Disability and Chronic Disease Quarterly, 1984 Reliving the Past Olivier Zunz, Charles Tilly, David William Cohen, William B. Taylor, William T. Rowe, 2014-02-01 Five historians uncover the ties between people's daily routines and the all encompassing framework of their lives They trace the processes of social construction in Western Europe the United States Latin America Africa and China discussing both the historical similarities and the ways in which individual history has shaped each area's development They stress the need for a social history that connects individuals to major ideological political and economic transformations Civic Passions Tichi, 2010-07-13 A gripping and inspiring book Civic Passions examines innovative leadership in periods of crisis in American history Starting from the late nineteenth century when respected voices warned that America was on the brink of collapse Cecelia Tichi explores the wisdom of practical visionaries who were confronted with a series of social political Embracing Risk Tom Baker, Jonathan Simon, 2010-02-15 For much of the twentieth century industrialized nations addressed social problems such as workers compensation benefits and social welfare programs in terms of spreading risk But in recent years a new approach has emerged using risk both as a way to conceive of and address social problems and as an incentive to reduce individual claims on collective resources Embracing Risk explores this new approach from a variety of perspectives The first part of the book focuses on the interplay between risk and insurance in various historical and social contexts The second part examines how risk is used to govern fields outside the realm of insurance from extreme sports to policing mental health institutions and international law Offering an original approach to risk insurance and responsibility the provocative and wide ranging essays in Embracing Risk demonstrate that risk has moved well beyond its origins in the insurance trade to become a central organizing principle of social and cultural life Writing Educational Biography Craig Kridel,2013-11-26 This collection examines the many influences of biographical inquiry in education and discusses methodological issues from the perspective of veteran and novice biographers Contributors underscore the documentary interpretive and literary concerns of biographical and archival work and their essays reveal the complexity distinctiveness and sense of exploration of scholarly endeavors
