatible but rather that they are held together precisely by their difference and potential antagonism Part 2 Engagement through Dialogue and Interaction dwells on the major means of mediating between the alternatives of radical separation and radical sameness dialogue and hermeneutical interpretation of understanding In this respect the emphasis shifts to leading philosophers of dialogue such as Hans Georg Gadamer Bernhard Waldenfels and Maurice Merleau Ponty In a world where the absolutizing of the ego encourages selfish egotism that can lead to aggressive warmongering Horizons of Difference shows how the categories of difference and relationality can be used to build a genuine and peaceful democracy based on dialogue and interaction instead of radical autonomy and elitism

The Qur'an and Modern Arabic Literary Criticism Mohammad Salama,2018-05-17 In The Qur'an and Modern Arabic Literary Criticism Mohammad Salama navigates the labyrinthine semantics that underlie this sacred text and inform contemporary scholarship The book presents reflections on Quranic exegesis by explaining and distinguishing between interpretation and explication While the book focuses on Quranic and literary scholarship in twentieth century Egypt from Taha Husayn to Nasr Hamid Abu Zayd it also engages with an immense tradition of scholarship from the classical period to the present including authors such as Abu Ubayda Ibn Abbas al Razi and al Tabari Salama argues that over the centuries the Arabic language experienced semantic and phonological shifts creating a lacuna in understanding the Qur'an and bringing contemporary readers under the spell of hermeneutical and parochial interpretations He demonstrates that while this lacuna explains much of the intellectual poverty of traditionalist approaches to Quranic exegesis the work of the modern Egyptian school of academics marks a sharp departure from the programmed conservatism of Islamist and Salafi exegetics Through analyses of the writings of these intellectuals the author shows that a fresh look at the sources and a revolutionary attempt to approach the Qur'an could render tradition itself an impetus for an alternative aesthetics contextual open and unfolding

The West at War Bradley C. S. Watson,2006-08-17 In The West at War Bradley C S Watson brings together renowned scholars and public policy experts to reflect on perhaps the most pressing problem of our time the West's increasingly bloody conflict with forces that seek nothing less than its destruction In eleven provocative chapters contributors deal with the internal challenges and external conflicts facing Western civilization in the context of the war on terror Ranging from the nature of Islam and the West to ethics and terror to the western way of warfare the volume deals thematically with major issues raised by this conflict in a way that no other single volume does Contributors bring to bear arguments on the philosophic political religious ethical and policy dimensions of the war As the title of the book suggests this conflict implicates all of Western civilization demonstrating that this not merely an American concern

Contemporary Approaches to the Qur'an and its Interpretation in Iran Ali Akbar,Abdullah Saeed,2019-10-24 This book sets out how contemporary Iranian scholars have approached the Qur'an during recent decades. It particularly aims to explore the contributions of scholars that have emerged in the post 1979 revolution era, outlining their primary interpretive methods and foundational theories regarding the reading of the Qur'an. Examining issues such as the status of women, democracy, freedom of religion, and human rights, this book analyses the theoretical contributions of several Iranian scholars, some of which are new to the English-speaking academy. The hermeneutical approaches of figures such as Abdolkarim Soroush, Muhammad Mojtahed Shabestari, Mohsen Kadivar, Hasan Yousefi Eshkevari, Abolqasem Fanaie, and Mostafa Malekian are presented and then analysed to demonstrate how a contextualist approach to the Qur'an has been formed in response to the influence of Western Orientalism. The effect of this approach to the Qur'an is then shown to have wide-ranging effects on Iranian society. This study reveals Qur'anic thought that has been largely overlooked by the West. It will therefore be of great use to academics in Religious, Islamic, and Qur'anic studies, as well as those studying the culture of Iran and the Middle East more generally.

Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Voice Of An Exile Reflections On Islam : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and gripping novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
