Min., 2019-05-23 For centuries now the vast majority of the Christian population in the West has been locked into the mindset that believing in a Creator God is a matter of faith and emotions as opposed to clear and rational thought and that faith should be kept in the private realm Under Investigation aims at dispelling this oppressive way of thinking This is a workbook that will arm Christians with scientific truths written in plain language Its goal is to target the integrity of the New Testament using scholarly historical and literary scientific findings Knowledge is power and in the quest for absolute Truth this workbook will guide the student to an educated understanding of both who the God depicted in the Bible truly is and who He is not The Gift of Reading - Part 2 J. Alexander Rutherford, 2019-09-30 If the Word of God is our anchor in the chaos of this world if it is our assurance that we can know the world and God its Creator we need confidence that we can understand this Word Reading and applying the Bible is essential to every facet of Christian life and ministry yet our ability to do so is under attack from a myriad of directions In Postmodern philosophy the possibility of communication is dismissed let alone communication from God In Biblical studies the amount of knowledge required to come to firm conclusions concerning the meaning and application of the Bible grows every day However the Bible is not so pessimistic about its accessibility Instead it presents itself as a clear word sufficient to guide and encourage Christians in every area of life Having outlined in Part 1 a method for reading the Bible in order to understand it The Gift of Reading Part 2 addresses the issues of hermeneutics or the theory of reading After briefly surveying the major approaches to reading the Bible throughout the history of the Church The Gift of Reading Part 2 argues for an understanding of the role of the text read and author based on a Biblical epistemology and theology The Message of Love: Understanding Sin and the Law Oddeth S. Burton,2011-12-14 The book seeks to explore what is sin and the law It explains how the law was broken by Adam and had to be codified in the form of the Ten Commandments It started with sin in the angelic realm and then mankind It also explores man solution in the person of Jesus Christ and demonstrate God s love for mankind in the codified message of the Gospel of the Kingdom of God Fluid with God David J. Lynden,2016-04-28 The relationship with God is not a cliché but it does present its challenges What if the struggle to connect with God has less to do with His invisibility and more to do with our spiritual autism our confusion with God and subsequent retreat to religious routines What if God is trying to connect with us much like a parent works to connect with their autistic child Through the cover to cover story of the Bible practical aids and his own experiences with his son Micah the author offers a pathway towards genuine eye contact with God Back to Faith , Resonant Witness Jeremy S. Begbie,Steven R. Guthrie,2011-01-10 Resonant Witness gathers together a wide harmonious chorus of voices from across the musical and theological spectrum to show that music and theology can each learn much from the other and that the majesty and power of both are profoundly amplified when they do With essays touching on J S Bach Hildegard of Bingen Martin Luther Karl Barth Olivier Messiaen jazz improvisation South African freedom songs and more this volume encourages musicians and theologians to pursue a more fruitful and sustained engagement with one another What can theology do for music Resonant Witness helps answer this question with an essential resource in the burgeoning interdisciplinary field of music and theology Covering an impressively wide range of musical topics from cosmos to culture and theology to worship Jeremy Begbie and Steven Guthrie explore and map new territory with incisive contributions from the very best musicians theologians and philosophers Bennett Zon Durham University This volume represents a burst of cross disciplinary energy and insight that can be celebrated by musicians and theologians music lovers and God lovers alike John D Witvliet from afterword

Jesus and Scripture Thomas J. Parker, 2024-02-29 For the New Testament writers the Old Testament scriptures and the teachings of Jesus were key sources of authority and influence When these influences are considered alongside each other each can illuminate the other deepening the New Testament writers presentation of Jesus and our understanding of their interpretations In Jesus and Scripture Tom Parker examines the way in which Hebrews James and 1 and 2 Peter deal with these two different sources of authority how they relate to each other and what shifts have occurred historically and theologically within the writing of these texts Treating the four epistles methodologically Parker examines the particular ways in which each writer draws on the Hebrew scriptures Ultimately he argues convincingly that the nascent Jesus tradition particularly via oral routes influenced the way the Old Testament was processed by these various New Testament writers

From the Dust of the Earth Matthew J. Ramage, 2022-05-06 In this book the author s fourth dedicated to applying Joseph Ratzinger Benedict XVI s wisdom to pressing theological difficulties Matthew Ramage attempts to square advances in the field of evolutionary biology with the Bible as interpreted through the teaching of the Catholic Church Distinguishing between evolutionary theory properly speaking and materialist philosophy Ramage's work both addresses the challenge of evolutionary science to Catholic teaching on human origins and argues that discoveries in evolutionary biology yield precious insight into the mystery of God's saving plan in Christ applying Ratzinger's principles to such issues as the meaning of man's special creation the relationship between sin and death and the implications of evolution for eschatology Hebrews: a Commentary William H. Bicksler, 2005-09-14 This academic commentary on the original languages and NIV and Greek text of Hebrews focuses on the thought beliefs message that are unique to this biblical author without reference to any possible person tradition has considered as the author lest such a reference determine all possible outcomes of this study The various theories of authorship are studied in the Introduction but the message in its entirety is of unusual significance for Christian Jewish thought and relationships and the development of the Christian Jewish church in the first century and today The So called epistle in shell is actually a theological treatise and impassioned sermon to those facing extreme forms of persecution and efforts to coerce denial of the faith These believers are faced with an accepted legal status as Jews in the Roman Empire versus the people of the Way that was viewed as sectarian by the Jews and as an illegal sect by Rome The quick expansion of the church into the Roman world under the emphases and apologetics of Paul combating some opposition to his message both in the Jewish leadership as well as in the Jewish Christian churches The cruciality of holding on to the eternal truths of the past and not compromising the truth in Jesus of Nazareth places this writing front and center to the basic questions of the relationships of church and Judaism The stance of this author is that of mainline Evangelical thought with awareness of the Wesleyan Lutheran Anabaptist and Calvinistic emphases as well as others The issues of text canon and history of interpretation are specialized studies not covered in this commentary Hebrews: A Social Identity Commentary Matthew J. Marohl, 2025-09-04 In this volume Matthew J Marohl introduces a culturally sensitive reading of Hebrews employing a social identity approach This allows readers to encounter a unique and powerful depiction of the faithful Jesus and a dynamic group of Christ followers called upon to maintain their faithfulness In the end this social identity approach reveals a work with two strands thoroughly intertwined Through the lens of conceptual blending theory Marohl examines the way in which the author combines the multiple identities of the addressees shedding light on the community dynamics of early Christ followers Marohl explores how the author describes ingroup boundaries how faithfulness is held up as the ultimate ingroup norm and how the promised rest is grounded in the language of the anticipated future Ultimately Marohl argues that Hebrews is a prime example of literature created out of crisis New Testament Philology Melton Bennett Winstead, 2018-04-17 This work is dedicated to David Alan Black a New Testament scholar who has contributed to the love of the Koine Greek language as it pertains to New Testament studies in numerous ways as a professor author missionary and editor The goal of this book is to demonstrate for students the value of continued research in the Greek New Testament The essays demonstrate how research is currently being done utilizing such tools as grammatical studies discourse analysis textual criticism verbal aspect and other linguistic analyses The chapters include studies on exegesis verbal aspect prepositional compounds relevance theory and scripture memorization This book demonstrates the explanatory power of an in depth usage of New Testament Greek It is recommended for those who have had at least one year of Greek Hebrews, James Ronald K.
