Wandering Souls Journeys With The Dead And The Living In Viet Nam:

Wandering Souls Wayne Karlin, 2009-09-29 Karlin relates the moving story of one veteran's search for redemption in Vietnam as he seeks forgiveness from the family of the man he killed 40 years ago Wandering Souls Wayne Karlin, 2009-09-29 On March 19 1969 First Lieutenant Homer R Steedly Jr shot and killed a North Vietnamese soldier Dam when they met on a jungle trail Steedly took a diary filled with beautiful line drawings from the body of the dead soldier which he subsequently sent to his mother for safekeeping Thirty five years later Steedly rediscovers the forgotten diary and begins to confront his suppressed memories of the war that defined his life deciding to return to Viet Nam and meet the family of the man he killed to seek their forgiveness Fellow veteran and award winning author Wayne Karlin accompanied Steedly on his remarkable journey In Wandering Souls he recounts Homer's movement towards a recovery that could only come about through a confrontation with the ghosts of his past and the need of Dam's family to bring their child's wandering soul to his own peace Wandering Souls limns the terrible price of war on soldiers and their loved ones and reveals that we heal not by forgetting war's hard lessons but by remembering its costs Return to Vietnam Mia Martin Hobbs, 2021-10-14 Between 1981 and 2016 thousands of American and Australian Vietnam War veterans returned to Viet Nam This comparative transnational oral history offers the first historical study of these return journeys It shows how veterans returned in search of resolution or peace manifesting in shifting nostalgic visions of Vietnam Different national war narratives shaped their returns Australians followed the Anzac pilgrimage tradition whereas for Americans the return was an anti war act Veterans met former enemies visited battlefields mourned friends found new relationships and addressed enduring legacies of war Many found their memories of war eased by witnessing Viet Nam at peace Yet this peacetime reality also challenged veterans wartime connection to Vietnamese spaces The place they were nostalgic for was Vietnam a space in war memory not Viet Nam the country Veterans drew from wartime narratives to negotiate this displacement performing nostalgic practices to reclaim their sense of belonging The American War in Viet Nam Susan Lyn Eastman, 2024-01-12 We have been waiting for a book on war and memory about the American War in Vietnam both about the Americans and the Vietnamese in the new century of the Desert Wars of Afghanistan and Iraq Susan Lyn Eastman has fulfilled that expectation and she has done so with a study impressive in its range of topical issues texts and commentary Philip D Beidler Margaret and William Going Professor of English University of Alabama After more than four decades the Viet Nam War continues to haunt our national memory culture politics and military actions In this probing interdisciplinary study Susan Lyn Eastman examines a range of cultural productions from memorials and poetry to cinematic and fictional narratives that have tried to grapple with the psychic afterlife of traumatic violence resulting from the ill fated conflict in Southeast Asia Underpinning the book is the notion of prosthetic memory which involves memories acquired by those with no direct experience of the war such as readers and filmgoers Prosthetic memories Eastman argues refuse to relegate the war to the forgotten past and challenge the authenticity of experience thus ensuring its continued relevance to debates over America's self-conception specifically her coinage of the New Vietnam Syndrome and the country's role in world affairs when it comes to contemporary military interventions With the notable exception of the Veterans Memorial in Washington Eastman's focus is on works produced from the Persian Gulf War 1990-91 through the post 9/11 War on Terror She looks not only at American representations of the war from movies like Randall Wallace's We Were Soldiers to poems by W.D. Ehrhart Yusef Komunyakaa and others but also at novels by Vietnamese authors Bao Ninh and Huong Thu Duong The experiences of women figure prominently in the book Eastman devotes a chapter to the Vietnam Women's Memorial and another to Sandie Frazier's novel I Married Vietnam and Oliver Stone's film Heaven and Earth based on memoirs by Le Ly Hayslip And by examining Jessica Hagedorn's Dream Jungle a novel inspired by the filming of Apocalypse Now she considers how the war's repercussions were felt in other countries in this case the Philippines Her investigation of Vietnamese American authors Lan Cao Andrew Lam and GB Tran adds a transnational dimension to the study
