Women Islam Apologies Feminist Critique:

Women and Islam Ibtissam Bouachrine, 2014-05-21 Muslim women of all ages economic status educational backgrounds sexual orientations and from different parts of historically Muslim countries suffer the kinds of atrocities that violate common understandings of human rights and are normally denounced as criminal or pathological yet these actions are sustained because they uphold some religious doctrine or some custom blessed by local traditions Ironically while instances of abuse meted out to women and even female children are routine scholarship about Muslim women in the post 9 11 era has rarely focused attention on them preferring to speak of women's agency and resistance Too few scholars are willing to tell the complicated and at times harrowing stories of Muslim women's lives Women and Islam Myths Apologies and the Limits of Feminist Critique radically rethinks the celebratory discourse constructed around Muslim women's resistance It shows instead the limits of such resistance and the restricted agency given women within Islamic societies The book does not center on a single historical period Rather it is organized as a response to five questions that have been central to upholding the resistance discourse What is the impact of the myth of al Andalus on a feminist critique What is the feminist utility of Edward Said's theory of Orientalism Is Islam compatible with a feminist agenda To what extent can Islamic institutions such as the veil be liberating for women Will the current Arab uprisings yield significant change for Muslim women Through examination of these core questions Bouachrine calls for a shift in the paradigm of discourse about feminism in the Muslim world Cover images provided by Tachfine Bouachrine The Secrets and Silences of Edith Wharton's Women Isabelle

Parsons, 2025-03-11 Edith Wharton's sensitively observed portraits of women's lives a century ago resonate into the present day captivating readers now as they did then Threaded throughout her accounts is a rich seam of secrets and silences that reveals Wharton's keen grasp of the realities navigated by women and her astute use of withholding to tell their stories This book explores her frequent marshalling of secrets and silences presented as an integral part of her literary aesthetic to cast light on her enduring interest in women's experiences in private and public settings during the early twentieth century

Muslim Women and Gender Justice Dina El Omari, Juliane Hammer, Mouhanad Khorchide, 2019-09-20 This volume brings together the work of a group of Islamic studies scholars from across the globe They discuss how past and present Muslim women have participated in the struggle for gender justice in Muslim communities and around the world The essays demonstrate a diversity of methodological approaches religious and secular sources and theoretical frameworks for understanding Muslim negotiations of gender norms and practices Part I Concepts puts into conversation women scholars who define Muslima theology and Islamic feminism vis vis secular notions of gender diversity and discuss the deployment of the oppression of Muslim women as a hegemonic imperialist strategy The chapters in Part II Sources engage with the Qur'an hadith and sunna as religious sources to be examined and reinterpreted in the quest for gender justice as God's will and the example of the Prophet Muhammad In Part III Histories contributors search for Muslim women's agency as scholars thinkers and activists from the early period of Islam to the present from Southeast Asia to North America Representing a transnational and cross generational conversation this work will be a key resource to students and scholars interested in the history of Islamic feminism Muslim women gender justice and Islam Secular Muslim Feminism Hind Elhinnawy, 2024-12-26 For over a century Muslim women have championed their own brand of feminism rooted in human rights principles and a deep understanding of their diverse cultural contexts Yet secular Muslim feminism remains shrouded in misunderstanding and contention This book boldly confronts the complexities and controversies surrounding this contested concept offering a nuanced exploration of its potential to bridge divides and empower women The book challenges the simplistic portrayals of Muslim women dismantling the harmful narratives of oppression and victimhood propagated by both Western and Islamist agendas It critiques the selective glorification of religious agency by some feminists recognizing how this can inadvertently reinforce patriarchal ideologies Additionally it exposes the hijacking of the secular Muslim feminist movement by the far right disguised as advocates for women s rights but fueled by anti Muslim sentiments Drawing on over two decades of personal observations and interactions with diverse organizations in the Middle East and Europe the book delves into the heart of secular Muslim feminism dissecting its nuances and potential to reconcile divergent perspectives It amplifies these voices challenging the misrepresentation and limitations imposed by external agendas Secular Muslim Feminism emerges as a bold and transformative force redefining the boundaries of equality and empowering women to shape their destinies It offers a nuanced and critical framework for understanding the complex realities of Muslim women s lives paving the way for a more just and equitable future Women and Islam Ibtissam Bouachrine, 2014-05-21 Muslim women of all ages economic status educational backgrounds sexual orientations and from different parts of historically Muslim countries suffer the kinds of atrocities that violate common understandings of human rights and are normally denounced as criminal or pathological yet these actions are sustained because they uphold some religious doctrine or some custom blessed by local traditions Ironically while instances of abuse meted out to women and even female children are routine scholarship about Muslim women in the post 9 11 era has rarely focused attention on them preferring to speak of women s agency and resistance Too few scholars are willing to tell the complicated and at times harrowing stories of Muslim women s lives Women and Islam Myths Apologies and the Limits of Feminist Critique radically rethinks the celebratory discourse constructed around Muslim women s resistance It shows instead the limits of such resistance and the restricted agency given women within Islamic societies The book does not center on a single historical period Rather it is organized as a response to five questions that have been central to upholding the resistance discourse What is the impact of the myth of al Andalus on a feminist critique What is the feminist utility of Edward Said s theory of Orientalism Is Islam compatible with a feminist agenda To what extent can Islamic institutions such as the veil be liberating for women Will the current Arab uprisings yield significant change for Muslim women Through examination of these core questions Bouachrine calls for a

The Routledge Handbook of Muslim-Jewish Relations Josef Meri, 2016-06-23 The Routledge Handbook of Muslim Jewish Relations invites readers to deepen their understanding of the historical social cultural and political themes that impact modern day perceptions of interfaith dialogue The volume is designed to illuminate positive encounters between Muslims and Jews as well as points of conflict within a historical framework Among other goals the volume seeks to correct common misperceptions about the history of Muslim Jewish relations by complicating familiar political narratives to include dynamics such as the cross influence of literary and intellectual traditions Reflecting unique and original collaborations between internationally renowned contributors the book is intended to spark further collaborative and constructive conversation and scholarship in the academy and beyond

Secular and Islamic Feminist Critiques in the Work of Fatima Mernissi Raja Rhouni, 2010 This book presents a detailed critical analysis of the work of Fatima Mernissi Mernissi is considered to be one of the major figures in Feminist thought for both Morocco and Muslim society in general This work discusses Mernissi's intellectual trajectory from secular to Islamic feminism in order to trace the evolution of so called Islamic feminist theory The book also engages critically with the work of other Muslim feminists using frameworks and approaches developed in the works of Muslim reformist thinkers namely Mohammed Arkoun and Nasr Abu Zaid with the aim of engaging the theorization of this emerging Feminism

Women and Social Change in North Africa Doris H. Gray, Nadia Sonneveld, 2018-01-11 Women's voices are brought to the fore in this comprehensive analysis of women and social change in North Africa Focusing on grass roots perspectives readers will gain a rare glimpse into how both the intentional and unintentional actions of men and women contribute to societal transformation Most chapters are based on extensive field work that illuminates the real life experiences advocacy and agency of women in the region The book considers frequently less studied issues including migration legal changes oral and written law Islamic feminism and grass roots activism It also looks at the effectiveness of shelters for abused women and the changes that occurred in the wake of the 2011 Arab uprisings as well as challenging conventional notions of feminist agency by examining Salafi women's life choices Recommended for students and scholars as well as international development professionals with an interest in the MENA region

Anthem of Misogyny Ibtissam Bouachrine, 2022-10-03 Anthem of Misogyny The War on Women in North Africa and the Middle East argues that misogyny which operates through an interconnected network of ideologies institutions beliefs aesthetics and cultural trends is too complex and too deep rooted to eradicate with superficial changes Like a national anthem misogyny in North Africa and the Middle East has acquired a sacred status It is accepted uncritically and woven effortlessly into daily practices creating a community of men of different ages educational levels and socioeconomic backgrounds who are united in their sense of entitlement to evaluate scrutinize deter question and expose women For women it is as if they are in a state of perpetual war forever on the verge of being accused of deviating from the norms and being punished These norms however are neither clear nor predictable This study of misogyny is written against a dominant orthodoxy in Western feminism Critics are accused of gendered orientalism savior complexes and even Islamophobia if they dare to bring up misogyny and gender based violence in North Africa and the Middle East in contexts other than calling it a Western created issue Rather than exaggerate Western agency this book is invested in making Muslim agency visible There are narratives of violence and injustice that produce discomfort anger and even despair These stories deserve to be told and those behind the injustices are entitled to an unfiltered portrayal because the non West too is deserving of unapologetic feminist critique

Washington Irving and Islam Zubeda

Jalalzai,2018-05-25 Washington Irving and Islam contributes to understanding the relationship between the United States and the Islamic world valuable not only for studies of Washington Irving American Literature or Islam but also for thinking through the role Islam and the Orient have played in American literature and history a critical field receiving ever increasing attention The global context of Irving s work ties these essays together as does an understanding that his writings challenge easy classification of the Muslim other and indeed challenge easy classification of Irving s own responses to that other Washington Irving bestrides opposing positions as well as distant worlds

Revisionary Narratives Naïma Hachad,2019 Revisionary Narratives examines the historical and formal evolutions of Moroccan women s auto biography in the last four decades particularly its conflation with testimony and its expansion beyond literary texts It analyzes auto biographical and testimonial acts in Arabic colloquial Moroccan Darija French and English in the fields of prison narratives visual arts theater performance and digital media situating them within specific sociopolitical and cultural contexts of production and consumption Part One begins by tracing the rise of a feminist consciousness in prison narratives produced and or published in the late 1970s through the 2000s Part Two moves to analyzing the ubiquity of auto biography and testimony in the arts as well as contemporary sociopolitical activism The focus throughout the various case studies is women s engagement with patriarchal and neo imperial norms and practices as they relate to their experiences of political violence activism migration and displacement To understand why and how women collapse the boundaries between autobiography biography testimony and sociopolitical commentary the book employs a broad transdisciplinary montage approach that combines theories on gender and autobiography and takes into account postcolonial postmodern transnational transglobal and translocal perspectives Doing so the book marks auto biography and testimony as a specific field of inquiry within the study of women s postcolonial cultural productions in the Moroccan and more broadly the Maghrebi and the Middle Eastern contexts

Making the New Middle East Valerie J. Hoffman,2019-02-28 Demands for freedom justice and dignity have animated protests and revolutions across the Middle East in recent years from the Iranian Green Movement and the Arab Spring uprisings to Turkey s March for Justice and the ongoing struggle in Palestine Although expectations raised by the Arab Spring were largely disappointed and protests that toppled entrenched rulers unleashed vicious counterrevolutionary forces there is no doubt that the landscape of the Middle East has changed Drawing from diverse disciplines this volume offers critical perspectives on these changes covering politics religion gender dynamics human rights media literature and music What ultimately has changed in the new Middle East Who are the actors pushing the direction of change How are aspirations for change being expressed through media and the arts With extensive analysis and thoughtful reflection this book gives readers an in depth portrayal of a modernizing Middle East

Rethinking Human Rights Erika Jiménez,2024-10-17 Palestinians have used the language of human rights to articulate their struggle against the Israeli occupation and internationalise the injustices they face Palestinian young people learning about human rights at school experience a dissonance between the aspirational and internationalised framework of those norms and the layers of injustice of their own lived experience Drawing on research in the occupied West Bank this book explores the three layers of marginalisation faced by Palestinian young people the Israeli occupation that denies them their humanity the Palestinian pseudo state that denies them a voice and patriarchal structures that deny them agency to show how these barriers influence their understanding of and scepticism towards human rights Influenced by decolonial theories this book illuminates how space needs to be created for the counter narratives of the oppressed in human rights discourse which may not align with more conventional representations of human rights It contends that human rights and by extension human rights education in the Palestinian context and beyond needs to be critiqued decolonised and ultimately transformed Frontiers in Spiritual Leadership

Scott T. Allison, Craig T. Kocher, George R. Goethals, 2017-03-03 Abraham Lincoln's iconic phrase the better angels of our nature revealed his belief that the noblest qualities of humanity would heal a divided nation In Frontiers in Spiritual Leadership an interdisciplinary group of leading scholars from the University of Richmond explore these noble qualities and how leaders such as Lincoln make that expression possible They review the landscape of spiritual leadership and the spiritual principles that are fundamental to effective and inspired leadership emphasizing the values of love forgiveness purpose trust sacrifice equality and liberty among others Through an analysis of historical examples and contemporary issues this book celebrates the many gifted and enlightened individuals whose leadership embodies the most exquisite qualities of humanity It outlines the conceptual linkage between leadership and spirituality within groups and organizations and will appeal to students and scholars of leadership ethics religion philosophy psychology and human growth potential The Routledge

Criminology Michael Hviid Jacobsen, Sandra Walklate, 2016-06-17 This book explores the ways in which criminological methods can be imaginatively deployed and developed in a world increasingly characterized by the blurred nature of social reality Whilst recognizing the importance of positivist approaches and research techniques it advocates a commitment to understanding the ways in which those techniques can be used imaginatively at times in combination with less conventional methods discussing the questions concerning risk ethics and access that arise as a result Giving voice to cutting edge research practices both in terms of concepts and methods that shift the criminological focus towards the kind of imaginative work that comprised the foundations of the discipline it calls into question the utility and credentials of mainstream work that fails to serve the discipline itself or the policy questions allied to it A call not to give up on numbers but also not to be defined by statistics and the methods that produce them Liquid Criminology sheds light on a way of doing research for criminology that is not only creative but also critical As such it will appeal to scholars of sociology criminology and social policy with interests in research methods and design

Usurping Suicide Suman Gupta, Milena Katsarska, Theodoros A. Spyros, Mike Hajimichael, 2017-08-15 Can an individual act of suicide be socially significant or does it present too many imponderable features This book examines suicide like no other Unconcerned with the individual dispositions that lead a person to commit such an act Usurping Suicide focuses on the reception suicides have produced their political social and cultural implications How does a particular act of suicide enable a collective significance to be attached to it And what contextual circumstances predispose a politicised public response From Mohamed Bouazizi's self immolation during regime change in Tunisia to Dimitris Christoulas's public shooting at a time of increased political upheaval in Greece and beyond this remarkable work examines how the individuality of the act of suicide poses a disturbing symbolic conundrum for the dominant liberal order

Routledge Handbook of Critical Criminology Walter S. DeKeseredy, Molly Dragiewicz, 2018-04-09 The main objective of the second edition of the Routledge Handbook of Critical Criminology is twofold 1 to provide original chapters that cover contemporary critical criminological theoretical offerings generated over the past five years and 2 to provide chapters on important new substantive topics that are currently being studied and theorized by progressive criminologists Special attention is devoted to new theoretical directions in the field such as southern criminology queer criminology and green criminology The diverse chapters cover not only cutting edge theories but also the variety of research methods used by leading scholars in the field and the rich data generated by their rigorous empirical work In addition some of the chapters suggest innovative and realistic short and long term policy proposals that are typically ignored by mainstream criminology These progressive strategies address some of the most pressing social problems facing contemporary society today which generate much pain and suffering for socially and economically disenfranchised people The new edition of the Handbook is a major work in redefining areas within the context of international multidisciplinary critical research and in highlighting emerging areas such as human trafficking Internet pornography and image based sexual abuse It is specifically designed to be a comprehensive resource for undergraduate and postgraduate students researchers and policymakers
