Traditional Weavers Of Guatemala Their Stories Their Lives:

Traditional Weavers of Guatemala Deborah Chandler, Teresa Córdón, Joe Coca, 2015-09-01 Against the backdrop of Guatemala this book presents portraits of artisans working in the ancient traditions of the Maya paired with insights into the creation of the textiles and the events that have affected their work Weaving spinning and basket making have sustained the Maya economically and culturally against the pressures of change and a 36 year civil war that decimated their population Their persistence in continuing traditional art has created some of the loveliest most colorful textiles the world has ever known Artisans share their personal histories hopes and dreams along with the products of their hands and looms Their stories show determination in the face of unimaginable loss and hardship which instill an appreciation for the textiles themselves and for the strong people who create them Guatemala Sean Sheehan, Magdalene Koh, Alex

Tessman, 2018-04-15 A land of extremes from active volcanic peaks to dense rain forests Guatemala has sustained great civilizations and attracted foreign conquerors While shadows of its vicious decades long civil war still linger Guatemala's people work toward peace and stability in the face of corruption and impunity Illuminating photographs insightful facts and informative sidebars help the reader discover what it's like to live in today's Guatemala its ancient beginnings dramatic landscape rich culture resilient people and more A Textile Traveler's Guide to Guatemala Deborah Chandler, 2019-04-05

The vibrant character of Guatemala is most visible in its handwoven textiles which are still in everyday use and readily available in native markets all over the country A Textile Traveler's Guide to Guatemala is an excellent resource for discovering artisans markets shops and those storied regional textile traditions Geared to independent minded travelers this guide presents the safest and most accessible methods of travel where and when to go where to stay and what to eat Expert advice helps the traveler know what to look for how to distinguish high quality work and how to bargain intelligently and ethically With abundant photographs this guide celebrates the color joy and energy of folklife in Guatemala Beyond

Repair? Alison Crosby, M. Brinton Lykes, 2019-05-10 Winner of the 2021 Raphael Lemkin Book Award from the Institute for the Study of Genocide Honorable Mention 2020 CALACS Book Prize Beyond Repair explores Mayan women's agency in the search for redress for harm suffered during the genocidal violence perpetrated by the Guatemalan state in the early 1980s at the height of the thirty six year armed conflict The book draws on eight years of feminist participatory action research conducted with fifty four Q'eqchi' Kaqchikel Chuj and Mam women who are seeking truth justice and reparation for the violence they experienced during the war and the women's rights activists lawyers psychologists Mayan rights activists and researchers who have accompanied them as intermediaries for over a decade Alison Crosby and M Brinton Lykes use the concept of protagonism to deconstruct dominant psychological discursive constructions of women as victims survivors selves individuals and or subjects They argue that at different moments Mayan women have been actively engaged as protagonists in constructivist and discursive performances through which they have narrated new mobile meanings of Mayan woman repositioning themselves at the interstices of multiple communities and in their pursuit of redress for harm suffered

When We Are Human John Zerzan, 2021-07-13 These are dark and darkening times challenging us to look deeper to grasp the roots and dynamics of the looming civilizational crisis Chronic illness of the planet calls for radically new thinking if there is to be any hope of renewal When We Are Human offers thought at a necessary and primal level All previous civilizations have failed and now there s just one global civilization which is starkly grandly failing To deny or avoid this fact is to remain in the sphere of the superficial the irrelevant The physical environment is reaching the catastrophe stage as the seas warm rise acidify and fill with plastics Icebergs ahead and floating past beachgoers idly watching the planet die So much is failing so much is interrelated in the technosphere of ever greater dependence and estrangement Social existence now strangely isolated is beset by mass shootings rising suicide rates slipping longevity loneliness anxiety and the maddening stream of lies and concocted politics Zerzan trains his passionate focus on several fields of discourse anthropology history philosophy technology psychology and the spiritual Points of light that become a kaleidoscope refracting new insights and contributing an overall picture of late civilization
