Transgressive Itineraries Postcolonial Hybridizations Of Dramatic Realism Dramaturgies:

Transgressive Itineraries Marc Maufort, 2003-01-01 The fast growing body of postcolonial drama is progressively gaining its just recognition in the twentieth century canon of English language plays From the vantage point of various samplings along the Trans Pacific axis linking English Canada Australia and New Zealand this monograph seeks to document the significance of this emerging postcolonial theater More specifically it examines the myriad ways in which over the last two decades representative mainstream ethnic and First Nations playwrights have dramatized Europe s Other in its multiple guises In their efforts to match new content with innovative form these artists have followed transgressive itineraries redrawing the boundaries of conventional Western stage realism Their new aesthetics often relies on techniques akin to Homi Bhabha s notions of hybridity and mimicry The present study offers detailed analyses of the modes of hybridization through which Judith Thompson Louis Nowra Tomson Highway Jack Davis Hone Kouka and other prominent writers have articulated subtle forms of psychic grotesque and mythic magic realism Their legacy will undoubtedly affect the postcolonial dramaturgies of the twenty first century Transgressive Itineraries Marc Maufort, 2003 The fast growing body of postcolonial drama is progressively gaining its just recognition in the twentieth century canon of English language plays From the vantage point of various samplings along the Trans Pacific axis linking English Canada Australia and New Zealand this monograph seeks to document the significance of this emerging postcolonial theater More specifically it examines the myriad ways in which over the last two decades representative mainstream ethnic and First Nations playwrights have dramatized Europe s Other in its multiple guises In their efforts to match new content with innovative form these artists have followed transgressive itineraries redrawing the boundaries of conventional Western stage realism Their new aesthetics often relies on techniques akin to Homi Bhabha s notions of hybridity and mimicry The present study offers detailed analyses of the modes of hybridization through which Judith Thompson Louis Nowra Tomson Highway Jack Davis Hone Kouka and other prominent writers have articulated subtle forms of psychic grotesque and mythic magic realism Their legacy will undoubtedly affect the postcolonial dramaturgies of the twenty first century The Palgrave Handbook of Theatre and Race Tiziana Morosetti, Osita Okagbue, 2021-04-20 The first comprehensive publication on the subject this book investigates interactions between racial thinking and the stage in the modern and contemporary world with 25 essays on case studies that will shed light on areas previously neglected by criticism while providing fresh perspectives on already investigated contexts Examining performances from Europe the Americas the Middle East Africa China Australia New Zealand and the South Pacific islands this collection ultimately frames the history of racial narratives on stage in a global context resetting understandings of race in public discourse International Dramaturgy Maya E. Roth, Sara Freeman, 2008 This collection provides the first full length investigation of the oeuvre of one of Britain s leading dramatists Timberlake Wertenbaker By considering the polyglot playwright s theatre from translations and adaptations to new plays as a dynamic continuum of translations and transformations Maya Roth and Sara Freeman create an intriguing focused frame for understanding Wertenbaker's work as distinctly cross cultural theatrically rich and intertextual providing a prescient case study of the translational turn emerging in international theatre today The contributors investigate translation theory and practice through Wertenbaker's diverse linguistic and genre translations from French ancient Greek and Italian to English and from myth history classics fairytale and literature to the stage Interrelated chapters by scholars and artists from varied countries language traditions and disciplines use performance studies comparative literature feminist theory and cultural anthropology to position Wertenbaker's theatre as a critical nexus for analyzing and imagining cross historical dialogues with contemporary audiences and our plural legacies Thanks to its substantive engagement with the ethics theories and collaborative practices of theatrical translation and adaptation more broadly and its equally rigorous examination of Wertenbaker's hybridic politics and poetics this collection can serve as a useful resource for scholars and artists both

Performing Aotearoa Marc Maufort, David O'Donnell (MA.), 2007 This volume comprises a wide range of chapters focusing on key figures in the development of New Zealand theatre and drama such as among others Robert Lord Ken Duncum Gary Henderson Stephen Sinclair Hone Kouka Briar Grace Smith Jacob Rajan Lynda Chanwai Earle Nathaniel Lees and Victor Rodger Publisher description Antipodean Childhoods Helga Ramsey-Kurz, Ulla Ratheiser, 2020-05-15 Though obvious the productiveness of combining the three concepts of childhood otherness and the postcolonial has not inspired much academic inquiry so far The essays assembled in this book make up for this omission and address aspects of growing up in Australia and New Zealand from various angles They base their argument on the premise that whether in settler migrant or indigenous communities children tend to be ascribed a space of their own mostly outside but never independent of that of adults How adults configure this space both practically and imaginatively for instance in the arts in adult and children's literature in film and photography or in historical documents is one of the questions answered in the process How these configurations have developed with time and under the influence of specific historical circumstances is another Thus the individual papers are more than a contribution to the current re-discovery of the theme of childhood in European cultures in that Antipodean Childhoods remains centrally concerned with the cultural specificity of childhoods lived in Australia and New Zealand and with the theoretical relevance of this specificity to postcolonial literary cultural and historical studies

Performance, Subjectivity, Cosmopolitanism Yana Meerzon, 2020-08-07 This book looks at the connection between contemporary theatre practices and cosmopolitanism a philosophical condition of social behaviour based on our responsibility respect and healthy curiosity to the other Advocating for cosmopolitanism has become a necessity in a world defined by global wars mass migration and rise of nationalism Using empathy affect and telling personal stories of displacement through embodied encounter between the actor and their audience performance arts can serve as a training ground for this social behavior In the centre of this encounter is a new cosmopolitan a person of divided origins and cultural heritage someone who speaks many languages and claims different countries as their place of belonging The book examines how European and North American theatres stage this divided subjectivity both from within the way we tell stories about ourselves to others and from without through the stories the others tell about us Signatures of the Past Marc Maufort, Caroline De Wagter, 2008 In the last decades of the twentieth century North American drama has powerfully enacted the problematic notions of cultural memory and identity as the essays assembled in this critical anthology demonstrate Echoing Derrida's non essentialist interpretation of the term signature this collection provides an innovative focus on North American theatre and drama as a site of latent cultural memories In this volume the concept of cultural memory offers a privileged vantage point from which to redefine issues of diasporic identities exilic predicaments and multi ethnic subject positions at the dawn of a new century Playwrights examined here include noted Canadian and US artists such as Marie Clements Eva Ensler Lorraine Hansberry Tomson Highway Cherr e Moraga Djanet Sears Guillermo Verdecchia August Wilson and Chay Yew to cite but a few In the process of remembering North American dramatists develop new aesthetic modes in which the signatures of the past merge with the present and foreshadow an imagined future Performance Stephen Chinna, 2003 In his consideration of a wide range of 20th century political theatre and performance practices in the West Stephen Chinna contends that it is the provisional and contingent strategies of performance that set the model for the postmodern JSL ,2006
