Voices From The Underground For The Love Of Animals:

Voices from the Underground Michael Tobias,1999 Documents the human abuse exploitation and cruelty towards animals and profiles people who have worked on behalf of animal welfare including Gene and Lorri Bauston of Farm Animal Sanctuary Ingrid Newkirk and Alex Pacheco founders of PETA Christine Stevens and her Animal Welfare Institute and Rod Coronado jailed for his animal liberation activities Minding Animals Marc Bekoff,2002-05-02 Thinking bees ice skating buffaloes dreaming rats happy foxes ecstatic elephants despondent dolphins in Minding Animals Marc Bekoff takes us on an exhilarating tour of the emotional and mental world of animals where we meet creatures who do amazing things and whose lives are filled with mysteries Following in the footsteps of Konrad Lorenz and Niko Tinbergen Bekoff has spent the last 30 years studying animals of every stripe from coyotes in Wyoming to penguins in Antarctica He draws on this vast experience as well as on the observations of other naturalists to offer readers fascinating stories of animal behavior including grooming and gossip self medication feeding patterns dreaming dominance and mating behavior Many of these stories are truly incredible chimpanzees medicating themselves with herbal remedies elephants clearly mourning a dead group member but this is not simply a catalog of amazing animal tales for Bekoff also sheds light on many of the more serious issues surrounding animals He offers a thought provoking look at animal cognition intelligence and consciousness and he presents vivid examples of animal passions highlighting the deep emotional lives of our animal kin All this serves as background for his thoughtful conclusions about humility and animal protection and animal well being where he urges a new paradigm of respect grace compassion and love for all animals Marc Bekoff has gone deep into the minds hearts spirits and souls of animals giving him profound insight into their lives and no small insight into ours Minding Animals is an important contribution to our understanding of animal consciousness a major work that will be a must read for anyone who loves nature

Animals and Ethics - Third Edition Angus Taylor,2009-05-27 Can animals be regarded as part of the moral community To what extent if at all do they have moral rights Are we wrong to eat them hunt them or use them for scientific research Can animal liberation be squared with the environmental movement Taylor traces the background of these debates from Aristotle to Darwin and sets out the views of numerous contemporary philosophers including Peter Singer Tom Regan Mary Anne Warren J Baird Callicott and Martha Nussbaum with ethical theories ranging from utilitarianism to eco feminism The new edition also includes provocative quotations from some of the major writers in the field As the final chapter insists animal ethics is more than just an academic question it is intimately connected both to our understanding of what it means to be human and to pressing current issues such as food shortages environmental degradation and climate change Brutal Brian Luke,2007 Explores the gender divide over our treatment of animals exposing the central role of masculinity in systems of animal exploitation including hunting Luke develops a new theory of how exploitative institutions do not work to promote human flourishing but instead merely act as support for a particular construction of manhood from publisher description

People Promoting and People Opposing Animal Rights John M. Kistler, 2002-11-30 What is the difference between animal rights and animal welfare What inspires people to take on the different causes of non human animals How do people vary in their views on the rights of animals Students will be encouraged to think critically as they discover there are no black and white answers to these and other questions This fascinating collection of profiles is written by and about those who are actively involved in the pro con aspects of the animal rights and animal welfare movements Over 35 individual stories written by those who are on the frontlines fighting for what they believe bring the controversies surrounding animal rights and welfare into sharp focus The same interview questions were asked of each participant Readers will enjoy the personal element of these profiles while discovering the similarities and differences among those involved in these movements An introduction to the volume provides students with the definitions and background information they need to clearly understand the entries that follow and to encourage them to question what they read and to draw their own conclusions

Animals Matter Marc Bekoff, 2007-11-13 Nonhuman animals have many of the same feelings we do They get hurt they suffer they are happy and they take care of each other Marc Bekoff a renowned biologist specializing in animal minds and emotions guides readers from high school age up including older adults who want a basic introduction to the topic in looking at scientific research philosophical ideas and humane values that argue for the ethical and compassionate treatment of animals Citing the latest scientific studies and tackling controversies with conviction he zeroes in on the important questions inviting reader participation with thought experiments and ideas for action Among the questions considered Are some species more valuable or more important than others Do some animals feel pain and suffering and not others Do animals feel emotions Should endangered animals be reintroduced to places where they originally lived Should animals be kept in captivity Are there alternatives to using animals for food clothing cosmetic testing and dissection in the science classroom What can we learn by imagining what it feels like to be a dog or a cat or a mouse or an ant What can we do to make a difference in animals quality of life Bekoff urges us not only to understand and protect animals especially those whose help we want for our research and other human needs but to love and respect them as our fellow beings on this planet that we all want to share in peace

Animal Rights John M. Kistler, 2000-06-30 Introductions to each chapter explain the issues as well as the arguments that surround them and a general introduction to the volume thoroughly explains how to use the book Each entry contains the following information author title edition series title location of publisher name of publisher number of pages year of publication and International Standard Book Number Annotations include the most important information available to help the researcher including web sites that contain not only the full text of the book when available but also excerpts and articles or interviews by the author short quotations from the books and short descriptions and summaries of the books All the information provided allows students to locate exactly what they need while encouraging them to explore other issues and differing viewpoints

Animals and Ethics Angus Taylor, 2003-05-12 A previous edition of this book

appeared under the title Magpies Monkeys and Morals The new edition has been updated throughout Substantial new material has been added to the text including discussions of virtue ethics and Rawlsian contractarianism The bibliography has been significantly enlarged and now includes more than five hundred entries

William D. Crump,2019-04-18 Since the early 20th century animated Christmas cartoons have brightened the holiday season around the world first in theaters then on television From devotional portrayals of the Nativity to Santa battling villains and monsters this encyclopedia catalogs more than 1 800 international Christmas themed cartoons and others with year end themes of Hanukkah Kwanzaa and the New Year Explore beloved television specials such as A Charlie Brown Christmas theatrical shorts such as Santa s Workshop holiday episodes from animated television series like American Dad and The Simpsons feature films like The Nutcracker Prince and obscure productions such as The Insects Christmas along with numerous adaptations and parodies of such classics as A Christmas Carol and Twas the Night before Christmas Animal Narratives and Culture Anna Barcz,2017-03-07 The term vulnerable realism can imply two different understandings one presenting weak realism as incomplete and mixed with other literary styles the other bringing realistic vulnerable experience into narration The second is the key concern of this work though it does not exclude the first as it asks questions about realism as such entering into a polemic with the tradition of literary realism Realism then is not primarily understood as a narrative style but as a narration that tests the probability of nonhuman vulnerable experience and makes it real The book consists of three parts The first presents examples of how realism has been redefined in trauma studies and how it may refer to animal experience The second explores what is added to the narrative by literature including the animal perspective the zoonarrative and how it is conducted zoocriticism The third analyses cultural texts such as painting circuses and memorials which realistically generate animal vulnerability and provide non anthropocentric frameworks anchoring our knowledge in the experience of fragile historical reality

Voice in the Wilderness Michael Austin, 2006-08-15 In her writings Terry Tempest Williams repeatedly invites us as readers into engagement and conversation with both her and her subject matter whether it is nature or society environment or art From her evocation in Desert Quartet An Erotic Landscape of an eroticism of place that defines erotic as in relation to the spiritual connectivity and familial bonds she explores in Refuge An Unnatural History of Family and Place and the political engagement she urges in The Open Space of Democracy much of her work is about relationship connection and community Like much good writing her books invite readers into thoughtful dialogue with the text Frequently in demand for workshops lectures and other speaking venues and well known as an environmental activist Williams has a public persona and voice almost indistinguishable from her written ones Thus the interviews she has often granted in print on the radio on the Web seamlessly elaborate the ideas and extend the explorations of her written texts They also tell us much about the genesis context and intent of her books With her distinctive impassioned voice and familiar felicity of language she talks about wilderness and wildlife place and eroticism art and literature democracy and politics family and heritage Mormonism and religion writing and creativity and other subjects that engage her agile mind The set of interviews gathered and introduced by Michael Austin in A Voice in the Wilderness represent the span of Terry Tempest Williams's career as a naturalist author and activist

A Voice of the Warm Barry Alfonso, 2019-06-28 In his 1960s 1970s heyday Rod McKuen was a phenomenally popular singer songwriter as well as the bestselling poet in publishing history To his legions of fans around the world he was a voice of compassion and healing as much a prophet as an author entertainer McKuen songs like If You Go Away and Jean earned him massive hits while books like Listen to the Warm sold millions of copies McKuen's huge sales and devoted following didn't stop the critics from calling his work sentimental kitsch cranked out for the money Who was this enigmatic artist who aroused so much love and hatred A Voice of the Warm The Life of Rod McKuen is the first ever biography of one of the 20th century's most popular and misunderstood pop culture icons Drawing upon extensive research and over 100 interviews author Barry Alfonso tells how McKuen overcame childhood physical and sexual abuse to become a teenage radio host film actor and Beat style poet before connecting with a vast audience as a writer and recording artist McKuen's role as a pioneering gay rights activist who bridged the 60s generation gap with a message of love and tolerance help to make his story uniquely relevant today

The Woman's Voice Patsy

Rodenburg,2023-02-09 Why are so many women still not properly listened to Why do they sometimes feel that they re less interesting than they are Why do they often rush when they speak Why do some women feel the pressure to sound like little girls From one of the world s leading experts on the voice comes this call to arms for women to reclaim their voices Using elements of experience and practice from her prolific career Patsy Rodenburg examines these questions and many more to decipher what lies at the heart of female empowerment From the age of four Rodenburg knew that she found communication difficult Her struggle with her own voice set her on the journey that led her to discover her vocation She has spent her life re finding and re empowering voices particularly the lost voices of women Watching her highly intelligent working class mother and grandmother ignored and often silenced gave her the insight to investigate why that was and how to help women overcome this centuries old issue With warmth and humour Rodenburg interrogates Shakespeare s texts and his presentation of female characters develops the notion of rhetoric in relation to the female voice and applies concepts explored in her previous books including The Three Circles of Energy And perhaps most crucially through arguing that power and voice are directly linked to breath Rodenburg makes the case that Western society s oppression of women has diminished their natural ability to breathe Exploring the female voice through practical exercises and stories from the front line as well as profoundly personal and formative experiences from her own life Rodenburg defines the art of accessing the voice within and reclaiming the woman s right to speak The Woman s Voice is also available in audiobook format from audiobook retailers A Voice in the Wilderness Michael Austin,2006-08-15 In her writings Terry Tempest Williams repeatedly invites us as readers into engagement and conversation with both her and her subject matter whether it is nature or society environment or art From her evocation in Desert Quartet An Erotic Landscape of an eroticism of place that defines erotic as in relation to the spiritual connectivity and familial bonds she explores in Refuge An Unnatural History of Family and Place and the political engagement she urges in The Open Space of Democracy much of her work is about relationship connection and community Like much good writing her books invite readers into thoughtful dialogue with the text Frequently in demand for workshops lectures and other speaking venues and well known as an environmental activist Williams has a public persona and voice almost indistinguishable from her written ones Thus the interviews she has often granted in print on the radio on the Web seamlessly elaborate the ideas and extend the explorations of her written texts They also tell us much about the genesis context and intent of her books With her distinctive impassioned voice and familiar felicity of language she talks about wilderness and wildlife place and eroticism art and literature democracy and politics family and heritage Mormonism and religion writing and creativity and other subjects that engage her agile mind The set of interviews gathered and introduced by Michael Austin in A Voice in the Wilderness represent the span of Terry Tempest Williams s career as a naturalist author and activist Our Animals ,1928
