The Church I Couldn't Find Charles Alexander,2013-04-04 After a year of searching Charles and Verna could not find a church primarily operating on basic first century principles Most churches are not traditional enough After thirty five years as a pastor my denomination had steered me in an ineffective and unbiblical direction We had become chaplains to the culture rather prophets within it Few churches seem to have a process and possibly the knowledge in how to make effective disciples Development of five apostolic principles is encouraged They really work The first century church was not perfect but remarkably diverse in maintaining apostolic accountability and encouragement How may churches develop autonomy unity and cooperation in close geographical areas First century worship is difficult to find A service is produced here that hopefully includes all essential principles Dependent on the process of the group event the group based church proves to be the best way to achieve apostolic goals and to provide an easy way to minister in unity with other churches Many personal experiences illustrate the point Practical and effective development in the authors experience has resulted in the building of three new churches and a wide ministry of teaching www.congregationalresources.org Richard Bass,2004-12-30 An ever increasing number of resources compete for the attention of congregational leaders With a

Mission in Context: In Search of Asian Strategic Communication of the Gospel Thang Deih Lian Davidlianno, 2018-05-09 There is a profusion of missional issues emerging in the Asian fields that call Christ's followers to actively witnessing the Truth Missionaries from different continents have come to serve the Asian nations and yet these God's loving missionaries effectiveness often seem to have left in the shade by some damaging fruits and sometimes being too much of Westernness stemming from a diversity of lacking knowledge particularly the local contexts to contextualize and lack of preparation The irrefutable finding is appealing within the Asian mission study in regard to the essentiality in equipping the Christians so that the ministries in Asia will experience the effectiveness in cultivating the diverse contexts cultures with the text Scripture they have Many principles and practical information from this book grew out of the authors experiences and the reflection of Missiologists and scholars such as Andrew Walls Christopher Wright Kazoh Kitamori Paul Hiebert etc
