Safe Water, Sanitation, and Early Childhood Malnutrition in East Africa Assata Zerai,Brenda N. Sanya,2018-01-10 To understand safe water and sanitation in East Africa it is important to consider the contributions of African feminist analysis This perspective will unveil inequities in the distribution of resources demonstrate how localized solutions which are driven by women s collaborative work have had an impact by temporarily easing the burden and paint a multilayered picture of the lives of women and girls who are the predominant providers of water to households This book explores the effects of water and sanitation quality and availability on early childhood morbidity in East Africa from an African feminist sociological perspective It presents a framework that considers the ways that the development industry neoliberalism neocolonial relations gender class ethnicity globalization and other dimensions of oppression intersect to impact upon the experiences and agency of women and children accessing clean water and safe sanitation and reducing early childhood morbidity in Kenya Tanzania and Uganda This work offers a vital contribution to the social scientific literature by adapting the vibrant intellectual work of African feminists to a quantitative methodology and enlarging the scope of empirically and theoretically grounded studies within the field of environmental sociology
