Working People Fifth Edition An Illustrated History Of The Canadian Labour Movement:

Working People, Fifth Edition Desmond Morton, 1999-01-13 From the dock workers of Saint John in 1812 to teenage crews at McDonald's today Canada's trade union movement has a long exciting history Working People tells the story of the men and women in the labour movement in Canada and their struggle for security dignity and influence in our society Desmond Morton highlights the great events of labour history the 1902 meeting that enabled international unions to dominate Canadian unionism for seventy years the Winnipeg General Strike of 1919 and an obscure 1944 order in council that became the labour's charter of rights and freedoms He describes the romantic idealism of the Knights of Labor in the 1880s and looks at new model unions that used their members dues and savings to fight powerful employers Working People explores the clash between idealists who fought for socialism industrial democracy and equality for women and men and the realists who wrestled with the human realities of self interest prejudice and fear Morton tells us about Canadians who deserve to be better known Phillips Thompson Helena Gutteridge Lynn Williams Huguette Plamondon Mabel Marlowe Madeleine Parent and a hundred others whose struggle to reconcile idealism and reality shaped Canada more than they could ever know

Raising the Workers' Flag Stephen Lyon Endicott, 2012-01-01 The Workers Unity League WUL occupies a storied place in Canadian labour history In the bleak early years of the Great Depression as jobs vanished wages sank and unions stood transfixed a small but feisty organization ix exploded onto industrial Canada and by force of sheer political will it seems rallied an array of workers in heroic battle against some of the most recalcitrant employers in the country Tales of these conflicts particularly those in small centres such as Bienfait Flin Flon and Stratford or in the woods of Vancouver Island or the mining communities of the Crowsnest Pass are staples of labour history in this country and provide classic vignettes of class struggle at its rawest The On to Ottawa Trek the culmination of WUL organizing in the relief camps represents in many a Canadian history survey the denouement of a narrative of social tensions stretched to the breaking point at mid decade Whatever one thinks of the wisdom of the WUL's actions and historians views are varied the organization is credited with reigniting working class resistance and with training a new generation of labour and political activists Raising the Workers Flag Stephen L Endicott's engaging and well researched history of the WUL skilfully conveys the breadth and the intensity of the movement through its short history

On the Side of the People Jim William Warren, James Warren, 2005-12-15 A comprehensive history of working people in Saskatchewan from the mid 1800s to the present in a handsome coffee table format including numerous historical photos of the personalities and events that bring it to life This book is created for the working people that it celebrates In a plain spoken and engaging narrative style it captures the events and the personalities that shaped the working people of Saskatchewan and the life of the province that those workers built Jim Warren tells the fascinating tale of jobs working conditions and the attempts to effect meaningful changes in the condition of workers lives Starting with the Fur Trade period and moving through the arrival of the railroad brotherhoods the emergence of the craft unions two world wars modernization and into the present age Working in Saskatchewan shows the evolution of the work force and the relationship between that work force and both private and public sector employers The book wraps up with a short chapter on the imagined future of labour in the province in the voices of a series of speakers ranging from former Premier Allan Blakeney to ordinary workers on the floor of a recent sfl convention Working in Saskatchewan also includes a number of features that will make it even more useful for private study or school work Two comprehensive indexes detail the chief characters who played a role in the development of the labour movement and a list of events and important topics A series of informational appendices present statistical information relating to the Saskatchewan labour force size of the organized and unorganized labour force number of women in the work force etc There will also be a helpful glossary of the acronyms and abbreviations that characterize written or oral discussions about labour and a genealogy of labour which charts the rise and growth of certain unions and their transformation into or absorption by others

Household Politics Magda Fahrni, 2005-12-15 The reconstruction of Canadian society in the wake of the Second World War had an enormous impact on all aspects of public and private life For families in Montreal reconstruction plans included a stable home life hinged on social and economic security female suffrage welfare state measures and a reasonable cost of living In Household Politics Magda Fahrni examines postwar reconstruction from a variety of angles in order to fully convey its significance in the 1940s as differences of class gender language religion and region naturally produced differing perspectives Reconstruction was not simply a matter of official policy Although the government set many of the parameters for public debate federal projects did not inspire a postwar consensus and families alternatively embraced negotiated or opposed government plans Through in depth research from a wide variety of sources Fahrni brings together family history social history and political history to look at a wide variety of Montreal families French speaking and English speaking Catholic Protestant and Jewish making Household Politics a particularly unique and erudite study Quill & Quire, 2007

Working People in Alberta Alvin Finkel, 2012 A political and economic analysis of the history of working people in Alberta Canadian Books in Print, 2001 Working People Desmond Morton, 1998 Desmond Morton highlights the great events of labour history the 1902 meeting that enabled international unions to dominate Canadian unionism for seventy years the Winnipeg General Strike of 1919 and an obscure 1944 order in council that became the charter of labour's rights and freedoms He looks at the new model unions that used their members dues and savings to fight powerful employers and describes the romantic idealism of the Knights of Labor in the 1880s one of the most dramatic and visionary movements ever to seize the Canadian imagination He recounts the desperate struggles of miners loggers and fishers to protect themselves from both employers and the dangers of their work Working People explores the clash between idealists who fought for such impossible dreams as an eight hour day socialism holidays with pay industrial democracy and equality for women and men and the realists who wrestled with the human realities of self interest prejudice and fear Morton tells us about Canadians who deserve to be better known such as Phillips Thompson Helena Gutteridge Lynn Williams Huguette Plamondon Mabel Marlowe Madeleine Parent and a hundred others whose struggle to reconcile idealism and reality shaped Canada more than they would ever know This new edition brings the book up to date with discussions of globalization and its challenge to nationally based workers organizations Workers in Hard Times Leon Fink, Joseph A. McCartin, Joan Sangster, 2014-02-15 Seeking to historicize the 2007 2009 Great Recession this volume of essays situates the current economic crisis and its impact on workers in the context of previous abrupt shifts in the modern day capitalist marketplace Contributors use examples from industrialized North America South America Europe Asia and Australia to demonstrate how workers and states have responded to those shifts and to their disempowering effects on labor Since the Industrial Revolution contributors argue factors such as race sex and state intervention have mediated both the effect of economic depressions on workers lives and workers responses to those depressions Contributors also posit a varying dynamic between political upheaval and economic crises and between workers and the welfare state The volume ends with an examination of today s Great Recession its historical distinctiveness its connection to neoliberalism and its attendant expressions of worker status and agency around the world A sobering conclusion lays out a likely future for workers one not far removed from the instability and privation of the nineteenth century The essays in this volume offer up no easy solutions to the challenges facing today s workers Nevertheless they make clear that cogent historical thinking is crucial to understanding those challenges and they push us toward a rethinking of the relationship between capital and labor the waged and unwaged and the employed and jobless Contributors are Sven Beckert Sean Cadigan Leon Fink Alvin Finkel Wendy Goldman Gaetan Heroux Joseph A McCartin David Montgomery Edward Montgomery Scott Reynolds Nelson Melanie Nolan Bryan D Palmer Joan Sangster Judith Stein Hilary Wainright and Lu Zhang Canadiana ,1984 North of the Color Line Sarah-Jane Mathieu, 2010 North of the Color Line examines life in Canada for the estimated 5 000 blacks both African Americans and West Indians who immigrated to Canada after the end of Reconstruction in the United States Through the experiences of black railway workers Working People Desmond Morton, 2007 From the dock workers of Saint John in 1812 to teenage crews at McDonald s today Canada s trade union movement has a long exciting history Working People tells the story of the men and women in the labour movement in Canada and their struggle for security dignity and influence in our society Desmond Morton highlights the great events of labour history the 1902 meeting that enabled international unions to dominate Canadian unionism for seventy years the Winnipeg General Strike of 1919 and an obscure 1944 order in council that became the labour movement s charter of rights and freedoms looks at new model unions that used their members dues and savings to fight powerful employers Working People explores the clash between idealists who fought for socialism industrial democracy and equality for women and men and the realists who wrestled with the human realities of self interest prejudice and fear Thompson Helena Gutteridge Lynn Williams Huguette Plamondon Mabel Marlowe Madeleine Parent and a
