International Literary Market Place. European Edition ,1998 Language Legislation and Linguistic Rights Douglas A. Kibbee,1998-01-01 The contributions to this volume cover a broad range of issues in language policy that are hotly debated in every corner of the globe The articles included investigate the implications of language policies on the notion of language rights as the issues are played out in very specific circumstances from the courtroom in Australia to the legislature in California to the educational system in England to the administrative practices of the European Commission The authors explore conflicts between basic conceptions of fairness in justice administration and education on the one hand and political and economic realities on the other Articles focus on language issues in the United States Canada Brazil England France Slovakia Russia Sri Lanka Australia and several African states Other articles consider the implications of new supernational agreements the European Union NAFTA GATT the OAU on language issues in the signatory states In sum the volume offers an extensive presentation of current issues and practices in language policy and linguistic human rights Finance Week ,2005-07 Finweek ,2006-07 Intonation in African Tone Languages Laura J. Downing,Annie Rialland,2016-11-07 This volume brings together two under investigated areas of intonation typology While tone languages make up to 70 percent of the world s languages only few have been explored for intonation And even though one third of the world s languages are spoken in Africa and most sub Saharan languages are tone languages recent collections on tone and intonation typology have almost entirely ignored African languages This book aims to fill this gap Southern African Books in Print ,1994 Journal of African Languages and Linguistics ,1995
