When Women Were Birds Terry Tempest Williams, 2012-04-10 NATIONAL BESTSELLER A Kansas City Star Best Book of the Year Brilliant meditative and full of surprises wisdom and wonder Ann Lamott author of Imperfect Birds I am leaving you all my journals but you must promise me you won't look at them until after I'm gone This is what Terry Tempest Williams's mother the matriarch of a large Mormon clan in northern Utah told her a week before she died It was a shock to Williams to discover that her mother had kept journals But not as much of a shock as it was to discover that the three shelves of journals were all blank In fifty four short chapters Williams recounts memories of her mother ponders her own faith and contemplates the notion of absence and presence art and in our world When Women Were Birds is a carefully crafted kaleidoscope that keeps turning around the question What does it mean to have a voice

When Women Were Birds Terry Tempest Williams, 2013-02-26 In 54 chapters that unfold like a series of yoga poses each with its own logic and beauty Williams creates a lyrical and caring meditation of the mystery of her mother's journals in a book that keeps turning around the question What does it mean to have a voice whereabouts Edward Carson, 2021-08-02 in the poem of the world there once was a map of the map composed in the likeness of a poem In this riddling and seeking book of poems Edward Carson navigates the emotional often contradictory intelligence of the heart and mind In three interrelated segments whereabouts powerfully charts the tight emotional spaces between thinking and language beauty and perception love and the polemics of self and other Taking on cartographic distortions and dynamics of the map metaphor thereabouts or the mapmaker's dilemma playfully confronts the quandaries of personal navigation when the wants and needs of the esemplastic mind are forever devising new places to be Exploring the brain its neurons and serpentine synaptic connections hereabouts in fourteen scans advances a poetry of rhizomic communication capturing networks of thought and feeling that spring from both conflict and caress Within a relationship's countless masquerades and revelations whereabouts the lovers discourse invites the reader to eavesdrop on a series of intimate conversations wherein lovers argue and act out their richly populated inner lives addressing issues of gender pleasure communication control and sex

Wiebe,2024-09-26T00:00:00Z No longer is the climate emergency purely an external threat to our wellbeing this profoundly political circumstance is deeply personal The summer after giving birth Sarah Marie Wiebe and her baby endured the 2021 heat dome in British Columbia with temperatures over 20 degrees above normal creating all time heat records across the province It was the deadliest weather event in Canadian history The extreme heat landed Wiebe in the hospital dehydrated and separated from her nursing baby from dawn until dusk So began a year of mothering through heat fires and floods The climate emergency s many incarnations shaped Wiebe s politics of parenting and revealed the layers textures and nuances of the disastrous emergencies we encounter in a world dominated by extractive capitalism Drawing on hospital codes to explore the connections Wiebe opens up tender conversations about intimate matters of how our bodies respond to emergency interventions informed consent emergency C sections reproductive mental health and anti colonial and anti racist resistance A critical ecofeminist scholar Wiebe invites collective envisioning and enacting of caring ethical relations between humans and the planet including our atmospheres lands waters animals plants and each other More Than Two, Second Edition

Eve Rickert,Andrea Zanin,2024-09-02 A modern topology of nonmonogamy s many possibilities and consequences Can you love more than one person A lot of conversations about nonmonogamy start this way When we discuss opening relationships contemplate whether we want to be exclusive with our partners or introduce multiple partners to friends and family we are asking the people in our lives and ourselves to contend with this question The answer is obvious and misleading The love one feels in their heart and the love one expresses through daily acts of care and affection are both love in the true sense but they have different requirements present different options and produce different outcomes More Than Two Second Edition can t promise outcomes but it is a guide to the paths from anchor or nesting partnerships to relationship anarchy possible within nonmonogamy This long awaited second edition bridges emerging theories on attachment and relationship diversity with authors Eve Rickert and Andrea Zanin s insight and experience The arcs of nonmonogamous partnerships bend towards complexity introspection and compromise or at least they can if we work at it Mother, Creature, Kin Chelsea

Steinauer-Scudder,2025-04-08 Luminous nonfiction about the natural world from essayist Chelsea Steinauer Scudder who asks what can other than human creatures teach us about mothering belonging caregiving loss and resiliency What does it mean to be a mother in an era of climate catastrophe And what can we learn from the plants and creatures who mother at the edges of their world s unraveling Becoming a mother in this time means bringing life into a world that appears to be coming undone Drawing upon ecology mythology and her own experiences as a new mother Steinauer Scudder confronts what it means to mother to do the good work of being in service to the living world What if we could all mother the places we live and the beings with whom we share those places And what if they also mother us In prose that teems with longing lyricism and knowledge of ecology Steinauer Scudder writes of the silent flight and aural maps of barn owls of nursing whales of real and imagined forests of tidal marshes of ancient single celled organisms and of newly planted gardens The creatures inhabiting these stories teach us about centering belonging entanglement edgework homemaking and how to imagine the future Rooted in wonder while never shying away from loss Mother Creature Kin reaches toward a language of inclusive care learned from creatures living at the brink Writing in the tradition of Camille Dungy Elizabeth Rush and Margaret Renkl Steinauer Scudder invites us into the daily obligatory sacred work of care Despair and fear will not save the world any more than they will raise our children and while we don't know what the future holds we know it will need mothers As the very ground shifts beneath our feet what if we apprenticed ourselves to the creaturely mothers with whom we share this beloved home

The Bird-Friendly City Timothy Beatley, 2020-11-05 How does a bird experience a city A backyard A park As the world has become more urban noisier from increased traffic and brighter from streetlights and office buildings it has also become more dangerous for countless species of birds Warblers become disoriented by nighttime lights and collide with buildings Ground feeding sparrows fall prey to feral cats Hawks and other birds of prey are sickened by rat poison These name just a few of the myriad hazards How do our cities need to change in order to reduce the threats often created unintentionally that have resulted in nearly three billion birds lost in North America alone since the 1970s In The Bird-Friendly City Timothy Beatley a longtime advocate for intertwining the built and natural environments takes readers on a global tour of cities that are reinventing the status quo with birds in mind Efforts span a fascinating breadth of approaches public education urban planning and design habitat restoration architecture art civil disobedience and more Beatley shares empowering examples including advocates for catios enclosed outdoor spaces that allow cats to enjoy backyards without being able to catch birds a public relations campaign for vultures and innovations in building design that balance aesthetics with preventing bird strikes Through these changes and the others Beatley describes it is possible to make our urban environments more welcoming to many bird species Readers will come away motivated to implement and advocate for bird friendly changes with inspiring examples to draw from Whether birds are migrating and need a temporary shelter or are taking up permanent residence in a backyard when the environment is safer for birds humans are happier as well
