The Law in Graphic Narratives Giuseppe Martinico, Gianpaolo Maria Ruotolo, 2024-11-13 Comics manga and anime can offer an interesting perspective from which to explore representations of the law in popular culture This book offers a better understanding of the juridical subtexts of such cultural artefacts by bringing together scholars in legal theory and comparative and international law While the contributions in the first part of the volume unpack the relationships between normative systems law and morality above all in graphic narratives by Marvel Daredevil and DC heroes Batman the second part of the volume looks at the role played by law and lawyers in different legal systems through case studies such as She Hulk Finally the last part focusses on the role of international law in the comic multi universe and in Japanese animation movies such as Porco rosso This collection extends research into comics beyond Anglo American culture which is still hegemonic in this literature and makes it possible to read the legal phenomena dealt with in the pop culture products analysed through a lens other than that of Anglo American law Viva Vox Iuris Romani Luuk de Ligt, 2021-11-15 With contributions by J A Ankum O Behrends G C J J v d Bergh A M J A Berkvens Th E v Bochove F J Bruinsma R Feenstra R Forrez A Fl Gehlen F W Grosheide J Hellebeek M L Hewett J B M van Hoek A M Hol E Hondius C J H Jansen R Kn tel C de Koninck C Krampe B Kupisch L de Ligt J H A Lokin J Menner O Moorman van Kappen P L N ve C H van Rhee E J H Schrage A J B Sirks E Slob B H Stolte R Verstegen M v d Vrugt A Wacke L Waelkens T Wallinga A Watson L C Winkel F B J Wubbe W J Zwolve

On Comics and Legal

Aesthetics Thomas Giddens, 2018-04-17 What are the implications of comics for law Tackling this question On Comics and Legal Aesthetics explores the epistemological dimensions of comics and the way this once maligned medium can help think about and reshape the form of law Traversing comics critical and cultural legal studies it seeks to enrich the theorisation of comics with a critical aesthetics that expands its value and significance for law as well as knowledge more generally It argues that comics multimodality its hybrid structure which represents a meeting point of text image reason and aesthetics opens understanding of the limits of law s rational texts by shifting between multiple frames and modes of presentation Comics thereby exposes the way all forms of knowledge are shaped out of an unstructured universe becoming a mask over this chaotic beyond This mask of knowing remains haunted by that which it can never fully capture or represent Comics thus models knowledge as an infinity of nested frames haunted by the chaos without structure In such a model the multiple aspects of law become one region of a vast and bottomless cascade of perspectives an infinite multiframe that extends far beyond the traditional confines of the comics page rendering law boundless

The Scene of Violence Alison Young, 2009-12-04 A crucial question in the analysis of legal practices concerns the processes of identification with in and as law a question of how and by what route law achieves its ends While it is conventional to interpret the practices of law

through the institutional sources of the legal tradition The Scene of Violence considers how law and legal practices figure in the cultural field and specifically in film Institutional Transformations Danielle Celermajer, Millicent Churcher, Moira Gatens, 2021-05-13 Formal and informal institutions structure our social interactions by giving rise to normative expectations and patterns of collective behaviour This collection grapples with how affect imagination and embodiment can operate to either constrain or enable the justice of institutions and the experiences of specific social identities This anthology explores the myriad ways institutions work to systematically disadvantage people with particular identities whilst privileging others and considers the legal political and normative interventions that might serve to promote a more just society Taken together the chapters represent the scope of existing research within institutional theory affect theory race theory and theories of social imaginaries Across a range of topics human rights racial and sexual violence transitional justice and democratic movements this collection critically assesses the extent to which theorists have attended to the conjoined influence of the imagination embodiment and affective phenomena on processes of institutional change that aim to achieve social justice The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the journal Angelaki Sex, Culpability, and the Defence of Provocation Danielle Tyson, 2013 The partial defence of provocation is one of the most controversial doctrines within the criminal law It has now been abolished in a number of international jurisdictions Addressing the trajectory of debates about reform of the provocation defence across different jurisdictions Sex Culpability and the Defence of Provocation considers the construction and representation of subjectivity and sexual difference in legal narrations of intimate partner homicide Undeniably the most vexing exculpatory cultural narrative of our times is that of a woman asking for it This book explores how the process of judgment in a criminal trial involves not only the drawing of inferences from the facts of a particular case but also operates to deliver a narrative Law it is argued constructs a narrative of how the female body incites male violence And pursuing an approach that is informed by socio legal studies literary theory and feminist theories of the body Sex Culpability and the Defence of Provocation considers how this narrative is constructed via a range of discursive practices that position woman as a threat to masculine norms of propriety and autonomy Once we have a clear understanding of the significance of narrative in legal decision making we can then formulate textual strategies of resistance to the violence of law s victim blaming narratives by rewriting them
