Words Under The Words Selected Poems A Far Corner :

, Words Under the Words Naomi Shihab Nye, 1995 A collection of poems in which the author draws upon her experiences as a Palestinian American living in the Southwest and her travels in Central America the Middle East and Asia to comment upon the shared humanity of different cultures throughout the world Opening to Grief Claire Willis, Marnie Crawford Samuelson, 2025-09-12 The book helps you meet loss on its own terms not as a problem to be solved but as a sign of deep love Megan Devine author of It's OK That You're Not OK All of us experience loss Some of us have lost a spouse or a child our parents a beloved pet a dear friend or neighbor In the pandemic we have lost hundreds of thousands of lives in the United States and around the world Many of us have lost our livelihoods All of us have lost our familiar daily routines and textures of work family and community And the losses are not over Opening to Grief is a companion to this tender time With the demeanor and tone of a loving friend the authors offer an invitation to grieve fully to turn toward your emotions and experiences however they arise and to follow your own path toward healing The book explores the deep truth that grief and love are richly intertwined Because we love we grieve And when we fully feel our sorrow we open to loving ourselves and other beings more deeply Radical Acceptance Tara Brach, 2004-11-23 In our current times of global crises and spiking collective anxiety Tara Brach's transformative practice of Radical Acceptance offers a pathway to inner freedom and a more compassionate world This classic work now features an insightful new introduction an exclusive bonus chapter and additional guided meditations Radical Acceptance offers us an invitation to embrace ourselves with all our pain fear and anxieties and to step lightly yet firmly on the path of understanding and compassion Thich Nhat Hanh Believing that something is wrong with us is a deep and tenacious suffering says Tara Brach at the start of this illuminating book This suffering emerges in crippling self judgments and conflicts in our relationships in addictions and perfectionism in loneliness and overwork all the forces that keep our lives constricted and unfulfilled Radical Acceptance offers a path to freedom including the day to day practical guidance developed over Dr Brach's forty years of work with therapy clients and Buddhist students Writing with great warmth and clarity Tara Brach brings her teachings alive through personal stories and case histories fresh interpretations of Buddhist tales and guided meditations Step by step she shows us how we can stop being at war with ourselves and begin to live fully every precious moment of our lives Eat This Poem Nicole Gulotta, 2017-03-21 A literary cookbook that celebrates food and poetry two of life's essential ingredients In the same way that salt seasons ingredients to bring out their flavors poetry seasons our lives when celebrated together our everyday moments and meals are richer and more meaningful The twenty five inspiring poems in this book from such poets as Marge Piercy Louise Glück Mark Strand Mary Oliver Billy Collins Jane Hirshfield are accompanied by seventy five recipes that bring the richness of words to life in our kitchen on our plate and through our palate Eat This Poem opens us up to fresh ways of accessing poetry and lends new meaning to the foods we cook Walking in Wonder John O'Donohue, John Quinn, 2018-11-06 With a Foreword by Krista

Tippett a poignant and beautiful collection of conversations and presentation from John O Donohue s work with close friend and former radio broadcaster John Quinn John O Donohue beloved author of To Bless the Space Between Us is widely recognized as one of the most charismatic and inspirational enduring voices on the subjects of spirituality and Celtic mysticism These timeless exchanges collated and introduced by Quinn span a number of years and explore themes such as imagination landscape the medieval mystic Meister Eckhart aging and death Presented in O Donohue s inimitable lyrical style and filled with rich insights that will feed the unprecedented spiritual hunger he observed in modern society Walking in Wonder is a welcome tribute to a much loved author whose work still touches the lives of millions around the world The Five Invitations Frank Ostaseski,2017-03-14 The cofounder of the Zen Hospice Project and pioneer behind the compassionate care movement shares an inspiring exploration of the lessons dying has to offer about living a fulfilling life Death is not waiting for us at the end of a long road Death is always with us in the marrow of every passing moment She is the secret teacher hiding in plain sight helping us to discover what matters most Life and death are a package deal They cannot be pulled apart and we cannot truly live unless we are aware of death The Five Invitations is an exhilarating meditation on the meaning of life and how maintaining an ever present consciousness of death can bring us closer to our truest selves As a renowned teacher of compassionate caregiving and the cofounder of the Zen Hospice Project Frank Ostaseski has sat on the precipice of death with more than a thousand people In The Five Invitations he distills the lessons gleaned over the course of his career offering an evocative and stirring guide that points to a radical path to transformation The Five Invitations Don t Wait Welcome Everything Push Away Nothing Bring Your Whole Self to the Experience Find a Place of Rest in the Middle of Things Cultivate Don t Know Mind These Five Invitations show us how to wake up fully to our lives They can be understood as best practices for anyone coping with loss or navigating any sort of transition or crisis they guide us toward appreciating life s preciousness Awareness of death can be a valuable companion on the road to living well forging a rich and meaningful life and letting go of regret The Five Invitations is a powerful and inspiring exploration of the essential wisdom dying has to impart to all of us Write to the Core Laura Bean,2023-01-30 Write to the Core is intended for those writing instructors who believe that students emotional lives are valid and welcome at school The curriculum seamlessly integrates reading and writing tasks with mindfulness practices so teachers with limited time can help students meet academic standards and build creative thinking skills while at the same time fortifying their inner reserves and sense of community Teaching self awareness emotional self regulation self compassion and empathy not only prepares students to build more optimal relationships with themselves and their peers but also with the craft of writing Each lesson is centered around a poem and includes a short guided awareness practice text dependent questions and basic and intermediate level poem writing worksheets that replicate the structure of the original work A brief section on current research in neuroscience and positive psychology as well as extension activities are also included Teaching the Art of Poetry Baron Wormser,1999-12-01

Concise and accessible this guide to teaching the art of poetry from Shakespeare to contemporary poets enables anyone to learn about how poets approach their art Teachers can use this book to explore any facet or era of poetry Any reader can use it as an entryway into the art of poetry Teaching the Art of Poetry shows poetry as a multi faceted artistic process rather than a mystery on a pedestal It demystifies the art of poetry by providing specific historical social and aesthetic contexts for each element of the art It is a nuts and bolts approach that encourages teachers and students to work with poetry as a studio art something to be explored challenged assembled and reassembled imagined and studied all the things that an artist does to present poetry as a search for meaning This book advocates poetry as an essential tool for aesthetic cultural and linguistic literacy It portrays poetry as an art rather than a knowledge base and methods for integrating the art of poetry into the school curriculum The authors intention is not to fill gaps it is to change how poetry is presented in the classroom to change how it is taught and how students think about it Teaching the Art of Poetry Emphasizes hands on experiences Over 160 exercises focus attention on the dynamics of the art of poetry Activities include group work peer editing critical thinking skills revising drafts focused reading oral communication listening skills and vocabulary as well as mechanics and usage Features a week long lesson plan in each chapter to aid the teacher These relate the main aspects of each chapter to classroom activities and in addition include a Beyond the Week section to promote further investigation of the topic Promotes an integrated approach to poetry The examples used in each chapter show poetry as a living tradition Makes extensive use of complete poems along with extracts from many others Does not talk down to teachers is teacher oriented and jargon free

Happier Here and Now Mary Jane Grant, 2019-05-16 A tale of loss and hope of strength drawn from truly inhabiting the moment Raynor Winn bestselling author of The Salt Path An inspiring memoir and simple guide that anyone can use to find a new kind of happiness in the small pleasures of everyday life Mary Jane Grant takes us on her travels through London and the French countryside as she recovers from loss to find a richer experience of life love and connection As she immerses herself in the sights smells and small pleasures of each moment the sadness starts to recede From the bustling cafes of Camden and the pastel coloured streets of Primrose Hill to the sun soaked vineyards of the south of France her journey leads to new experiences that she could not have imagined in her old life Real connections are made she lets go of things she no longer needs and takes pleasure in the good generous and beautiful parts of life that she encounters every day Beautifully and succinctly told this is a story about what happens when you embrace life whatever it may bring with surprising and joyful results Anyone can use the enjoyable techniques described in this book to create a more vivid life one small pleasure at a time As we grapple with how to live in a post pandemic world this book is a perfect match to the questions of our time While the tea steeped I split open the muffin and slathered butter across the warm crumbly surface I watched the butter melt I took a bite Memories of my grandmother s kitchen came back I cradled the smooth white cup in my hand ran my fingers over the uneven top of the time worn wooden table I looked around the place and watched people Time passed I realised that it was an hour since I first saw the sign telling me to smell the tea And all this time I had experienced neither sad memories nor anxious worries I was completely and simply here with the tea the place the people myself I was present And it felt wonderful

Arab Voices in Diaspora, 2009-01-01 Arab Voices in Diaspora offers a wide ranging overview and an insightful study of the field of anglophone Arab literature produced across the world The first of its kind it chronicles the development of this literature from its inception at the turn of the past century until the post 9 11 era The book sheds light not only on the historical but also on the cultural and aesthetic value of this literary production which has so far received little scholarly attention It also seeks to place anglophone Arab literary works within the larger nomenclature of postcolonial emerging and ethnic literature as it finds that the authors are haunted by the same hybrid exilic and diasporic questions that have dogged their fellow postcolonialists Issues of belonging loyalty and affinity are recognized and dealt with in the various essays as are the various concerns involved in cultural and relational identification The contributors to this volume come from different national backgrounds and share in examining the nuances of this emerging literature Authors discussed include Elmaz Abinader Diana Abu Jaber Leila Aboulela Leila Ahmed Rabih Alameddine Edward Atiyah Shaw Dallal Ibrahim Fawal Fadia Faqir Khalil Gibran Suheir Hammad Loubna Haikal Nada Awar Jarrar Jad El Hage Lawrence Joseph Mohja Kahf Jamal Mahjoub Hisham Matar Dunya Mikhail Samia Serageldine Naomi Shihab Nye Ameen Rihani Mona Simpson Ahdaf Soueif and Cecile Yazbak Contributors Victoria M Abboud Diya M Abdo Samaa Abdurraqib Marta Cariello Carol Fadda Conrey Cristina Garrig s Lamia Hammad Yasmeen Hanoosh Wa l S Hassan Richard E Hishmeh Syrine Hout Layla Al Maleh Brinda J Mehta Dawn Mirapuri Geoffrey P Nash Boulus Sarru Fadia Fayez Suyoufie Performance Making and the Archive Ashutosh Potdar, Sharmistha Saha, 2022-11-30 This book investigates theories and practices shaped by a performance s relationship to the archive The contributions in the volume examine how the changing nature of performance practices has made it imperative to understand how the archive and archival practices could add to the performance work They explore a variety of themes including artistic engagement with the archive in both conceptual and material terms physical virtual and digital forms publicly and privately collected oral written and digital ways or organized and unorganized collections Finally the volume examines how archives are modelled on existing structure and the ways in which they can be brought into discourses and practices of performance making through engagement and contestation A novel approach to performance theory this volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of performance studies media and culture studies studies of technology and art as also literature and literary criticism Arabs in America Michael Suleiman, 2010-06-29 Setting the record straight about Arab American culture Sacred Writings by Women in Medicine Penelope Applegarth MSN FNP-C FCN, 2021-11-08 This book is a collection of writings by seven professional women working in health care and of this groups writing practice This writing process is not a therapy The process is more a ritual of nourishment at every level physical emotional social and spiritual The writing occurs during a monthly gathering outside of work This practice began

ten years ago to foster a greater comradery among the health care providers working within a rural health organization that serves three communities offering primary care and other ancillary services The purpose of forming this gathering for a practice of writing was to have an outlet for expression of feelings and frustrations outside of the workplace From the beginning it was clear this was not to be a gripe session related to our work in the organization We developed a practice for writing together as a means of building a greater depth of consciousness to their individual unconscious stories feelings and events that they carry with them What has occurred is a greater depth of personal understanding deep respect of self and others and a rich commitment to the values that drew each of these women to work in healthcare The monthly meeting ritual sets the backdrop for the group writing and is part of the fabric and richness that has built an environment of trust and calmness to write in The book offers to the reader a tool that can build resilience personal and professional The stories in this book are written by women working in healthcare and healthcare demands on providers is intense Prior to the pandemic Family Practice Physicians and Advanced Clinical Providers ACP surveyed in America according to SE Healthcare Quality Consulting Feb 2021 found that 49% showed symptoms of burnout prior to the COVID 19 pandemic and at the peak of the pandemic 100% of those surveyed showed symptoms of burnout

Famous Lisa Desimini, 2015-09-01 FAMOUS is a short illustrated poem Both text and illustrations have a charmingly ironic take on what it means to be famous At once simple and profound it opens minds and hearts Ironically it is this famous poet's most famous poem with an established fan base FROM THE POET Over the years when I visited schools students of all ages gathering in their libraries or auditoriums would often clamor to ask me Are you famous Miss before I even began speaking about writing The concept confounded me Of course I could never say Yes and I realized that saying No might mean they would be less attentive so I meditated on the oddity of the word and the concept itself and wrote this little poem that I could read whenever they asked Sometimes they thought I was trying to trick them Huh Sometimes they laughed But they always paid good attention afterwards and I liked that the poem might bend their idea of what the word even means Sometimes I started by saying Everything is famous if you notice it Sure here's my answer I think the poem has served me well My biggest surprise has been everyone always wants me to read this poem I guess it is one of my three most often requested poems Teachers always mention it Parents have told me they copy it on graduation cards for their high school seniors I've seen it hand printed on posters in many classrooms Students participating in UIL public speaking competitions often recite it It's been printed on more than one standardized test I allow it to be printed because I like to imagine students can have friendly moments even while taking ominous tests Book artist Lisa Desimini whose work I cherish and delight in honored me by wanting to illustrate this poem and create a visual experience for the poem as well Lisa and I imagine Famous as a possible gift book for people of all ages People who have been famous to us

whom we wish to encourage who are at a crossroads who are graduating w A Paradigm of Care Robert Stake, Merel Visse, 2021-01-01 Remember the pots hammered by spoons from high Manhattan windows and parades of cars and pick up trucks holding dear the medical professionals responding to covid 19 This book is part of that chorus that march to express appreciation for the giving of care And beyond doctors and nurses bless their hearts to mothers caring for their babies for captains for their teams for the soon to be widowers for their wives and teachers for their students but also for the ranchers for their cattle and the contemplative world for our environment This is a book to think more closely of the support for care individual as it so often will be to be woven more closely together in a paradigm of care Care is always prominent Care for others of the family care for those of the tribe care for animals and homes and gardens and properties self care And the purse Even without teaching compensation or legislation care survives but even with these helpings it falls short of the need We live in a crisis of care Thinking explicitly and beyond health care There is no mechanism of state and conscience that delivers care to all the venues of need and seldom in the amounts needed The reservoirs of care are far from empty but at a mark that needs topping up There is need for care advocacy a care ethic a paradigm This book is about that paradigm A care paradigm may bring comfort and recovery more fully to the people and organic creations of the world The paradigm hears the moan of indifference It draws upon the eyes of the heart The paradigm is about how we see the need for care The care paradigm the grand beholding is manifest in how we provide for others how we nurture them give succor how we are disposed and are not to sacrifice to relieve their hurt It is not only caring for those visibly needing care unable to care for themselves but caring for all It is having a disposition that the hurts large and small that all of us carry arouse concern and appreciation from and for each individual the community and the world The Intersection of Poetry and Jungian

Analysis Through Metaphor Regina Colonia-Willner, 2024-08-06 The Intersection of Poetry and Jungian Analysis Through Metaphor In Creation You Are Created explores the relationship between Jungian psychoanalytical intervention and poetry focusing on the emergence of metaphor which occurs in both processes as it happens in neuroscience and fairy tales Metaphor is a mode of communication that forms a bridge between different experience domains through associative linkages it refers to a subject by mentioning another for rhetorical effect Indeed the prominence of metaphor in Jungian therapy is a characteristic that differentiates it from other forms of treatment That s because metaphor as we will see in this book is deeply rooted in the body in two ways It is used to organize bodily sensations cognitively and is located on the border between mind and brain C G Jung uses a metaphor when he observes in Memories Dreams Reflections As far as we can discern the sole purpose of existence is to kindle a light in the darkness of mere being The Two Most Important Days Sanjiv Chopra, Gina Vild, 2017-12-26 What are the two most important days in your life The day you are born and the day you find out why Mark Twain famously wrote The search for happiness is hardwired in our DNA It transcends age gender geography vocation and personal circumstances But how do you achieve it Through inspirational storytelling scientific evidence practical advice captivating exercises and poetry Dr Sanjiv Chopra and Gina Vild present a powerful message that shows you how to achieve happiness no matter the challenges and stumbling blocks you face along the way They also reveal the best way to be happy Discover and live your life s purpose It s a sure path to human flourishing In fact you may be surprised to learn that living with purpose can even add years to your life Do you know your life s purpose This book offers a path to discovering it by illuminating the value of gratitude forgiveness meditation music friendship and so much more It will set you on the right path and spark sustained happiness joy and bliss Wisdom and Compassion in Psychotherapy Christopher K. Germer, Ronald D. Siegel, 2014-01-01 Bringing together leading scholars scientists and clinicians this compelling volume explores how therapists can cultivate wisdom and compassion in themselves and their clients Chapters describe how combining insights from ancient contemplative practices and modern research can enhance the treatment of anxiety depression trauma substance abuse suicidal behavior couple conflict and parenting stress Seamlessly edited the book features numerous practical exercises and rich clinical examples It examines whether wisdom and compassion can be measured objectively what they look like in the therapy relationship their role in therapeutic change and how to integrate them into treatment planning and goal setting The book includes a foreword by His Holiness the Dalai Lama
